Salvation A Clear Doctrinal Analysis:

Salvation Lewis Sperry Chafer, 2015-11-25 Lewis Sperry Chafer 1871 1952 was an American theologian who founded the Dallas Theological Seminary Chafer was mentored by C I Scofield and became a key figure for Christian Dispensationalism in the early 20th century

Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 2 Robert Boyd, 2017-06-20 Evangelical theology strives to be evangelical conservative and contemporary In a world in which everyone is Christian evangelical theology provides a balanced position between fundamentalism and liberalism While theological debates within the family will occur to be evangelical is a breath of fresh air for many However we do not live in such a world We do find ourselves living in a secular global society It is secular because no religious organization dictates how we live our lives It is global for at least two reasons First our technology brings us immediately in contact with those faraway places Second and of more importance we can simply step outside our front doors and encounter our neighborhoods that reflect a global pluralism This raises the question how shall we then live The intent of An Evangelical Theology of Religions is to suggest a direction for evangelicals to think about the secular global society in which they live in a way that is not only conservative but also evangelical and contemporary The final essay strives to address the evangelical aspect of our tradition that places an emphasis on the Great Commission and the law of love

The Dispensational-Covenantal Rift R. Todd Mangum, 2007-06-01 This groundbreaking study explores how the fight between dispensationalists and covenant theologians started and how a unique dynamic of personalities and sociological factors enflamed it Readers may be surprised to discover that even the terminology of dispensationalists and covenant theologians originated in the 1930s disputes that the majority of the original protagonists on both sides were Presbyterians and that soteriology rather than eschatology was the original bone of contention between them This study examines how two respective strands of fundamentalism came to identify one another as theological rivals as they each vied for position in their recently formed separatist bodies The significance of disagreements over dispensationalism is explored in the founding of the Orthodox Presbyterian and Bible Presbyterian churches And then as the debate traveled southward the response of the PCUS is examined with special attention given to the consummative reports of an ad hoc committee that found dispensationalism to be out of harmony with the Westminster doctrinal standards Significant misunderstandings that impeded fruitful dialogue from the beginning are clarified particularly those that have persisted most stubbornly to the present day Perhaps most surprising of all the reader will discover that nearly all of the original points of debate between dispensationalists and covenant theologians have since been resolved as each side has honed its position in light of pertinent critiques Why has this development gone almost unnoticed This study suggests an answer and proposes that understanding how the feud began may hold the key to rapprochement today

The Covenantal Kingdom Ralph Smith, 1996

Growing Deep in the Christian Life, 1987-03-26

Doctrine of the Eons Paige-Patrick J. D. Samuels, 2019-06-13 The Doctrine of the Eons God's Immutable Plan is an account of how God will bring about the salvation and reconciliation of all mankind Each chapter provides a theological account of how this will be accomplished including dispelling common myths about God and focusing on the meaning of the word immutable This leads to a discussion of the Hebrew and Greek definitions of eon and eternal and we discover that neither the Old nor the New Testament uses the word eternal Eternal tends to refer to an indefinite amount of time whereas eon is more definite the latter term is primarily used when the Bible talks about the end times Finally the doctrine of universal salvation is presented arguing that God will have all men be saved and that he will eventually reconcile all creation

Religious Books and Serials in Print 1978-1979
R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography,1978-11 A Manual of Introduction to the New Testament Bernhard Weiss,1896 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1980 A Companion to Paul in the Reformation R. Ward

Holder,2009 The reception and interpretation of the writings of St Paul in the early modern period forms the subject of this volume Written by experts in the field the articles offer a critical overview of current research and introduce the major themes in Pauline interpretation in the Reformation Gregory of Nazianzus on the Trinity and the Knowledge of God

Christopher A. Beeley,2008-06-27 Gregory of Nazianzus a 4th century bishop of Constantinople receives relatively little attention from modern Western scholars yet he is one of the most influential theologians in the history of Christian doctrine As an advocate for the conceptual understanding of the Trinity Gregory set precedents for the way his fellow and future Christians would perceive and worship God Christopher A Beeley presents the first comprehensive study in modern Western scholarship of Gregory s doctrine of the Trinity in the full range of his theological and practical vision of the Christian life

The Federal Theology of Jonathan Edwards Gilsun Ryu,2021-07-07 The Christ centered exegesis of Jonathan Edwards Jonathan Edwards is remembered for his sermons and works of theology and philosophy but he has been overlooked as an exegete Gilsun Ryu s The Federal Theology of Jonathan Edwards explores how exegesis drove Edwards s focus on the headship of Christ as second Adam and likewise formed a foundation for his broader theological reasoning and writing especially on Christ and the covenants Edwards s distinctive emphases on exegesis redemptive history and the harmony of Scripture distinguish him from his Reformed forebears Ryu s study will help readers appreciate Edwards s contribution as an exegetically informed Reformed theologian The Oxford Handbook of the Protestant Reformations Ulinka Rublack,2017

This Handbook takes a broad overview of the Protestant Reformations seeing them as movements which stretched far beyond their European beginnings Written by a team of international scholars of history and theology the contributions offer up to date perspectives on Reformation ideas and the lasting historical impact of Protestantism Richard Hooker and his Early Doctrine of Justification Corneliu C. Simut,2019-10-01

Richard Hooker and his Early Doctrine of Justification explores the doctrine of justification the doctrine of faith and grace and the doctrine of Scripture and use of reason in the early theology of Richard Hooker In order to prove that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian Simu concentrates on Hooker s doctrine of justification as reflected in his Learned Discourse of Justification which is the most important work of his early theology Unlike previous books on Hooker which use primarily the theology of Luther and Calvin to draw conclusions this book brings together quotations and ideas from the works of Luther Melanchthon Zwingli Bucer Calvin and Beza to show that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian Simu also discusses the theological context of Hooker s career by offering an analysis of the doctrine of justification in the theology of John Jewel John Whitgift Hooker s patrons and Thomas Cartwright and Walter Travers Hooker s Puritan opponents

"Born Again": A Portrait and Analysis of the Doctrine of Regeneration within Evangelical Protestantism Stephen J. Hamilton, 2017-04-03 Stephen J Hamilton attempts to create a portrait of born again Christianity by providing a general introduction to the doctrine of regeneration including its development in modernity as well as short exegeses of relevant scriptural texts followed by a close reading of four theologians Philipp Jakob Spener Jonathan Edwards Friedrich D E Schleiermacher and Charles G Finney who all associate the doctrine of regeneration with an experience of presence in the individual believer In light of these analyses he then traces a general theological structure of the born again understanding of regeneration including a catalogue of theological issues over which there is significant disagreement in order to create a topography of born again theologies In the final section he applies these results to contemporary conversion narratives of non theologians It is in such conversion narratives the author argues that theologians can discover an implicit lived theology that reveals how doctrines are perceived and put into practice among Christians Accordingly this is to be understood as the result of the creative reciprocity between often tacit theological convictions and the experiences of the Christian life The final chapter as a coda to the entire work offers some concluding reflections on the present cultural and political situation in the USA pertaining to born again Christianity and argues against any oversimplifications of the relationship between born again theologies culture and politics

A Critical Examination of the Doctrine of Revelation in Evangelical Theology Carisa A. Ash, 2015-07-14 How God reveals himself is an important matter for Christians especially evangelicals For too long Carisa Ash contends evangelicals have rightly affirmed that God reveals through the created world but then they functionally neglect such revelation In this monograph Ash offers a corrective to this practice by presenting a theology of revelation that explores the commonalities between various forms of revelation world written and spoken word and Incarnate Word Particularly aimed at theologians interested in theological method Ash s study will also benefit people interested in faith and learning or interdisciplinary integration Ash argues that evangelicals must strive to align more closely their affirmations and their practice Her critique of current practices in theological method and integration along with the proposed theology of revelation are designed to help move the conversation forward

Doctrine, Dynamic and Difference Pieter de Witte, 2012-03-29 An analysis of the Lutheran Roman Catholic Joint Declaration on Justification with a special focus on the method of Differentiated Consensus
