survive in a town where tonight's Oscar frock is tomorrow's laughing stock Never Done Erin Hill, 2016-10-05 Histories of women in Hollywood usually recount the contributions of female directors screenwriters designers actresses and other creative personnel whose names loom large in the credits Yet from its inception the American film industry relied on the labor of thousands more women workers whose vital contributions often went unrecognized Never Done introduces generations of women who worked behind the scenes in the film industry from the employees wives who hand colored the Edison Company's films frame by frame to the female immigrants who toiled in MGM's backrooms to produce beautifully beaded and embroidered costumes Challenging the dismissive characterization of these women as merely menial workers media historian Erin Hill shows how their labor was essential to the industry and required considerable technical and interpersonal skills Sketching a history of how Hollywood came to define certain occupations as lower paid women's work or feminized labor Hill also reveals how enterprising women eventually gained a foothold in more prestigious divisions like casting and publicity Poring through rare archives and integrating the firsthand accounts of women employed in the film industry the book gives a voice to women whose work was indispensable yet largely invisible As it traces this long history of women in Hollywood Never Done reveals the persistence of sexist assumptions that even today leave women in the media industry underpraised and underpaid For more information <http://erinhill.squarespace.com> Sisterhood, Interrupted D. Siegel, 2007-08-24 Contrary to clichés about the end of feminism Deborah Siegel argues that younger women are not abandoning the movement but reinventing it After forty years is feminism today a culture or a cause A movement for personal empowerment or broad scale social change Have women achieved equality or do we still have a long way to go American Book Publishing Record ,2004 Bust ,2004 The Publishers Weekly ,2004 Rungs on a Ladder Christopher Neame, 2003-06-24 Rungs on a Ladder looks at part of the movie industry from a unique perspective Christopher Neame son of director Ronald started his career in the early 1960s at the very bottom but determinedly made his way to the top Neame fondly recalls his learning years at Bray Studios and beyond Simply and often amusingly he recounts his days with Hammer Films and observes many of the characters both in front of and behind the camera names synonymous with those classic tales of Gothic horror director Terrence Fisher producers Anthony Hinds Michael Carreras and Anthony Nelson Keys screenwriter producer Jimmy Sangster and of course Peter Cushing and Christopher Lee Along the way he encounters those less obviously connected to Hammer like Joan Fontaine Joseph Cotten Norman Lloyd and Bette Davis Never the one to reserve his critical eye for others alone Neame willingly says mea culpa when deserved The book begins with his rude awakening to the string and sealing wax world of Dracula Prince of Darkness and follows his journey through sixteen subsequent productions including three Frankensteins The Devil Rides Out which American distributors thought was going to be a Western and a couple of Mummy films Neame also shares stories of his participation in non genre ventures like Quatermass and the Pit The Anniversary Demons of the Mind and Fear in the Night Includes 16 pages of photos The New
