Protecting Young Children In Violent Environments Building Staff And Community Strengths:

Protecting Young Children in Violent Environments Joy D. Osofsky, Emily Schrag Fenichel, 2000 Handbook of Stress, Trauma, and the Family Don. R. Catherall, 2013-01-11 The Handbook of Stress Trauma and the Family is broken down into three sections compiling research theory and practice The first section focuses on how traumatic stress affects intimate others what familial characteristics affect individual susceptibility to trauma as well as evaluation of the effectiveness of various interventions The section on theory explores concepts of stress and intrapsychic processes underlying the intergenerational transmission of trauma addressing how families can buffer or enhance anxiety The final section entitled practice covers assessment presenting both the Circumplex Model and Bowenian family theory models treatment models and treatment formats for specific populations The major family treatment models applicable to stress and trauma are discussed including contextual object relations emotionally focused and critical interaction therapy Early Intervention for Trauma and Traumatic Loss Brett T. Litz, 2004-01-01 This authoritative volume describes the state of the science of early intervention for trauma and traumatic loss across the lifespan and in a variety of contexts While few would dispute the importance of helping people cope with severe life stressors important questions remain about how to identify those at risk for chronic problems and which interventions actually facilitate recovery over time Following a review of current knowledge on the predictors and course of acute stress disorder PTSD and traumatic grief the volume presents a range of early intervention models designed for very young children older children and adults Authors examine the empirical literature and recommend evidence based clinical strategies whenever possible while delineating an extensive agenda for future research Also covered are the lessons learned from early intervention with specific populations 9 11 survivors combat veterans emergency services personnel survivors of sexual violence and others Children Exposed to Violence Margaret Mary Feerick, Gerald B. Silverman, 2006 This timely much needed resource identifies gaps in our understanding of the effects of exposure to violence on children and sets a direction for future research to support interventions and violence prevention Children Who See Too Much Betsy McAlister Groves, 2003-01-20 For the last ten years Betsy Groves has been working with children traumatized by witnessing violence In this book she shows how children understand respond to and are affected by violence especially domestic violence Groves makes the powerful case that traumatic events carried out by family members carry the most severe psychological risks for very young children She uses clinical case studies to show that being young does not protect against the lasting effects of witnessing violence and she offers ways adults can help Zero to Three, 2001 Child Development for Child Care and Protection Workers Brigid Daniel, Sally Wassell, Robbie Gilligan, 2011-02-12 This is a classic text for students and practitioners in the child care and protection field which summarises important current thinking on child development and applies it directly to practice The book covers key issues such as resilience and vulnerability and the impact of protective or adverse environments Handbook for Child Protection Practice Howard

Dubowitz,Diane DePanfilis,1999-12-22 The timing of the publication with the revised Working Together guidelines could not be more advantageous This book is a unique and important contribution to child care literature No agency should be without Child Abuse Review Professionals concerned with the protection of children face many challenges This work demands knowledge from several disciplines a wide variety of skills and interdisciplinary collaboration The editors Howard Dubowitz a pediatrician and Diane DePanfilis a social worker together with over 70 experts in this field offer what is known about how best to work with maltreated children and their families in a very practical concise and user friendly way Structured to follow the life of a case from the time a report of child maltreatment is made through the various pathways in the child protection system this edited volume synthesizes the best practice principles for responding to reports of child abuse and neglect engaging children and other family members in intervention developing cross cultural practice competencies assessing risk evaluating safety and conducting family assessments defining outcomes and planning intervention evaluating risk reduction and making permanency decisions and discusses the unique legal medical ethical and other practice issues that work in the child protection field involves Professionals facing tough dilemmas in practice should find valuable guidance in these pages

ABA Child Law Practice ,2001 Safe and Healthy School Environments Howard Frumkin,2006 Publisher

Description Wielding Nonviolence in the Midst of Violence Ellen Furnari (editor),2016-04-08 Unarmed civilian peacekeeping or protection UCP is a generic term that gives recognition to a wide range of activities by unarmed civilians to reduce violence and protect civilians in situations of violent conflict There are many non governmental as well as governmental organisations that engage in UCP using a variety of methods and approaches This study examines UCP in four conflict affected regions Colombia Mindanao Philippines Palestine Israel and South Sudan It focuses on what is emerging as good practice in these varied contexts and whether any commonalities can inform the expanded use of UCP Violence and Trauma in the Lives of Children Joy D. Osofsky,Betsy McAlister Groves,2018-08-09 Explains the neurological emotional and behavioral impacts of violence and trauma experienced by newborns infants children and teenagers Traumatic events known as adverse childhood experiences ACEs can affect children physically mentally and emotionally sometimes with long term health and behavioral effects Abuse neglect exposure to community and domestic violence and household dysfunction all have the potential to alter brain development and behavior but few people are able to recognize or respond to trauma in children Given the prevalence of childhood exposure to violence with one in four children ages 5 to 15 living in households with only moderate levels of safety and nurturance and infants and children ages 0 to 3 comprising the highest percentage of those maltreated it is imperative that students and professionals alike be able to identify types and consequences of violence and trauma This book provides readers with the information they need in order to know how to detect and prevent ACEs and to help children who have lived through them America's Babies Cindy Oser,Julie Cohen,2003 A unique reference book that presents information on the state of infants and toddlers up to 3 years of age in the

Ubuntu Philosophy and Decolonising Social Work Fields of Practice in Africa Janestic Mwende

Twikirize,Sharlotte Tusasiirwe,Rugare Mugumbate,2023-10-24 This book addresses a recurrent gap in social work literature by examining Ubuntu as an Indigenous African philosophy that informs social work beyond the largely residual and individualistic conceptualisation of social work that currently prevails in many contexts Owing to the lack of social work theories models and generally literature that is locally and contextually relevant most social work lecturers based in African context struggle to access learning materials and texts that centre local indigenous voices and worldviews It is within this context that the ubuntu philosophy has gained traction There is increasing consensus that Ubuntu as an African philosophy and way of life has the potential to be used as a decolonising framework for social work education and practice Theorising from Ubuntu can influence and be the foundation for African social work theory and knowledge social work values and ethics social work research and policy and Ubuntu informing different fields of social work practice like social work with older people children and young people ubuntu and poverty alleviation ubuntu and the environment among others Drawing together social workers engaged in education research policy practice to theorise Ubuntu and its tenets philosophies and values this book shows how it can be a foundation for a decolonised more relevant social work education and practice in African contexts

The Top Books of the Year Protecting Young Children In Violent Environments Building Staff And Community Strengths The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
