Beckett and Nature Charles Clements,Eleanor Green,James Martell,2025-07-10 New analyses on the insightful ways in which Beckett s work actively engages with contested notions of Nature and the natural developing a radical version of modernism s main questions and insights Beckett and Nature takes its cue from contemporary developments in Beckett scholarship focused on ecocriticism posthumanism and the Anthropocene going beyond them into a questioning of the very concepts of Nature and the natural It examines one of the most unthought ontological dimensions of literature and life that symbolic space deemed natural or part of Nature appears necessary and undeniable and therefore impossible to be deconstructed In doing so the authors show that in fact this space takes on many shapes recognizing three natural dimensions criticized by Beckett bodies worlds and literatures Featuring a wide range of both Beckett s work and Beckett scholars including Jean Michel Rabat and Stanley E Gontarski Beckett and Nature offers contextualized readings of the understandings of nature and the natural throughout his decade spanning uvre The volume shows that part of the radicality of Beckett s writing is that through a variety of evolving techniques and strategies it questions what appears in our cultures as the most unquestionable and opens up possibilities for thinking not only what is human literature and philosophy but also gender identity and any attempt at definitions of ourselves or the world at large The Dramatic Works of Samuel Beckett Charles A. Carpenter,2011-10-13 A selectively comprehensive bibliography of the vast literature about Samuel Beckett s dramatic works arranged for the efficient and convenient use of scholars on all levels

The Making of Samuel Beckett's Malone Meurt/Malone Dies Dirk van Hulle, Pim Verhulst, 2017 This volume analyses the genesis of Beckett's novel Malone meurt Malone dies Written in French in 1947-1948 and translated into English by the author in 1954-1956 it is the second part of the so-called Trilogy preceded by Molloy and followed by L'Innommable The Unnamable Because Malone's account approximates a diary this book starts from H. Porter Abbott's notion of diary fiction to examine the surviving manuscripts typescripts and pre-book publication extracts Even though the writing process of Malone meurt almost coincides with the progression of the narrative illustrating what Louis Hay has called criture processus Beckett made substantial changes to the text which can be interpreted as a critique of Honoré de Balzac's programmatic writing method This analysis extends to the genesis of Malone Dies Beckett's English translation of the novel which alludes to Balzac's novel Louis Lambert in order to show that self-translation is a crucial and integral part of Beckett's bilingual autographic project
