both criticism of our present society plans for our future and release from tension and disequilibrium Professor Armytage shows in this book how such visions can and do refresh minds for renewed grappling with the present by arming them with ideas for man's future needs He indicates that out of an apparent welter of futuristic fantasies a constructive debate about tomorrow is emerging providing us with operational models of what tomorrow could be This book will hold special interest for students of philosophy and of English literature     The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature Frederick Wilse Bateson, 1941     The Spectator , 1896     English Novel, Richardson to Hardy Frank Northen Magill, 1980
