Shankum Naggum Jonathan Williams, 1979 English Dialect Society, 1878 A Glossary of Words and Phrases Pertaining to the Dialect of Cumberland William Dickinson, 1880 A Glossary of Words and Phrases Pertaining to the Dialect of Cumberland. (Supplement.) William Dickinson (F.L.S.), 1878 A Glossary of the Words and Phrases of Cumberland William Dickinson, 1859 A Glossary of the Words and Phrases of Cumberland William DICKINSON (F.L.S.), 1859 A Son of Hagar Sir Hall Caine, 1899 A Son of Hagar Hall Caine, 1894 Publications English Dialect Society, 1878 The Postmoderns Donald Allen, George F. Butterick, 1982 This anthology includes many of the major poets to have emerged and gained pre eminence since World War II and whose writing reflects not only the significant changes in this nation s postwar history and the coming to grips with a nuclear age but also an entirely new way of looking at and structuring reality United by their postmodernist concerns with spontaneity instantism formal and syntactic flexibility and the revelation of both the creator and the process through the writing itself these 38 poets represent very diverse strains of an essential American individualism Included are many of the poets whose work first gained widespread national attention with the 1960 publication of The New American Poetry Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg Paul Blackburn LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Denise Levertov Robert Duncan and others Among the poets included here for the first time are Anne Waldman Diane di Prima Ed Sanders Jerome Rothenberg and James Koller In addition to a new preface by Allen and Butterick the book provides autobiographical notes of all the poets and listings of their major works The Selected Works of Sir Hall Caine Sir Hall Caine, Old Deemster Christian of Ballawhaine was a hard man hard on the outside at all events They called him Iron Christian and people said Don t turn that iron hand against you Yet his character was stamped with nobleness as well as strength He was not a man of icy nature but he loved to gather icicles about him There was fire enough underneath at which he warmed his old heart when alone but he liked the air to be congealed about his face He was a man of a closed soul One had to wrench open the dark chamber where he kept his feelings but the man who had done that had uncovered his nakedness and he cut him off for ever That was how it happened with his son the father of Philip He had two sons the elder was an impetuous creature a fiery spirit one of the masterful souls who want the restraint of the curb if they are not to hurry headlong into the abyss Old Deemster Christian had called this boy Thomas Wilson after the serene saint who had once been Bishop of Man He was intended however for the law not for the Church The office of Deemster never has been and never can be hereditary yet the Christians of Ballawhaine had been Deemsters through six generations and old Iron Christian expected that Thomas Wilson Christian would succeed him But there was enough uncertainty about the succession to make merit of more value than precedent in the selection and so the old man had brought up his son to the English bar and afterwards called him to practise in the Manx one The young fellow had not altogether rewarded his father s endeavours During his residence in England he had acquired certain modern doctrines which were highly obnoxious to the old Deemster New views on property new ideas about woman and marriage new theories concerning religion always re christened superstition the usual barnacles of young vessels fresh from unknown waters but the old man was no shipwright in harbour who has learnt the art of removing them without injury to the hull The Deemster knew these notions when he met with them in the English newspapers There was something awesome in their effect on his stay at home imagination as of vices confusing and difficult to true men that walk steadily but above all very far off over the mountains and across the sea like distant cities of Sodom only waiting for Sodom s doom And yet lo here they were in a twinkling shunted and shot into his own house and his own stackyard
