The Rakehells of Heaven John Boyd, 2018-03-07 What happens when two U S Naval Astronauts land on the planet Harlech where there is no government no law indeed no concept of sin Public nudity is a way of life and the paternalism of children is of little interest to their mothers This wry amusing and suspenseful satire is truly John Boyd at his best Praise for John Boyd s The Last Starship from Earth This is the best anti Utopia the strongest satire on trends in our present culture I have seen since 1984 appeared I enjoyed its humor its half buried allusions The puns the almost not quite quotations the thinly veiled references to our real world all of these delighted me It belongs up at the top along with Brave New World and 1984 Robert A Heinlein A fascinating novel that kept me amused and interested to the end The future society it describes is one of the most convincing I ve ever encountered Arthur C Clarke In the tradition of Huxley Orwell and Bradbury A work of extraordinary impact The Los Angeles Times

Building Imaginary Worlds Mark J.P. Wolf, 2014-03-14 Mark J P Wolf s study of imaginary worlds theorizes world building within and across media including literature comics film radio television board games video games the Internet and more Building Imaginary Worlds departs from prior approaches to imaginary worlds that focused mainly on narrative medium or genre and instead considers imaginary worlds as dynamic entities in and of themselves Wolf argues that imaginary worlds which are often transnarrative transmedial and transauthorial in nature are compelling objects of inquiry for Media Studies Chapters touch on a theoretical analysis of how world building extends beyond storytelling the engagement of the audience and the way worlds are conceptualized and experienced a history of imaginary worlds that follows their development over three millennia from the fictional islands of Homer s Odyssey to the present internarrative theory examining how narratives set in the same world can interact and relate to one another an examination of transmedial growth and adaptation and what happens when worlds make the jump between media an analysis of the transauthorial nature of imaginary worlds the resulting concentric circles of authorship and related topics of canonicity participatory worlds
