Onwine Australian Wine Annual 2001:

The 2001 OnWine Australian Wine Annual Jeremy Oliver, 2000 Growth and Cycles in Australia's Wine Industry
Kym Anderson, Nanda R. Aryal, 2015 A Statistical Compendium 1843 to 2013 Jeremy Oliver's Australian Wine Annual Jeremy Oliver, 2004 Social, Cultural and Economic Impacts of Wine in New Zealand. Peter J. Howland, 2014-04-16 New Zealand's wine came to the world's attention in the late 1980s with its production of some of the best quality sauvignon blancs. Since then the industry has grown significantly and has increasingly gained an international reputation as a producer of quality boutique wines. This volume provides an innovative multi-disciplinary and critical review of wine production and consumption focusing specifically on the fascinating wine industry of New Zealand. It considers the history, production, aesthetics, consumption, and role of place identity from multi-disciplinary perspectives to offer insight into the impacts of wine production and consumption. By linking the study of wine to broadly constructed social, cultural, historical, and transnational processes, the book contributes to contemporary debates on the life of commodities, social class, and place and people. Throughout, comparisons are made to other internationally recognized wine regions such as Bordeaux and Burgundy. This title furthers the understanding of the social, cultural context of wine production and consumption in this region and will be valuable reading to students, researchers, and academics interested in gastronomy, wine studies, tourism, and hospitality.

Sustainable Culinary Systems Colin Michael Hall, Stefan Gössling, 2013. This is the first volume to examine the concept of sustainable culinary systems, particularly with specific reference to tourism and hospitality. Divided into two parts, firstly the notion of the local is explored, reflecting the increased interest in the championing of local food production and consumption. Secondly, treatment of sustainability in food and food tourism and hospitality in settings that reach beyond the local in a business and socio-economic sense is reviewed. The book therefore reflects much of the contemporary public interest in the conscious or ethical consumption and production of food as well as revealing the inherent tensions between local and broader goals in both defining and achieving sustainable culinary systems and the environmental, social, and economic implications of food production and consumption.

The Oxford Companion to Wine Jancis Robinson, Julia Harding, 2015-09-17. Published to worldwide acclaim, the first edition of Jancis Robinson's seminal volume immediately attained legendary status, winning every major wine book award, including the Glenfiddich and Julia Child IACP awards, as well as writer and woman of the year accolades for its editor on both sides of the Atlantic. Combining meticulously researched fact with refreshing opinion and wit, The Oxford Companion to Wine presents almost 4,000 entries on every wine-related topic, imaginable from regions and grape varieties to the owners, connoisseurs, growers, and tasters in wine through the ages, from viticulture and oenology to the history of wine from its origins to the present day. More than 180 esteemed contributors, including 58 new to this edition, range from internationally renowned academics to some of the most famous wine writers and wine specialists in the world. Now exhaustively updated, this fourth edition incorporates the very latest international research to present 300 new entries on topics ranging from additives and wine apps to WSET and Zelen Over 60 per cent of all entries have been revised and useful lists and statistics are appended including a unique list of the world's controlled appellations and their permitted grape varieties as well as vineyard area wine production and consumption by country Illustrated with almost 30 updated maps of every important wine region in the world many useful charts and diagrams and 16 stunning colour photographs this Companion is unlike any other wine book offering an understanding of wine in all of its wider contexts notably historical cultural and scientific and serving as a truly companionable point of reference into which any wine lover can dip and browse

What Makes Clusters Competitive? Anil Hira,2013-11-01 While global competitiveness is increasingly invoked as necessary for economic success stories there are few answers available about how it can be achieved or maintained The idea of stimulating industries to spur on economies is often proposed but industrial policy can be seen as a boondoggle of government spending and theorists of globalization are doubtful that such efforts can succeed in a world of fragmented supply chains What Makes Clusters Competitive tests fundamental theoretical hypotheses about what makes industries competitive in a globalized world by using the wine industries of several countries as case studies Extremadura Spain Tuscany Italy South Australia Chile and British Columbia Canada Taking into account historical and location specific characteristics and drawing out policy lessons for other regions that would like to promote their industries this volume demonstrates the value of applying cluster theory to understand market forces while also describing the forces underlying the development of the wine industry in a range of different settings An excellent resource for those interested in what makes industries succeed or struggle What Makes Clusters Competitive offers guidance for policymakers and the private sector on how to promote local industries Contributors include David Aylward Alexis Bwenge Sara Daniele F J Mesquita Daz Christian Felzenstein Husam Gabreldar F Pulido Garcia Sarah Giest Elisa Giuliani Andy Hira Mike Howlett A F Pulido Moreno and Oriana Perrone
