Vance Smith, Smith offers a theoretical understanding of beginning that departs from the structuralisms of Edward Said the traditional formalisms of A D Nuttall and most medievalist and modernist treatments of closure Instead he views a work s beginning as a figure of the beginning of the work itself and the inception of language as the problem of beginning to which we continually return BOOK JACKET      Everyday and Prophetic Nick Halpern, 2003 Everyday and Prophetic is the first book to describe and analyze at length the prophetic voice and the everyday voice in postwar and contemporary American poetry Nick Halpern s commentaries on the work of Robert Lowell A R Ammons James Merrill Adrienne Rich Jorie Graham and Louise Gl ck serve the reader with a fresh and original context in which to see their work and Postwar American poetry as a whole      Samuel Beckett's Lyric Failure Mantra Mukim, 2025-03-06 Providing one of the first book length accounts of Samuel Beckett s poetry this work illustrates how Beckett s poetry and its failures reconfigure the lyric form Reading Beckett alongside nineteenth and twentieth century European poets such as H lderlin Mallarm Rimbaud Montale and Apollinaire the book situates failure in the triangulation of the lyric impulse subjectivity and the human voice Beckett in his poems employs lyric tactics that range from deixis parataxis and caesura to specific kinds of timbre resonances and punctuations These tactics situate the poetic voice in the liminal points between life and death event and non event beginning and ending and more broadly between expression and failure The book frames these liminalities under the rubric of lyric failure Moving beyond the usual comparisons with his prose and drama the study highlights failure as a generative force that structures Beckett s anti expressive poetics      Oral Poetry and Narratives from Central Arabia, Volume 1 Poetry of ad-Dindan Marcel Kurpershoek, 2022-06-27 This work presents the complete collection of oral poetry by ad Dind n a bedouin poet of the Duw sir tribe in southern Najd transcribed and translated on the basis of taped recordings The text is representative of a poetic tradition which has remained remarkably close to the desert poetry of the early classical age An extensive glossary including detailed cross references to the classical Arabic vocabulary completes this edition The introduction describes Dind n s somewhat anomalous position in local society as a result of his stubborn attachment to nomadism his fierce artistic temper and his unreconstructed bedouin ethos It also discusses the composition of oral poetry the d w n s themes and its place in the Najdi tradition the impact of literacy on the poet s oral work and the prosodic and linguistic features of the text      Tropes, Parables, and Performatives J. Hillis Miller, 1991-12-06 Tropes Parables Performatives collects J Hillis Miller s essays on seven major twentieth century authors Lawrence Kafka Stevens Williams

Woolf Hardy and Conrad For all their evident differences these essays from early to late explore a single intuition about literature which may be framed by three words trope parable and performative Throughout these essays Miller is fascinated with the tropological dimension of literary language with the way figures of speech turn aside the telling of a story or the presentation of a literary theme The exploration of this turning leads to the recognition that all works of literature are parabolic thrown beside their real meaning They tell one story but call forth something else Miller further agrees that all parables are fundamentally performative They do not merely name something or give knowledge but rather use words to make something happen to get the reader from here to there Each essay here attempts to formulate what in a given case the reader performatively enters by way of parabolic trope The Beginnings of Poetry Francis Barton Gummere, 1901 Oral poetry and narratives from Central Arabia. 1. The poetry of ad-Dindān P. M. Kurpershoek, 1993-12-31 This work presents the complete collection of oral poetry of a bedouin poet in Central Arabia transcribed and translated on the basis of taped recordings an extensive glossary and chapters on i a the Najdi tradition in poetry linguistic features and prosody
