Sydney Long, Anne Gray, 2012 Sydney Long 1871 1955 was Australia's foremost Art Nouveau painter and a major Symbolist. He created haunting images of the Australian landscape with decorative poetic musical qualities. He broke new ground by populating the landscape with nymphs and fauns and the sinuous graceful forms of trees and birds seeking to convey the weird mystery of the Australian bush. This publication also features the delightful landscapes and cityscapes painted by Long in Australia and England distinguished by his sensuous and elegant approach. A selection of his prints attests to Long's place as a leading painter/etcher of the 1920s and 1930s. The Spirit of the Land the first comprehensive survey of Sydney Long's life and work to be published in more than 30 years provides new research and a fresh appreciation of one of Australia's great artists.

Russell Drysdale Christopher Heathcote, 2013 This book takes a fresh look at one of the nation's major modern artists surveying Drysdale's approach to landscape across painting drawing and photography. It features some fifty American and fifty Australian landscape paintings produced during the period when landscape became the focus for artists in both countries. In both traditions landscapes trace the ever changing complexities of bringing what is known to the experience of the unknown exploring the profound relationship that we have with the land on which we live. Many of America's finest landscape painters are represented including Frederic Church Thomas Cole Albert Bierstadt Winslow Homer and William Merritt Chase. Australian artists include Joseph Lyatt Augustus Earle John Glover Eugene von Guerard Louis Buvelot and Arthur Streeton among others.

A Painted Landscape: Across Australia from Bush to Coast Amber Creswell Bell, 2018-11 I love a sunburnt country A land of sweeping plains Of ragged mountain ranges Of droughts and flooding rains I love her far horizons I love her jewel sea Her beauty and her terror The wide brown land for me Dorothea Mackellar's words have a knack for swelling the metaphorical chest of many Australians with the evocative descriptions in her iconic encomium My Country. Just as Mackellar zeroed in on the particular nuances of Australia that make our country so unique this book forms an aesthetic study of the Australian landscape as seen experienced and expressed by the Australian artists who choose to paint it. Surveying 50 artists working in various mediums and depicting varied terrains A Painted Landscape showcases an incredible diversity of landscapes and in doing so dispels the myth that Australia is all beach and bush. Focusing on contemporary landscape painters this is Australia in the 21st century through a specifically creative lens.

Colonial frontiers Lynette Russell, 2017-03-01

Cross cultural encounters produce boundaries and frontiers. This book explores the formation, structure and maintenance of boundaries and frontiers in settler colonies. The southern nations of Australia, New Zealand and South Africa have a common military heritage as all three united to fight for the British Empire during the Boer and First World Wars. The book focuses on the southern latitudes and especially Australia and Australian historiography. Looking at cross cultural interactions in the settler colonies, the book illuminates the formation of new boundaries and the interaction between settler societies and indigenous groups. It contends that the frontier zone is a hybrid space, a place where both indigene and invader come together on land that each one believes to be their own. The best way to approach the northern Cape frontier zone is via an understanding of the significance of the frontier in South African history. The book explores some ways in which discourses of a natural prehistoric Aboriginality inform colonial representations of the Australian landscape and its inhabitants, both indigenous and immigrant. The missions of the London Missionary Society (LMS) in Polynesia and Australia are examined to explore the ways in which frontiers between British and antipodean cultures were negotiated in colonial textuality. The role of the Treaty of Waitangi in New Zealand society is possibly the most important and controversial issue facing modern New Zealanders. The book also presents valuable insights into sexual politics, Aboriginal sovereignty, economics of Torres Strait, maritime and nomadism.
