The Politics of 1930s British Literature Natasha Periyar, 2018-06-14 Winner of the 2018 International Standing Conference for the History of Education's First Book Award Drawing on a rich array of archival sources and historical detail The Politics of 1930s British Literature tells the story of a school minded decade and illuminates new readings of the politics and aesthetics of 1930s literature In a period of shifting political claims educational policy shaped writers social and gender ideals This book explores how a wide array of writers including Virginia Woolf W H Auden George Orwell Winifred Holtby and Graham Greene were informed by their pedagogic work It considers the ways in which education influenced writers analysis of literary style and their conception of future literary forms The Politics of 1930s British Literature argues that to those perennial symbols of the 1930s the loudspeaker and the gramophone should be added the textbook and the blackboard Gulliver's Travels and Selected Writings in Prose & Verse Jonathan Swift, 1944

The Landscapes of W. H. Auden's Interwar Poetry Ladislav Vít, 2021-12-14 This is the first book length study foregrounding Auden's sense of place as a means for enhancing our grasp of this crucial twentieth century poet Proposing that Auden had a remarkable spatial sensibility this book concentrates on his treatment of his homeland England as well as the North Pennines and Iceland both of which served as his good places holy grounds and sources of topophilic sentiment The readings draw on the scholarship of humanistic geography tracing patterns of mental constructs which emerge from spatial experience In a scholarly but engaging way this book argues that focusing on Auden's poetics of place as it emerged and evolved can be instrumental to our understanding of this influential poet not only in relation to his epoch but also to the Anglophone poetic tradition Precisely because of his stature these elaborations on Auden's preoccupation with places escapism borders and local identity promise to enrich our understanding of the cultural and intellectual climate of the interwar period when established notions of local places and cultures were beginning to be contested by internationalisation This study will be of interest to both academics and students in the field of Anglophone literary studies while also appealing to those attracted to Auden's poetry interwar culture and the literary representation of space
