Jenkins,2022-02-04 The gap between the New Testament and the Imprecatory Psalms is less than we think When faced with prayers against enemies in the Psalms we are too quick to assume that these Old Testament authors were ignorant of some basic New Testament ethics They are self righteous thinking they have earned God's favor They don't know that the wicked can repent and be forgiven They believe in vengeance and hating their enemies We assume wrongly These prayers are far more aware than many modern churchgoers of how deeply our own sin runs so that even when persecuted we are not automatically entitled to divine help Even when we are truly entitled to justice against unrighteous attackers if God rescues us that is unmerited grace Further the psalms are fully aware that their enemies can repent and they show mercy to them The Book of Psalms teaches its readers individuals and the whole people of God to desire the repentance forgiveness and divine blessing of all nations even the people's most vicious enemies Treasuring the Psalms Ian J.
