Night Flight To Hanoi Daniel Berrigan's War Diary With Eleven Poems:

Night Flight to Hanoi Daniel Berrigan, 1968 An American Ordeal Charles DeBenedetti, 1990-03-01 An American Ordeal is the first comprehensive interpretive history of the antiwar movement in the United States throughout the Vietnam era Beginning with the rise of a liberal peace movement against atmospheric nuclear testing from 1955 to 1963 the authors describe the emergence of radical pacifists and politically motivated groups who eventually created a diverse coalition against the Vietnam War They examine how extremist elements came to dominate the movement in the late 1960s to be supplanted by a larger consensus of liberal and pacifist groups in the early 1970s Faith, Resistance, and the Future James L. Marsh, Anna J. Brown, 2012 The book presents Daniel Berrigan's contribution and challenge to Catholic social thought The aim of this book is for the first time to make Berrigan's thought and life available to the academic Catholic community and to activists so that a fruitful interaction takes place An Aerospace Bibliography, 1978 Disarmed And Dangerous Murray Polner, 2018-02-02 What transformed Daniel and Philip Berrigan from conventional Roman Catholic priests into holy outlaws for a time the two most wanted men of J Edgar Hoover's FBI And how did they evolve from their traditionally pious second generation immigrant beginnings to become the most famous some would say notorious religious rebels of their day Disarmed and Dangerous the first full length unauthorized biography of the Berrigans answers these questions with an incisive and illuminating account of their rise to prominence as civil rights and antiwar activists It also traces the brothers careers as constant thorns in the side of church authority as well as their leadership of the ongoing Plowshares movement a highly controversial campaign of civil disobedience against the contemporary arms trade and nuclear weapons Murray Polner and Jim O Grady plumb the Berrigans contradictions among them Philip's secret marriage while he was still a Josephite priest to Elizabeth McAlister then a Catholic nun which led to their dismissals by their respective religious orders and Philip's excommunication from the church and Daniel's speech faulting Israel's treatment of Palestinians and the resulting criticism loosed upon him from pro Israeli Americans and many of his allies on the left Disarmed and Dangerous is a fascinating study of brothers linked by faith and the dreams of peace and social justice in a century bloodied by war mass murders and weapons of immense destructive power It is above all an original contribution to modern American history that is sure to be widely read and discussed Divine Rebels Deena Guzder, 2011-05 In an effort to reclaim the fundamental principles of Christianity moving it away from religious right wing politics and towards the teachings of Jesus the American Christian activists profiled in this book agitate for a society free from racism patriarchy bigotry retribution ecocide torture poverty and militarism These activists view their faith as a personal commitment with public implications their world consists of people of religious faith protecting the weak and safeguarding the sacred Recounting social justice activists on the frontlines of the Christian Left since the 1950s including Daniel Berrigan Roy Bourgeois and SueZann Bosler this book articulates their faith based alternative to the mainstream conservative religious agenda and liberal cynicism and describes a campaign conducting covert meetings with antiwar activists and most astonishingly helping to code secret letters to their imprisoned husbands In a page turning work of narrative non fiction Heath Hardage Lee tells the story of these remarkable women for the first time The League of Wives is certain to be on everyone s must read list Christian Critics Eugene McCarraher,2000 While all supported movements for the rights of labor racial minorities and women some endorsed the military industrial order that established the professional managerial class as a dominant national force while others favored a decentralized political economy of worker self management At the same time McCarraher recasts the debate about the therapeutic ethic by tracing a shift not from religion to therapy but from religious to secular conceptions of selfhood The ^ACatonsville Nine Shawn Francis Peters,2012-06-29 In the spring of 1968 a group of Catholic antiwar activists barged into a draft board in suburban Baltimore stole hundreds of Selective Service records and burned the documents in a fire fueled by homemade napalm The bold actions of the Catonsville Nine quickly became international news and they remained in the headlines throughout the summer and fall of 1968 when the activists were tried in federal court Shawn Francis Peters tells the fascinating story of this singular witness for peace and social justice The American Peace Movement Charles F. Howlett,1991 Lift Up Your Voice Like a Trumpet Michael B. Friedland,2000-11-09 When the Supreme Court declared in 1954 that segregated public schools were unconstitutional the highest echelons of Protestant Catholic and Jewish religious organizations enthusiastically supported the ruling and black civil rights workers expected and actively sought the cooperation of their white religious cohorts Many white southern clergy however were outspoken in their defense of segregation and even those who supported integration were wary of risking their positions by urging parishioners to act on their avowed religious beliefs in a common humanity Those who did so found themselves abandoned by friends attacked by white supremacists and often driven from their communities Michael Friedland here offers a collective biography of several southern and nationally known white religious leaders who did step forward to join the major social protest movements of the mid twentieth century lending their support first to the civil rights movement and later to protests over American involvement in Vietnam Profiling such activists as William Sloane Coffin Jr Daniel and Philip Berrigan Abraham Joshua Heschel Eugene Carson Blake Robert McAfee Brown and Will D Campbell he reveals the passions and commitment behind their involvement in these protests and places their actions in the context of a burgeoning ecumenical movement David Dellinger Andrew E. Hunt,2006-05 His instrumental role in the creation of Liberation magazine in 1956 launched him onto the national stage Writing regular essays for the influential radical monthly on the arms race and the Civil Rights movement he became in Abbie Hoffman s words the father of the antiwar movement and the architect of the 1968 demonstrations in Chicago He remained active in anti war causes until his death on May 25 2004 at age 88 Transforming Ourselves, Transforming the World Mary Beth Combs,Patricia Ruggiano Schmidt,2013-09-02 Transforming Ourselves Transforming the World is an insightful collection that articulates how Jesuit colleges and universities create an educational community energized to transform the lives of its students faculty and administrators and to equip them to transform a broken world The essays are rooted in Pedro Arrupe s ideal of forming men and women for others and inspired by Peter Hans Kolvenbach s October 2000 address at Santa Clara in which he identified three areas where the promotion of justice may be manifested in our institutions formation and learning research and teaching and our way of proceeding Using the three areas laid out in Fr Kolvenbach s address as its organizing structure this stimulating volume addresses the following challenges How do we promote student life experiences and service How does interdisciplinary collaborative research promote teaching and reflection How do our institutions exemplify justice in their daily practices Introductory pieces by internationally acclaimed authors such as Rev Dean Brackley S J David J O Brien Lisa Sowle Cahill and Rev Stephen A Privett S J pave the way for a range of smart and highly creative essays that illustrate and honor the scholarship teaching and service that have developed out of a commitment to the ideals of Jesuit higher education The topics covered span disciplines and fields from the arts to engineering from nursing to political science and law The essays offer numerous examples of engaged pedagogy which as Rev Brackley points out fits squarely with Jesuit pedagogy insertion programs community based learning study abroad internships clinical placements and other forms of interacting with the poor and with cultures other than our own This book not only illustrates the dynamic growth of Jesuit education but critically identifies key challenges for educators such as How can we better address issues of race in our teaching and learning Are we educating in nonviolence How can we make the college or university greener How can we evoke a desire for the faith that does justice Transforming Ourselves Transforming the World is an indispensable volume that has the potential to act as an academic facilitator for the promotion of justice within not only Jesuit schools but all schools of higher education Night Flight to Hanoi Daniel Berrigan,1968
