

A photograph of a historic stone building, likely a church or cathedral, with a palm tree and a full moon reflected in the water. The scene is captured in a sepia tone, giving it a vintage feel. The building's architecture features arched windows and a prominent dome. The palm tree stands tall on the right side of the frame, its fronds reaching towards the sky. The full moon is positioned in the upper right quadrant, its light reflecting on the water's surface. The water in the foreground is calm, creating a clear reflection of the building, the palm tree, and the moon. The overall composition is balanced and evokes a sense of time and place.

San Juan Glimpses In Time Travels Through Shadow:

San Juan: Glimpses in Time Michael Jean Nystrom-Schut, 2004-07-02 From my home in San Juan a lovely sector of central Tibas situated just north of San Jose Costa Rica while the candle flickers I commence the writing of these varied glimpses Warning What you are about to read are personal memoirs They are much to do about self They amount to a large group of random thoughts sporadic observations I always feel I am somehow supposed to write my thoughts down what a big ego I must have because I like to think that if you put them all together they form a loose knit way of seeing the world They are a part of my worldview Everyone has one of these whats your view of the world look like I am going to be a world philosopher when I grow up you see That is what my intention is since I have always been preoccupied with how to see things how to process things How odd is life anyway Thats why my interest in philosophy to figure out the oddness of life Normally I think philosophy can be pretty dry and boring But for me its terribly exciting In this book what you are about to delve into will resemble the form of an ongoing story It will consist of a sequence of six weeks of shadows and lights i e days and nights After that time wherever I am at with it I will stop and simply and abruptly start to write another book about something else I know not what Here though I will I suspect be sharing with you a series of ideas dreams fears logical thoughts illogical thoughts wonderings wanderings and general psychobabble I say that because I intend to impart thoughts and ideas about whatever might be in my ongoing existence in being This could be anything I assure you as of course it could be for anyone Exactly what will appear in the pages that represent the next six weeks of my life I do not have any idea that for me is going to be much of the fun of writing it

Glimpses ... Now I Can See Elizabeth A. Roberts, 2015-07-21 When Elizabeth Roberts twice lost her sight she felt she had lost her self as well Months and years of darkness loomed ahead How could she continue the life she once had Could she be self reliant and independent Could she find happiness in accomplishment again This collection of stories poems and essays reflects her journey to go beyond loss to regain life She recalls disturbing times of abuse as she seeks a newly defined self She finds wonderfully implausible moments of humor involving students teachers and colleagues Furthermore the abiding love for a small donkey a gray cat and a cherished friend brings positive though poignant remembrances The glimpses of her life reveal frustration and fear as well as joy contentment and peace but most of all the hope and love she needs to survive to live to flourish Through the authors loss of sight and search for vision we see resilience and achievement and love

The Wireless Age J. Andrew

White,1914 Reading American Art Professor and Department Head of Art & Art History Elizabeth Milroy,1998-01-01
 This anthology brings together twenty outstanding works of recent scholarship on the history of the visual arts in the United States from the colonial period to 1945 The selected essays all written within the past two decades reflect the interdisciplinary character of current art historiography in America and the variety of approaches that contribute to the dynamism in the field The authors take up diverse subjects from colonial portraits to nineteenth century sculptures of women to photographic images of New York and invite those with a general knowledge of the history of American art to think more deeply about art and culture Employing many interpretive methodologies including iconology social history structuralism psychobiography and feminist theory the contributors to this volume combine close analysis of specific art objects or groups of objects with discussion of how these works of art operated within their cultural contexts The authors consider the works of such artists as John Singleton Copley Charles Willson Peale Winslow Homer Thomas Eakins Georgia O Keeffe and Jackson Pollock as they assess how paintings sculpture prints drawings and photographs have carried meaning within American society And they investigate how the conceptualization production and presentation of works of art both inform and are informed by prevailing attitudes toward the role of the arts and the artist in American culture American Motorist ,1920

Rethinking Juan Rulfo's Creative World Nuala Finnegan,Dylan Brennan,2016-05-05 Though primarily known for his haunting enigmatic novel Pedro P ramo and the unrelenting depictions of the failures of post revolutionary Mexico in his short story collection El Llano en llamas Juan Rulfo also worked as scriptwriter on various collaborative film projects and his powerful interventions in the area of documentary photography ensure that he continues to inspire interest worldwide Bringing together some of the most significant names in Rulfian scholarship this anthology engages with the complexity and diversity of Rulfo s cultural production The essays in the collection bring the Rulfian texts into dialogues with other cultural traditions and techniques including the Japanese Noh or mask plays and modernist experimentation in the Irish language They also deploy diverse theoretical frameworks that range from Roland Barthes work on studium and punctum in photography to Henri Lefebvre s ideas on space and spatiality and the postmodern insights of Jean Baudrillard on the nature of the simulacrum and the hyperreal In this way innovative approaches are brought to bear on the Rulfian texts as a way of illuminating the rich tensions and anxieties they evoke about Mexico about history about art and about the human condition
