At the end of the 1960s a series of thirteen blues paperbacks edited by Paul Oliver for the London publisher November Books began appearing. One manuscript landed on his desk that had been written in 1943 by a then twenty three year old Amsterdammer Frank Frans Boom. Its publication to which Oliver gave the title Laughing to Keep from Crying was announced on the back jacket of the last three Blues Paperbacks in 1971 and 1972. Yet it never was published and the manuscript once more disappeared. In October 1996 Dutch blues expert and publicist Verbeij went in search of the presumably lost manuscript and the story behind its author. It only took him a couple of months to track down the manuscript but it took another ten years to glean the full story behind the extraordinary Frans Boom who passed away in 1953 in Indonesia.
