Rat Bohemia:

Rat Bohemia (Large Print 16pt) Sarah Schulman, 2010-07 First published in 1995 this award winning novel written from the epicentre of the AIDS crisis is a bold achingly honest story set in the rat bohemia of New York City whose huddled masses include gay men and lesbians who bond with one another. The Advocate, 1995-10-31 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States

Queer Jewish Strangers in American Popular Culture Amy Tziporah Karp, 2023-12-19 Queer Jewish Strangers in American Popular Culture Life Between Assimilation and Otherness explores LGBTQIA Jewish American identity in the United States and the queer Jewish stranger figures who live in between incorporation and estrangement Amy Tziporah Karp establishes that despite the near ubiquitous portrayal of Jewish American assimilation as a finished project completed in the wake of World War II in academic disciplines and throughout popular culture many LGBTQIA Jewish figures in contemporary popular culture inhabit stranger positionalities In these stranger spaces characters are forced to either perpetually attempt to assimilate or inhabit this interstitial stranger identity that is often viewed as a nowhere or homeless space Those who pursue assimilating endlessly try to fit in to no avail such as Jenny Schecter from Showtime's popular The L Word who is ultimately killed off on the show possibly murdered by her LGBTQIA community of friends Karp shows that those who attempt to make a home in a stranger positionality align themselves with other estranged and othered peoples such as characters throughout Sarah Schulman's novels and that this constitutes an ethical stance against the ways in which assimilation often inadvertently supports the workings of violent hegemonies in the United States

Rat Bohemia Sarah Schulman, 1996

Queer Constellations Dianne Chisholm, Queer Constellations investigates the dreams and catastrophes of recent urban history viewed through new queer narratives of inner city life The gay village gay mecca gai Paris the lesbian flaneur the lesbian bohème these and other urban phantasmagoria feature paradoxically in this volume as figures of revolutionary utopia and commodity spectacle as fossilized archetypes of social transformation and ruins of haunting cultural potential Dianne Chisholm introduces readers to new practices of walking seeing citing and remembering the city in works by Neil Bartlett Samuel Delany Robert Gluck Alan Hollinghurst Gary Indiana Eileen Myles Sarah Schulman Edmund White and David Wojnarowicz Reading these authors with reference to the history sociology geography and philosophy of space particularly to the everyday avant garde production and practice of urban space Chisholm reveals how and how effectively queer narrative documentary resembles and reassembles Walter Benjamin's constellations of Paris capital of the nineteenth century Considering experimental queer writing in critical conjunction with Benjamin's city writing the book shows how a queer perspective on inner city reality exposes contradictions otherwise obscured by mythic narratives of progress If Benjamin regards the Paris arcade as a microcosm of high capitalism wherein the unmaking of industrial society is perceived retrospectively in contemporary queer narrative we see the sexually charged and commodity entranced space of the gay bathroom as a microcosm of late capitalism and as an exemplary site for excavating the contradictions of mass sex In Chisholm's book we discover how looking back on the ruins of queer mecca queer authors return to Benjamin to advance his dialectics of seeing how they cruise the paradoxes of market capital blasting a queer era out of the homogeneous course of history

AIDS and American Apocalypticism Thomas Lawrence Long, 2012-02-01 Since public discourse about AIDS began in 1981 it has characterized AIDS as an apocalyptic plague a punishment for sin and a sign of the end of the world Christian fundamentalists had already configured the gay male population most visibly affected by AIDS as apocalyptic signifiers or signs of the end times Their discourse grew out of a centuries old American apocalypticism that included images of crisis destruction and ultimate renewal In this book Thomas L Long examines the ways in which gay and AIDS activists artists writers scientists and journalists appropriated this apocalyptic rhetoric in order to mobilize attention to the medical crisis prevent the spread of the disease and treat the HIV infected Using the analytical tools of literary analysis cultural studies performance theory and social semiotics AIDS and American Apocalypticism examines many kinds of discourse including fiction drama performance art demonstration graphics and brochures biomedical publications and journalism and shows that while initially useful the effects of apocalyptic rhetoric in the long term are dangerous Among the important figures in AIDS activism and the arts discussed are David Drake Tim Miller Sarah Schulman and Tony Kushner as well as the organizations ACT UP and Lesbian Avengers

American Identities Robert Pack, Jay Parini, 1994 Contemporary commentators have observed that postmodern America is less a melting pot than a buffet table In American Identities people of diverse ethnic religious social gender and sexual backgrounds refuse to merge but insist on a multiplicity of well maintained identities editors Robert Pack and Jay Parini explain This sixth volume in the popular Bread Loaf Anthology series gathers more than three dozen voices who testify that there is no single American Experience but instead a multiplicity of experiences These poems stories and essays describe in occasionally stark sometimes humorous and often moving terms what it means to be black and American or gay and American or Latino and American or Jewish and American within this society
