Out of the USSR Eva Hausbacher, Viola Parente-Čapková, Arja Rosenholm, Marja Anneli Sorvari, 2025-08-04. This book examines how women authors recall their own and their families' past lives after having emigrated from the Soviet Union in the 1990s and how they reflect on their new country of residence be it Germany, Austria, Israel, USA or Finland among others. The chapters connect migration, memory and gender studies to analyse literary presentations created by these travelling women. The aim of the book is to pay attention both to women's contribution to cultural transfer and to the mobility of memories for the first time it brings women's narratives as a form and tool to work through both individual and collective traumas to the forefront, remedying a long standing omission in Russian and post Soviet migration history. At the same time the volume looks at travelling memories and cultural traumas from a gendered perspective: what happens when the recollections of women's traumatic experiences of Soviet history travel through time and space. As this volume argues, narratives by women who left the Soviet Union often call into question official accounts of Soviet history and rewrite them in a way that makes room for gendered lived experience.

THE MOONSTONE (A Mystery Novel) Wilkie Collins, 2017-12-06. The Moonstone is an epistolary novel generally considered the first detective novel in the English language. Besides creating many of the ground rules of the detective novel, The Moonstone also reflected Collins' enlightened social attitudes in his treatment of the servants in the novel. Rachel Verinder, a young English woman, inherits a large Indian diamond on her eighteenth birthday. It is a legacy from her uncle, a corrupt British army officer who served in India. The diamond is of great religious significance as well as being extremely valuable and three Hindu priests have dedicated their lives to recovering it. The story incorporates elements of the legendary origins of the Hope Diamond or perhaps the Orloff Diamond. Wilkie Collins (1824-1889) was an English novelist, playwright and author of short stories. His best known works are The Woman in White, No Name, Armadale and The Moonstone.

The first novel ever written about terrorism Dostoevsky's The Demons is also the most instructive for in it he addresses better than any writer before or since the two persistent riddles of terrorism why are terrorists so new to our civilization and how is it that they can kill others so easily in the name of a political idea As a first generation observer of terrorism Dostoevsky came to the conclusion that this new political movement was the product of modern culture politics and psychology He felt that modernity created a unique shame and humiliation that fueled terrorism The demons that he brings to life in this novel are not fire breathing monsters but gracious subtle cosmopolitan rational and scientific They are also murderers rapists arsonists and terrorists For Dostoevsky these demons were ultimately the product of cosmopolitan Paris for it was there that individuals first deified reason and thus abandoned the ancient sources of morality the ancient Gods By replacing the ancient with the modern gods of atheism science and liberalism modern societies have abandoned any sort of moral constraint that helped to keep violence and tyranny in check This created the new modern nihilistic world of terrorism If modern shame and humiliation are truly at the heart of modern terrorism twenty first century readers can gain a clearer insight into terrorist motivations through understanding Dostoevsky's work The Solution of the Fist Dostoevsky and the Roots of Modern Terrorism aims to aid in this process through an in depth analysis of his work and a careful explanation of the context in which nineteenth century readers would understand it      Confessions on the 7:45: A Novel Lisa Unger,2020-10-06
