M. Birdsall,1860 Conrad Aiken Edward Butscher,2010-06-01 The first of a planned two volume biography Conrad Aiken Poet of White Horse Vale follows Aiken s early life from his birth in 1889 to 1925 when he stood on the threshold of both nervous breakdown and poetic success It was then that Aiken began to face his paradoxically idyllic and tragic Savannah childhood and to confront the events of February 27 1901 On that day the eleven year old Aiken heard gunshots punctuate a nightlong argument between his mother and father Running into the next room he discovered his mother murdered and his father dead by suicide Sounding the deep reverberations of those events in Aiken s mind Edward Butscher follows the poet s life and work as he sought to regain in some permanent form the idyll he had lost as a child Butscher tells of Aiken s determined efforts to gain recognition for his verse in the fevered cultural circuits of the early twentieth century from his friendship begun at Harvard with T S Eliot through frustrating excursions into the literary society of England and repeated trips on the poetic trade route from his home in Boston to Chicago and New York to often sharp encounters with such powerful cultural barons as Ezra Pound Amy Lowell and Harriet Monroe Hoping to build his reputation on a series of detached poetic symphonies to keep depression from boiling over into madness and suicide Aiken skirted the border of his deepest memories and fears a border he would cross in the works that lay ahead
