Present Christ:

Jesus Christ Speaks to the Present Day Church Dr. John Thomas Wylie, 2019-11-25 This is one of the saddest pictures in all the Bible Jesus Christ is outside of the professing church pleading for entrance The strict interpretation of this passage is Behold I have taken my stand at the door and am knocking This is an activity going on today He continues knocking for sorted out Christendom is in numerous quarters energized with a same soul that characterized the husbandmen in the story of Luke 20 9 18 By and by we see where men have assumed control or taken over what rightly belongs to God A equally heart searching message is here also for the individual Christian This tender but delicate request isn't expressed in the voice of the Judge of Revelation 20 yet originates from our High Priest's heart of love for His blood bought people Jesus needs to impart the best of paradise's endowments to His own The steadiness of this love is confirmed or evidenced by the fact as we have noted previously that He continues knocking Is it accurate to say that we are among the individuals who have received salvation from Him but then have defied and rebelled surrendering our everything to Him Instead of His finding an open heart would he say he is stood up to with a closed door Having readily acknowledged discharge release from wrongdoing's sin's guilt and embraced the assurance of paradise would we say we are yet rejecting or refusing Him access to various areas of our regular day to day lives He wants to share with us glories far above anything we could ask or think but the latch is on our side of the door He won't force His benefits on any of us He promises to come in and sup with us Of this Ottman has expressed A dinner is a night supper it is the last taken before the morning breaks and the day first lights It is since a long time ago the apostle stated The night is far spent the day is at hand to sup with Christ before morning breaks is a foretaste of the coming glory of heaven The time is growing short and by keeping Him on the outside we are presently missing the best He has for us Let us make a full and happy surrender to Him We will find as John expressed in his first epistle Truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ The Present testimony, and original Christian witness revived

, This Is My Body Thomas J. Davis, 2008-08-01 There are many general surveys of the Reformation available and they all typically devote some space to how theologians such as Martin Luther and John Calvin understood the Lord's Supper and Christ's presence in the bread and wine However they usually do not provide a great deal of detail about the development of the Reformers thoughts or the finer elements of their respective opinions This volume by Thomas Davis fills these gaps with a more narrowly focused study He devotes several chapters to Luther and to Calvin examining their use of language and their understanding of the presence of Christ both in the Lord's Supper and in the broader sense of his presence in the church

Eschatology and Mission: The Triune God brings Life in the Past, Present, and for Eternity Pieter Verster, 2024-12-31 Eschatology and mission relate to some of the most important theological aspects It is obvious that presently the theological discussion about eschatology raises new questions concerning its place regarding the implications for mission Without a clear understanding of eschatology missiology is unable to answer the questions of the world in which it finds itself at the moment The Person of Christ Murray Rae, Stephen R. Holmes, 2005-10-01 Understanding the Person of Christ affects our understanding of all Christian theology All ten contributors to this volume share a commitment to the orthodox theological tradition in Christology as expressed in the creedal heritage of the Christian church and seek to explicate the continuing coherence and importance of that theological tradition The book s ten essays cover such topics as prolegomena to Christology the incarnation the person and nature of Christ the communicatio idiomatum the baptism of Christ the redemptive work of Christ the ascended Christ and New Testament Christology and offers critical engagements with such diverse theologians as John Calvin Charles Williams and John Zizioulas The contributors all leading academics include John Webster Richard Burridge Robert Jenson Stephen Holmes Douglas Farrow Brian Horne Murray Douglas Knight Sandra Fach Christoph Schwoebel Jesus Now Frank Viola, 2014-05-01 During His ministry on earth Jesus of Nazareth spent most of His time healing the sick casting out demons training disciples teaching the people and preaching the kingdom of God But what is Jesus Christ doing today What is His present day ministry In Jesus Now bestselling author Frank Viola gives us the first comprehensive treatment of what Jesus has been doing since His ascension until His second coming In an easy to read format Viola explores the seven aspects of Christ s ministry today and shows how each one benefits the saved and the unsaved Open these pages and discover what the Lord Jesus Christ is doing now and how it will impact your life

Spiritus Creator Regin Prenter, 2001-03-27 As the first comprehensive study in the twentieth century of Luther s concept of the Holy Spirit this book should be welcomed by every serious student of Luther s theology for although Luther s view of the Holy Spirit dominates every aspect of his vast theological output it is not always easy to discover what he really thought Historians and theologians have at different times come to varying conclusions based on the same fundamental writings of Luther Enthusiastic followers of the Reformer in their efforts to convince others have from time to time fallen into the temptation to oversimplify his teachings Spiritus Creator is the answer to this confusion Laying aside the numerous interpretations of others Regin Prenter a noted Danish Theologian and scholar presents Luther s thought itself In this study he does not ask where Luther s thoughts came from or how they developed he asks only what Luther thought Questioning for example whether Luther s view of the Holy Spirit was really so traditional so much colored by medieval thought patterns as has been widely assumed Dr Prenter shows how Luther used Augustinian terms the vocabulary of his age yet gave them new content even new definitions He demonstrates how Luther s concept of the Holy Spirit did indeed take shape in a traditional form but that it then grew into what is for all Protestants a crucial evangelical insight Spiritus Creator is divided into two parts the concept of the Holy Spirit before Luther had to defend his teachings from the distortions of enthusiasts and this same concept during his struggle with the enthusiasts This pattern gives the author opportunity to present the basic statements of the early period without reference to the polemical situation of Luther s later life It also demonstrates the essential continuity that gives Luther s concept of the Holy Spirit importance for the thinking of all ages our own not excluded Pilgrimage into God Sicco Claus, 2023-04-01 Pilgrimage into God A Study of John Main's Meditation Oriented Spirituality is a comprehensive investigation of the heritage of the Benedictine monk John Main 1926-1982 This founder of a worldwide movement for Christian meditation understands meditation as an intentional transcending of all mental processes Contrary to popular opinion which associates meditation uniquely with Eastern traditions Main considers meditative practice to be essential and central to Christian faith This study not only explores Main's views on practice but also looks into his theology his understanding of spiritual growth and the ideal contexts for achieving such growth It does this by critically situating Main's spiritual teaching within the Christian tradition and exploring its relation to Charles Taylor's interpretation of the modern spiritual condition This study also aims at exploring how Main's heritage may contribute to illuminating Christian spiritual life today

Christ's Ambassadors Edward J. Jones, 2015-04-20 From what we see around us we can conclude our beloved country is going in the wrong direction We have felt safe while Christians around the world have been suffering incredible religious persecution It is catching up to us There is a growing cooperative relation between the government and several private groups to repress any Christian expression Openly practicing our faith is under attack God has appointed His believers to be His ambassadors to this world and has called us to stand up and defend the faith 1 Peter 3:15 2 Corinthians 5:20 This book examines the forces that resist our openly witnessing for the faith We will examine the world the flesh and the Devil and look at their interaction with man Hopefully we will open a supportive dialogue between ambassadors Dr Edward Jones is a seventy five year old man living in a senior complex in central Florida He led an active life prior to 1995 when he became disabled Writing replaced preaching In addition to his books he writes for the Crossroads Bible Institute and is chairman of his church's prison ministry He brings to his writing a unique balance between the spiritual and the secular His books reflect the interplay of the two Other books include Come up Hither and The Joy of Fellowship Christ's Ambassadors is his third book All his books reflect his deep commitment to Biblical inerrancy

Edward Schillebeeckx and Contemporary Theology Lieven Boeve, Frederiek Depoortere, Stephan van Erp, 2010-12-09 History of the Development of the Doctrine of the Person of Christ Isaak August Dorner, 1890 Gift and Promise Peter Schmiechen, 2016-12-09 What would happen if the liturgy for the Lord's Supper started with the images in the New Testament rather than the divisions of our past It would be like going through an open door into a new world There we would find a new Passover celebration a new covenant and remembrance and proclamation of Jesus' death and resurrection all in the context of the kingdom of God It would be an evangelical Lord's Supper This is a high risk operation given the reliance by many on transactional sacrifice and the tendency to reduce the Supper to a sacrament of penance for individuals Ideas rejected by Luther and Calvin now reappear even among Protestants The goal cannot be reached by subtracting a few things and adding references to eschatology and joy The good news is that many churches have already taken steps to reform their liturgies To support that process here is a clear and consistent evangelical perspective based on the theology and biblical considerations that have formed our faith and practice Theology from the Great Tradition Steven D. Cone, 2018-02-22 This textbook provides complete and comprehensive coverage of the theological tradition of Aquinas Maximus Luther Irenaeus Lonergan von Balthasar Schmemmann Meyendorf and Barth Each section of this textbook explores a wide variety of questions who are we Is there a God and if so what is his nature Who is Jesus What does it mean that we live both in sin and righteousness It consists of 15 modules that are comprised of 46 chapters Each module has two parts there are systematic chapters that discuss and explain each module s topic and the final chapter of each module examines 4 to 6 primary sources that are important for each topic This textbook includes an extensive range of pedagogical features Sample tests in which each objective question has been quality tested by classroom use with a discrimination index A discussion guide for each chapter Learning objectives linked to each chapter The text includes bold faced terms boxed text sections that identify central figures and points of debate study question chapter summaries glossary Green Heart of the Snowdrop Kate McIlhagga, 2004-06-01 The best of Kate McIlhagga s work in one collection Includes poems and prayers of gathering and beginning creation and self Advent and Epiphany Lent and mothering Easter and Pentecost pilgrimage and endings and blessings A Companion to Anglican Eucharistic Theology Brian Douglas, 2012 Anglican eucharistic theology varies between the different philosophical assumptions of realism and nominalism This book presents case studies from the 20th Century to the Present and avoids the hermeneutic idealism of particular church parties by critically examining the Anglican eucharistic tradition Grace and Gratitude Roger Haight, Alfred Pach, Amanda Avila Kaminski, 2022-06-07 Martin Luther 1483 1546 is a classic Christian author who spearheaded the Reformation and whose witness has relevance for life in the present day world Grace and Gratitude presents two texts that represent his spirituality Because Luther wrote so much in so many different genres the choice of only two texts provides a limited taste of his spirituality But they open up a specific central and distinctive mark of his conception of the structure of Christian life The name of the theme justification by grace through faith often spontaneously correlates with Luther s name and his theology The phrase points to a key theological doctrine that centered his thinking it lay so deeply ingrained in his outlook that it sometimes explicitly but always tacitly shaped all his early theological views and bestowed a distinctive character to his ethics and spirituality The two texts are chosen to illustrate how the conviction represented by the phrase draws its authority from scripture especially Paul and was discursively analyzed in an early foundational work on Christian life The Freedom of a Christian These texts do not represent all there is to say about spirituality in Luther s thought by any means and this part should not be taken for the whole But the coupling of these texts penetrates deeply into what may be called Luther s Christian spirituality of gratitude The Oxford Handbook of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Michael Mawson, Philip G. Ziegler, 2019-11-06 This volume provides a comprehensive resource for those wishing to understand the German theologian pastor and resistance conspirator Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906 1945 and his writings During his lifetime he made important contributions to many of the major areas of theology ecclesiology creation Christology discipleship and ethics The Oxford Handbook of Dietrich Bonhoeffer surveys assesses and presents the field of research and debates of Bonhoeffer and his legacy as well as of previous Bonhoeffer scholarship Featuring contributions from leading Bonhoeffer scholars historians theologians and ethicists many essays draw attention to Bonhoeffer's positive contributions while several essays also identify limits and problems with his thinking as it stands Divided into five parts the first section provides a detailed outline of Bonhoeffer's biography and the contexts that gave rise to his theology The contributors explore the dynamic relationship between Bonhoeffer's life and theology Section two provides rigorous engagements with and assessments of Bonhoeffer's theology on its own terms Part three demonstrates how Bonhoeffer's ethical claims and engagements are deeply integrated with theological commitments The fourth section showcases some of the best work drawing upon Bonhoeffer for engaging contemporary challenges including feminism race public theology in South Africa and contemporary philosophy In recent decades Bonhoeffer's theology has provoked significant critical reflection on social and cultural issues The essays in this section exemplify how his writings can continue to contribute to such reflection today The fifth and final section consists of essays on resources for the contemporary study of Bonhoeffer and his theology including sources and texts biographies and portraits and readings and receptions These essays also address pressing historiographical issues and problems surrounding writing about Bonhoeffer's life and theology This authoritative collection draws together and assesses the very best of existing research on Bonhoeffer and promotes new avenues for research on Bonhoeffer

The Demand for Christ bp. James Whitford Bashford, 1920

Evangelism and the Sovereignty of God J. I. Packer, 2008-12-02 In this classic book John Stott shows that Christian mission must encompass both evangelism and social action He offers careful definitions of five key terms mission evangelism dialogue salvation and conversion Through a thorough biblical exploration of these concepts Stott provides a model for ministry to people's spiritual and physical needs alike Ultimately Stott points to the example of Jesus who modeled both the Great Commission of proclamation and the Great Commandment of love and service This balanced holistic approach to mission points the way forward for the work of the church in the world Market Audience Church Leaders Pastors Students Those interested in Evangelism Endorsements A short but exceedingly powerful book Packer shows that rather than precluding evangelism God's sovereignty provides the most powerful incentive and support for it Contains impressive depth and contains a thorough and satisfying treatment of the subject DiscerningReader.com I've often recommended this book to faithful Christians who are confused about how they are to think about prayer missions giving any area in which our efforts could be wrongly pitted against God's own necessary action Packer introduces us to clear truths handles Scripture with exemplary care and supplies us with just the right amount of illustrations and application From the foreword by Mark Dever senior pastor Capitol Hill Baptist Church Washington D C Features and Benefits New mass market edition of a classic InterVarsity Press work on divine sovereignty and human responsibility Challenges extreme views on both sides of the issue Outlines a proper incentive and support for evangelism Over 100 000 copies in print The Ministry, Vol. 09, No. 06 Various Authors, 2005-06-01 This issue of The Ministry contains the messages given during the Spring 2005 International Training for Elders and Responsible Ones held April 10-12 in Anaheim California The general subject of this training was the churches the ministry and the work The Body is the governing law of the life and work of the children of God today The church the ministry and the work are on the ground of the Body The basic principle of the churches is the Body the basic principle of the ministry is the Body and the basic principle of the work is the Body The churches are the Body expressed locally the ministry is the Body in function and the work is the Body seeking increase Acts 13:1-2, 21:19 Concerning this subject in fellowship with a few co-workers on December 15, 1995 Brother Witness Lee said I ask you to render to this work the highest cooperation When I say the highest cooperation I mean that you must dive into these things as I did day and night Second you have to experience them Third you have to live a God-man life Fourth you have to be an overcomer to keep every principle of the Body May the Lord enlighten us concerning every principle of the Body Last of all we include a report concerning the Lord's move in Israel
