Raising Black Children Questions And Answers For Parents And Teachers:

Two of America's most trusted and respected authorities on child care provide answers to nearly 1000 questions on the problem of raising African American children. Along with the traditional demands of parenthood today's parents must grapple with such daunting issues as drugs, AIDS, violence, and educational pressures. But black parents face an even more challenging task: they must actively combat negative messages of racism while teaching their children to succeed in a white-dominated culture. In this thorough guide to parenting, two noted child psychiatrists, both African American, focus on the special concerns of black parents. They offer comprehensive advice on nearly 1,000 common childrearing questions, paying particular attention to such problems as building self-esteem and helping black children cope with the often unconscious racism and microaggressions of white society. Authoritative and comprehensive, Raising Black Children is an indispensable resource for every African American family and for teachers of all races who seek to gain sensitivity to the needs of their black pupils. A necessary addition to all parenting and parent-teacher collections. Linda Cullum, Library Journal

Understanding Diverse Families Barbara F. Okun,1998-07-17 Today's mental health practitioners face a rapidly changing clientele. Divorce, remarriage, multiracial marriages, different types of adoption, openly gay and lesbian relationships all have significantly altered the nature and composition of families. An indispensable classroom text and an important resource for clinicians working in private practice, managed care, and other settings, this book insightfully examines a range of healthy families with creative family structures. Parents' Cultural Belief Systems Sara Harkness,Charles M. Super,1996-01-01

This illuminating new volume offers a multifaceted view of parenting, cultural belief systems, their origins, in culturally constructed parental experience, their expressions in parental practices, and their consequences for children's well-being and growth. Discussing issues with implications beyond the study of parenthood, the book shows how the analysis of child outcomes which relate to parents' cultural belief systems or parental ethnotheories can provide valuable insights into the nature and meaning of family and self in society and, in some cases, a basis for culturally sensitive therapeutic interventions. Illuminating the powerful influence of parents' cultural belief systems on the health and development of children, this volume will be welcomed by a broad audience. Anthropologists and psychologists interested in cultural theory and the interface of self and society will find a rich source of ideas and information. Parent educators, family therapists, pediatricians, and others who deal with ethnically diverse populations will discover invaluable information on what makes parents think and act the way they do. The book can be used as a primary text for courses in cognitive anthropology and cultural psychology and as an auxiliary text for culturally oriented courses in lifespan development, education, health, and human services. Home, School, and Community Collaboration Kathy B. Grant,Julie A. Ray,2010 Using the culturally responsive family support model, this text prepares teachers to work effectively with the diverse families of their students. Filled with practical suggestions and reflective opportunities Home School and Community Collaboration uses the culturally responsive family support model to prepare readers to work with children from diverse families This text includes contributions from 24 experts in the field in addressing the issues in family involvement that today s teachers are likely to encounter Key Features Covers family systems theory family involvement models and the family support approach Includes a wide range of practical strategies for use in today s schools as well as activities that help readers make connections between the course content and their own experiences Features case studies and vignettes that provide opportunities for reflection and help readers apply text information to real life settings Accompanied by Outstanding Ancillaries Instructor Resources on CD offer valuable resources for qualified adopters such as sample syllabi teaching tips PowerPoint presentations and a comprehensive test bank Contact Customer Care at 1 800 818 SAGE from 6 AM 5 PM PT to request a copy A Student study site offers practice tests flashcards web resources and SAGE journal articles on topics covered in the text Sharing Care Robert

Ziegler,Andrew Bush,2013-05-13 A clinician faces a multitude of considerations when assessing a child patient Foremost among these is that caring for the child entails caring for the family members involved with that child The therapist must balance the competing needs and feelings of the child parents and family as a whole By forming an alliance with all members of the family the therapist is in a position to strengthen and enhance the ties between child parents and family during all phases of assessment and treatment leading to a more effective therapeutic intervention Paving the Way for Children s Success offers a model that will help clinicians achieve this alliance The model presented in this book focuses on ways to integrate child assessment and treatment with that of their parents and families level of function It uses the authors unique concept of the Zones of Care to help clinicians assess this level of function In turn each of the four zones leads to a specific approach to treatment The authors present how these treatment approaches to current internalizing and externalizing disorders in children and adolescents allow clinicians to integrate a wide variety of techniques to address most DSM IV categories Their approach stresses both symptom reduction and the cultivation of coping skills It also integrates fiscal issues of treatment into the development of the alliance with the parents in resolving the presenting problem Dr Ziegler and Dr Bush present the reader with practical workable strategies for laying down strong diagnostic foundations for successful treatment making Paving the Way for Children s Success a valuable resource for any clinician working with children and adolescents The New York Public Library African American Desk Reference New York Public Library,1999-09-30
