Religious Architecture in Latium and Etruria, C. 900-500 BC Charlotte Rose Potts, 2015 Religious Architecture in Latium and Etruria c 900 500 BC presents the first comprehensive treatment of cult buildings in western central Italy from the Iron Age to the Archaic Period By analysing the archaeological evidence for the form of early religious buildings and their role in ancient communities it reconstructs a detailed history of early Latial and Etruscan religious architecture that brings together the buildings and the people who used them The Economy of Roman Religion Andrew Wilson, Nick Ray, Angela Trentacoste, 2023-06-07 This interdisciplinary edited volume presents twelve papers by Roman historians and archaeologists discussing the interconnected relationship between religion and the Roman economy over the period c 500 BC to AD 350 The connection between Roman religion and the economy has largely been ignored in work on the Roman economy but this volume explores the many complex ways in which economic and religious thinking and activities were interwoven from individuals to institutions The broad geographic and chronological scope of the volume engages with a notable variety of evidence epigraphic archaeological historical papyrological and zooarchaeological In addition to providing case studies that draw from the rich archaeological documentary and epigraphic evidence the volume also explores the different and sometimes divergent pictures offered by these sources from discrepancies in the cost of religious buildings to the tensions between piety and ostentatious donation The edited collection thus bridges economic social and religious themes The volume provides a view of a society in which religion had a central role in economic activity on an institutional to individual scale The volume allows an evaluation of impact of that activity from both financial and social viewpoints providing a new perspective on Roman religion a perspective to which a wide range of archaeological and documentary evidence from animal bone to coins and building costs has contributed As a result this volume not only provides new information on the economy of Roman religion it also proposes new ways of looking at existing bodies of evidence Continuity and Change in Etruscan Domestic Architecture Paul M. Miller, 2017-04-30 Etruscan architecture underwent various changes between the later Iron Age and the Archaic period This book reconsiders these changes by focusing on the building materials and techniques used in the construction of domestic structures The

Codrus Painter Amalia Avramidou, 2011-01-06 The Codrus Painter was a painter of cups and vases in fifth century B C E Athens with a distinctive style he is named after Codrus a legendary Athenian king depicted on one of his most characteristic vases He was active as an artist during the rule of Pericles as the Parthenon was built and then as the troubled times of the Peloponnesian War began In contrast to the work of fellow artists of his day the vases of the Codrus Painter appear to have been created almost exclusively for export to markets outside Athens and Greece especially to the Etruscans in central Italy and to points further west Amalia Avramidou offers a thoroughly researched amply illustrated study of the Codrus Painter that also comments on the mythology religion arts athletics and daily life of Greece depicted on his vases She evaluates his style and the defining characteristics of his own hand and of the minor painters associated with him Examining the subject matter figure types and motifs on the vases she compares them with sculptural works produced during the same period Avramidou's iconographic analysis not only encompasses the cultural milieu of the Athenian metropolis but also offers an original and intriguing perspective on the adoption meaning and use of imported Attic vases among the Etruscans Archiv für Religionsgeschichte, 2007 Etruscan Italy John Franklin Hall, 1996 Livy describes the Etruscans as filling the whole of ancient Italy with their power and influence While Etruscan rule throughout large parts of the Italian peninsula endured for but a few centuries Etruscan influence was so extensive that in some respects it continues into the present Outside the Etruscan heartland Rome itself was perhaps the best preserver of things Etruscan The fourteen essays comprising this volume explore Etruscan Italy and examine the influence exerted by Etruscan civilization upon the cultures of Italy in Roman and post Roman times Represented are contributions from various disciplines which converge to employ multiple methodologies in a comprehensive approach to delineating the enduring themes of Etruscan Italy Imperium and Cosmos Paul Rehak, 2009-05-20 Caesar Augustus promoted a modest image of himself as the first among equals princeps a characterization that was as popular with the ancient Romans as it is with many scholars today Paul Rehak argues against this impression of humility and suggests that like the monarchs of the Hellenistic age Augustus sought immortality an eternal glory gained through deliberate planning for his niche in history while flexing his existing power Imperium and Cosmos focuses on Augustus's Mausoleum and Ustrinum site of his cremation the Horologium Solarium a colossal sundial and the Ara Pacis Altar to Augustan Peace all of which transformed the northern Campus Martius into a tribute to his major achievements in life and a vast memorial for his deification after death Rehak closely examines the artistic imagery on these monuments providing numerous illustrations tables and charts In an analysis firmly contextualized by a thorough discussion of the earlier models and motifs that inspired these Augustan monuments Rehak shows how the princeps used these on such an unprecedented scale as to truly elevate himself above the common citizen The World of Roman Costume Judith Lynn Sebesta, Larissa Bonfante, 1994 These essays survey document and elucidate over a thousand years of Roman garments and accessories from Etruscan influences to the transition to early Christian and medieval garb Subjects include functional and symbolic uses manufacture and industry male female and children s garb and daily life and official dress Some Organic Readings in Narrative, Ancient and Modern: Gathered and originally presented as a book for John Ian Repath,Fritz-Gregor Herrmann,2019-10-01 This volume in honour of John Morgan contains seventeen essays by colleagues research students and post doctoral researchers who have worked with and been influenced by him during his 40 years in Swansea up to and beyond his retirement in 2015 It is designed to reflect the esteem and affection in which the honorand is held as teacher supervisor colleague and friend All the contributions reflect John Morgan s interests with a particular focus on narrative which has always been at the forefront of his teaching and research he has elucidated the forms structures strategies and functions of numerous ancient narratives especially fictional in a voluminous body of scholarship The contributors consider a wide range of narratives extending from those which show the influence of older stories on the beginnings of ancient Greek civilisation through various narrative genres in different periods of antiquity and up to later eras when the impact of Greek and Roman learning stories and ideas has been felt The core of this volume contains discussions of narratives from the Roman imperial period since this is the area to which the majority of John Morgan s work has been devoted and where his research has seen him become a world leader in the study of the ancient Greek novel Several of the contributions at various stages of development were delivered and discussed at gatherings organised under the aegis of KYKNOS the Centre for Research on the Narrative Literatures of the Ancient World which was established at Swansea in 2004 at John Morgan s initiative Votives, Places, and Rituals in Etruscan Religion Margarita Gleba,Hilary Becker,2009 By considering votive mortuary and secular rituals the volume offers a contribution to the continued study of Etruscan culture and gathers new material interpretations and approaches to the less emphasized areas of Etruscan religion Program of the Annual Meeting - American Historical Association American Historical Association,2007 Some programs include also the programs of societies meeting concurrently with the association Etruscan Art in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Richard Daniel De Puma,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2013 Program of the ... Serra Ridgway,1995-10-25 This volume the first serious book in English on Etruscan art was hailed for its broad scope thorough knowledge and clear exposition when it was published almost twenty years ago Now brought back into print with an updated bibliography and bibliographical essay by Francesca R Serra Ridgway it remains an essential introduction for anyone interested in ancient art history and civilization Otto Brendel s exploration of the art culture and society of Etruria takes us through its four main periods of creativity the Villanovan and Orientalizing era the Archaic era the Classical era and the Hellenistic era when Etruscan art became extinct According to Brendel the Etruscans were deeply influenced by Greek styles but used Greek forms and concepts to further their own purposes Etruscan art is a private art aristocratic and luxurious but centered in the life of the family and a continuing life in the tomb Many of the art forms and objects discussed ceramics metalware jewelry sculpture and wall painting are known to us through the discovery of tombs Most of these objects had a clearly defined function but were also designed with a high degree of quality and craftsmanship to be decorative The beautiful art of the Etruscans illustrated and explained in this book sheds much light on a people about whom we know little The Book Review Digest ,2007 Jason and the Argonauts through the Ages Jason Colavito,2014-04-07 The story of Jason and the Argonauts is one of the most famous in Greek myth and its development from the oldest layers of Greek mythology down to the modern age encapsulates the dramatic changes in faith power and culture that Western civilization has seen over the past three millennia From the Bronze Age to the Classical Age from the medieval world to today the Jason story has been told and retold with new stories details and meanings This book explores the epic history of a colorful myth and probes the most ancient origins of the quest for the Golden Fleece a quest that takes us to the very dawn of Greek religion and its close relationship with Near Eastern peoples and cultures New Perspectives on Etruria and Early Rome Richard Daniel De Puma,2009 In surveying recent developments in Etruscan and Roman studies the contributors to this collection pay tribute to an individual who has made a significant and influential contribution to both fields Richard De Puma American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Etruria and Anatolia Elizabeth P. Baughan,Lisa C. Pieraccini,2023-03-09 Striking similarities in Etruscan and Anatolian material culture reveal various forms of contact and exchange between these regions on opposite sides of the Mediterranean This is the first comprehensive investigation of these connections approaching both cultures as agents of artistic exchange rather than as side characters in a Greek focused narrative It synthesizes a wide range of material evidence from c 800 300 BCE from tomb architecture and furniture to painted vases terracotta reliefs and magic amulets By identifying shared practices common visual language and movements of objects and artisans from both east to west and west to east it illuminates many varied threads of the interconnected ancient Mediterranean fabric Rather than trying to account for the similarities with any one overarching theory this volume presents multiple simultaneous modes and implications of connectivity while also recognizing the distinct local identities expressed through shared artistic and cultural traditions
