Proverbs Of Ashes Violence Redemptive Suffering And The Search For What Saves Us:

Proverbs of Ashes Rita Nakashima Brock, Rebecca Ann Parker, 2015-06-23 Rebecca Parker was a young minister in Seattle when a woman walked into her church and asked if God really wanted her to accept her husband's beatings and bear them gladly as Jesus bore the cross Parker knew at that moment that if she were to answer the woman's question truthfully she would have to rethink her theology And she would have to think hard about some of the choices she was making in her own life When Rita Nakashima Brock was a young child growing up in Kansas kids taunted her viciously calling her names like Chink or Jap She learned to pretend that she did not feel the sting of scorn and the humiliation of contempt The solitude and silence of her suffering decreed by both her mother's Japanese culture and her father's Christian heritage kept the wound alive It was the gap between knowledge born of personal experience and traditional theology that led Rita Brock and Rebecca Parker to write this emotionally gripping and intellectually rich exploration of the doctrine of the atonement Using an unusual combination of memoir and theology in the tradition of Augustine's Confessions they lament the inadequacy of how Christian tradition has interpreted the violence that happened to Jesus Ultimately they argue the idea that the death of Jesus on the cross saves us reveals a sanctioning of violence at the heart of Christianity Brock and Parker draw on a wide array of intimate stories about family violence the sexual abuse of children racism homophobia and war to reveal how they came to understand the widespread damage being done by this theology But the authors also undertake their own arduous and unexpected journeys to recover from violence and to assist others to do so On these journeys they discover communities that begin to give them the strength to question the destructive ideas they have internalized and the strength to seek out an alternative vision of Christianity one based on healing and love Proverbs of Ashes is both a condemnation of bad theology and a passionate search for what truly saves us

T&T Clark Companion to Atonement Adam J. Johnson, 2017-07-27 The T T Clark Companion to Atonement establishes a vision for the doctrine of the atonement as a unified yet extraordinarily rich event calling for the church's full appropriation Most edited volumes on this doctrine focus on one aspect of the work of Christ for example Girard Feminist thought Penal Substitution or divine violence The Companion is unique in that every essay seeks to both appropriate and stimulate the church's understanding of the manifold nature of Christ's death and resurrection The essays are divided into four main sections 1 dogmatic location 2 chapters on the Old and New Testaments 3 major theologians and 4 contemporary developments The first set of essays explore the inter relationship between the atonement and other Christian doctrines for example Trinity Christology and Pneumatology opening up yet further avenues of inquiry Essays on key theologians eschew reductionism striving to bring out the nuances and breadth of the contribution The same is true of the biblical essays The final section explores more recent developments within the doctrine for example the work of Rene Girard and the ongoing reflection on Holy Saturday The book is comprised of 18 major essays and an A Z section containing shorter dictionary length entries on a much broader range of topics The result is a combination of in depth analysis and breadth of scope making this a benchmark work for further studies in the doctrine When Trauma Wounds Karen A. McClintock, 2019-02-01 How to heal from trauma and restore laughter love and faith When trauma wounds victims are thrown into unexpected darkness and experience unfamiliar symptoms Some trauma survivors draw upon a lifelong faith in God others find themselves in a wilderness devoid of spiritual grounding The recovery stories in this book offer diverse pathways to faith and hope In When

Trauma Wounds psychologist Karen A McClintock combines psychological approaches with faith resources to improve trauma recovery Whether you are a trauma survivor a caregiving pastor or church member or friend to a survivor this book will familiarize you with trauma symptoms and healing strategies Secure and trusting relationships heal many wounds If you care for a trauma survivor McClintock will help you create a sanctuary to shelter this wounded soul to help them bear their pain and hold out hope for recovery to offer victims of trauma the compassion they so badly need Each trauma victim has a story to tell If you are a trauma survivor healing from that trauma or working through repeated traumatic experiences may take days or years But no matter how long your healing journey might take it can begin right now A Constructively Critical Conversation between Nonviolent and Substitutionary Perspectives on Atonement Hojin Ahn,2021-12-21 In the contemporary theological world traditional substitutionary accounts of Christ s atoning work have increasingly come under criticism for what is said to be their propensity for encouraging violence by a variety of theologians such as feminists pacifists and Girardians Cur deus homo the question about God s sovereign purpose in Christ s atoning work is radically transposed into who killed Jesus which is a provocative inquiry into the ethical issues surrounding divine violence from the nonviolent perspective of atonement Nonetheless in this monograph contrary to their nonviolent intention you will witness that Brock Schwager and Weaver violently damage a holistic dimension of atonement event under the human cause of the victim Jesus crucifixion by evil By contrast you will hear the harmonized voices of Anselm Calvin and Barth who adamantly proclaim the incarnated Son of God s sovereignty in his self giving death for our salvation Furthermore it is through the theological conversation between the opposite camps that you will realize how the anthropological motifs of healing scapegoat mechanism and nonviolence are to be constructively engaged with the Christological cultic context of an evangelical doctrine of substitution You will encounter the crux of Christ s saving death for us Clouds of the Cross in Luther and Kierkegaard Carl S. Hughes,2024-07-23 What do Christians mean when they talk about revelation What sort of truth do Jesus and the Bible disclose Knowledge or doctrine required beliefs or a moral code the answers Christians give to these questions tend to be objective in form something they have that others lack In Clouds of the Cross in Luther and Kierkegaard Revelation as Unknowing Carl S Hughes draws on Martin Luther and S ren Kierkegaard two of the most Christocentric and biblically oriented theologians in history to suggest a much needed alternative Hughes blends historical philosophical and constructive approaches to theology in lively and engaging prose He spotlights the objectifying tendencies in Luther s thought that become so influential in modernity while also finding resources in Luther s own theology for a very different approach Then Hughes turns to S ren Kierkegaard one of Luther s fiercest critics and at the same time most faithful inheritors Hughes argues that Kierkegaard carries some of Luther s most provocative themes further than Luther himself ever dares The result is a Kierkegaardian Lutheran theology of revelation that resonates with mystical and apophatic theology resembles art more than information and transforms lives to incarnate the love of Christ in diverse and ever

Fitch, 2019-07-16 We are living in angry times No matter where we go what we watch or how we communicate our culture is rife with conflict Unfortunately Christians appear to be caught up in the same animosity as the culture at large We are perceived as angry judgmental and defensive fighting among ourselves in various media while the world looks on How have we failed to be a people of reconciliation and renewal in the face of such tumult Claiming that the church has lost itself in the grip of an antagonistic culture David Fitch takes a close look at what drives the vitriol in our congregations He traces the enemy making patterns in church history and diagnoses the divisiveness that marks the contemporary evangelical church Fitch shows a way for the church to be true to itself unwinding the antagonisms of our day and making space for Christ s reconciling presence in our day to day lives He offers new patterns and practices that move the church beyond making enemies to being the presence of Christ in the world helping us free ourselves from a faith that feeds on division      Power For: Feminism and Christ's Self-Giving Anna Mercedes, 2011-09-22 Contesting the feminist critique of the dangers of Christianity s self giving ethics this book advances a contemporary feminist christology engaging the strength of self giving power      Teaching Religion and Literature Daniel Boscaljon, Alan Levinovitz, 2018-09-27 Teaching Religion and Literature provides a practical engagement with the pedagogical possibilities of teaching religion courses using literature teaching literature classes using religion and teaching Religion and Literature as a discipline

In Water and In Blood Robert J. Schreiter, 2015-02-25 The Forsaken Son Joshua Pederson, 2016-04-20 The Forsaken Son engages the provocative coincidence of the vocabularies of infanticide and Christianity specifically atonement theology in six modern American novels Flannery O Connor s The Violent Bear It Away the first two installments of John Updike s Rabbit tetralogy Toni Morrison s Beloved Joyce Carol Oates s My Sister My Love and Cormac McCarthy s Outer Dark Christian atonement theology explains why God lets His son be crucified Yet in recent years as an increasing number of scholars have come to reject that explanation the cross reverts from saving grace to trauma or even crime More bluntly without atonement the cross may be a filicide in which God forces his son to die for no apparent reason Pederson argues that the novels about child murder mentioned above likewise give voice to modern skepticism about traditional atonement theology

Meeting God on the Cross Arnfríður Guðmundsdóttir, 2010 The cross of Christ has proven to be no less of a stumbling block for Christians living in the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first than it was in the first century when the newly established community of friends and followers of Jesus Christ sought to define the foundation of their faith over against the critiques of their Jewish and Greek contemporaries This book presents a theological reception of the contemporary feminist challenge to classical christology by means of an explicit feminist retrieval and reconstruction of a theology of the cross Gudmundsdottir argues that a feminist theology of the cross serves a dual purpose in feminist christology it discloses the patriarchal distortion of traditional christology and can also reveal lost dimensions in the understanding of the person and work of Jesus Christ Although Gudmundsdottir argues that feminist critique is an indispensable element of contemporary christology she also claims that there is a redemptive message in the cross of Christ that is retrievable for women today Despite its potential for abuse and indeed its well documented history of misuse against women in the past a theology of the cross proclaims Jesus as a divine co sufferer who brings good news to the poor and oppressed and as such can be a source of healing and empowerment for suffering women The constructive task of this book is to show that a theology of the cross can indeed become a theology of hope today offering women meaning and strength from a God who takes human form and enters redemptively into their situations of suffering

God's Apocalyptic Insurrection Richard D. Crane, 2024-10-15 What if our inherited theologies of salvation are distorted by a sinful history that includes white supremacy slavery and colonial conquest What if we perpetuate this distortion by continuing to imagine salvation as a legal transaction by which we are saved by God from divine punishment If salvation merely rectifies the individual s standing before God justice and human flourishing are viewed as peripheral to the gospel This book begins with a bit of deconstruction But the real need is construction or perhaps the discovery of another soteriological imagination To be saved is to be drawn into union with Jesus Messiah the bringer of the now and future reign of God where all things are rectified Jesus s life death and resurrected body are the space where a disordered creation is put right Jesus is God s apocalyptic insurrection against every power that dehumanizes harms and destroys human persons We are saved by the triune God by God s gracious acceptance that cannot be earned But we are saved for participation in the invasion of God s reign of justice healing and transformation Salvation has everything to do with caring for refugees resisting systemic racial and other injustices food for the hungry and valuing human persons as Christ incognito

Motherhood and Love Cristina Grenholm, 2011 It is possible to reinterpret the biblical portrayal of motherhood so that it no longer perpetuates the subordination of women Responding to a perceived conflict between feminism and theology feminist theologian Cristina Grenholm blends systematic theology gender studies and biblical interpretation to construct a nontraditional understanding of motherhood in the Bible Grenholm s innovative approach revisits the biblical figure of Mary whom she calls a theological challenge in our time with a view to analyzing critiquing and revising the traditional Christian understanding of motherhood and maternal love

God as Sacrificial Love Asle Eikrem, 2018-01-25 In dialogue with a range of post enlightenment critiques of Christian theologies regarding sacrificial love Asle Eikrem presents an unconventional systematic approach to this multi layered and complex theological topic From Hegel to prominent 20th century theologians from feminist theologies to postmodern philosophers this volume engages in a critical conversation with a host of different voices on all the classical topics in theology creation trinity incarnation atonement sin faith sacraments and eschatology also providing a moral and socio historical vision for Christian living The result is a unique appraisal of the significance that the life and death of Jesus holds for the world today

Preaching and Paul's Letter to the Romans Ronald J. Allen, 2025-07-10 Ronald J Allen argues that the apostle Paul wrote his letter to the Romans to address specifically the gentiles in the congregation in Rome Allen suggests that this was because the gentiles exhibited arrogant behavior towards Jewish members of the community thereby undermining a primary facet of the early church to witness to the community of love and mutual support that God seeks for all Allen shows readers how Paul points the gentiles to the faithfulness of God who invites them to recognize and live according to the grace of God shown to them through Jesus Christ In this pastorally engaged work Allen not only provides historical commentary on Romans but also helps preachers and scholars make connections between arrogance and its destructiveness in communities today as well as inviting congregations to participate in the grace that makes possible a loving and mutually respectful community
