Salvation Of Modern Man:

Radical Secularization? Stijn Latr, Walter Van Herck, Guido Vanheeswijck, 2016-06-30 What does it mean for a society to be secular Answering this question from a philosophical angle Radical Secularization delves into the philosophical presuppositions of secularization Which cultural evolutions made secularization possible International scholars from different disciplines assess the answers given by many leading philosophers such as among others L with Blumenberg and Habermas Germany Gauchet and Nancy France Taylor and Bellah North America They examine the theory that secularization cannot only be regarded as a cultural change that was forced upon religion from an external source e g science but should also be considered as a phenomenon triggered by motives internal to religion If religions are indeed capable of inner transformations the question arises whether religions can persist in the secular societies they inadvertently helped to bring about and how secular societies may accommodate religion Archbishop Fulton Sheen, the Contemporary Humanist Emmanuel K. Ngwainmbi, Rev. Fr. John Berinyuy, 2023-08-30 This book is a theological reflection of Sheen's contribution to humanity and society It analyzes the modern person from the Catholic doctrinal perspective explores Fulton Sheen's perception of the contemporary individual and demonstrates that global economic religious and political crises cannot be resolved by focusing only on the mundane It further underscores some contemporary anthropological challenges and proposes a philosophy and theology of life that can enable contemporary humans to know themselves better and make life worth living The authors argue that advancements in science and technology have failed to prolong happiness people are still frustrated disillusioned cynical bored and suicidal This book enters the landscape of Sheen's controversial pause before he was sanctified and provides a lengthy liturgical extrapolation of Sheen's Christian anthropology wrestling with other thinkers and general concerns surrounding human angst in modern society The Modern Man and the Church John Francis Dobbs, 1911 Harper's Magazine Henry Mills Alden, Thomas Bucklin Wells, Lee Foster Hartman, Frederick Lewis Allen, 1918 Important American periodical dating back to 1850 Communings of the Spirit Mel Scult, 2016-10-10 With honesty and vivid detail Kaplan explores his evolving beliefs on religious naturalism and his uncertainties and self-doubts as he grapples with a wide range of theological issues Journal of Theological Studies, 1904 Catholicisme Henri de Lubac, 1988 Here Henri de Lubac gathers from throughout the breadth and length of Catholic tradition elements which he synthesizes to show the essentially social and historical character of the Catholic Church and how this worldwide and age-long dimension of the Church is the only adequate matrix for the fulfillment of the person within society and the transcendence of the person towards God Harper's Monthly Magazine, 1918 Two Roberto Esposito, 2015-09-01 The debate on political theology that ran throughout the twentieth century has reached its end but the ultimate meaning of the notion continues to evade us Despite all the attempts to resolve the issue we still speak its language we remain in its horizon The reason for this says Roberto Esposito lies in the fact that political theology is neither a concept nor an event rather it is the pivot around which the machine of Western civilization has revolved for more than 2 000 years At its heart stands the juncture between universalism and exclusion unity and separation the tendency of the Two to make itself into One by subordinating one part to the domination of the other All the philosophical and political categories that we use starting with the Roman and Christian notion of the person continue to reproduce this exclusionary dispositif To take our departure from political theology then the task of contemporary philosophy we must radically revise our conceptual lexicon Only when thought has been returned to its rightful place connected to the human species as a whole rather than to individuals will we be able to escape from the machine that has imprisoned our lives for far too long What the Bible

The Ground of Certainty Donald G. Bloesch,2002-01-29 In this book Dr Donald Bloesch sharply diverges from much traditional thinking on the relationship between theology and philosophy and suggests an alternative that is solidly anchored in biblical faith Instead of seeing this relationship in terms of synthesis or correlation or even simple subordination he calls for the conversion and transformation of philosophical meanings in the light of the biblical revelation Philosophy can be of considerable aid to theologians but they must take care not to let philosophical concepts determine the meaning of faith Reason can be enlisted in the service of revelation but it cannot establish the truth of revelation Against the irrationalism of contemporary existentialist theology and the rationalism that has pervaded both scholastic orthodoxy Catholic and Protestant and liberal philosophical theology Bloesch proposes an evangelical theology of revelation that seeks to employ reason in the task of understanding the faith The author upholds not an autonomous reason but an obedient reason and he shows that this ideal has support in the history of theology as well as in the Bible
