

HOW TEACHERS MAKE A DIFFERENCE

The future of America depends on our teachers. By educating the next generation, teachers in our country are shaping tomorrow's politicians, business leaders, artists, scientists, and doctors.

Teachers work an average of 50 hours per week, including 12 hours per week on activities they don't get paid for, like grading papers and advising student clubs.

of K-12 public school teachers were women as of 2011.

56%

of K-12 public school teachers had at least a Master's degree as of 2011.

Make A Difference Be A Teacher:

Teachers DO Make a Difference Judith A. Deiro, 2005 Acknowledging that teachers make a difference not only to what students learn about content but what they learn about life this volume offers discussion of topics including setting high expectations for students conveying confidence creating classroom rituals traditions much more Making a Difference

Teachers DO Make a Difference Judith A. Deiro, 2004-10-05 Teachers make a difference not only in what their students learn about content but in what they learn about life Closing the achievement gap and creating high performing schools depends not on what we teach but how we teach The most powerful and effective way teachers can help students overcome negative influences in their environment as well as succeed in becoming their best selves is by developing close and caring connections with them Developing quality relationships with students is key to their healthy development Teachers DO Make a Difference gives teachers strategies guidelines and real life examples of how to build and enrich close and trusting teacher student relationships This important new resource covers key topics including Setting high expectations for students Conveying confidence in student capabilities Creating classroom rituals and traditions Networking with family and community Developing strong interpersonal skills Identifying relational resources Communicating appropriate caring and respect in the classroom Healthy connections with teachers are associated with a decrease in behavioral problems and an increase in social and academic skills The relationships we develop with our students are at the heart of how we make a difference Do Teachers Make a Difference? United States. Bureau of Educational Personnel Development, 1970 This collection of essays concerning recent research on pupil achievement focuses on the role of teachers The papers served as the basis of discussions during a day long conference in February 1970 at the Office of Education Topics included models of school effectiveness teacher quality teacher attitudes and policy implications While the state of research on the effects of teachers on pupil achievement is considered still primitive a few tentative indicators are held to be emerging From the papers in this collection one is led to believe that schools can and do make a difference in the development of youth Beyond this it is thought that teachers are the single most important element in the school The public policy implication is that more available resources must be devoted to the development of methods for recruiting preparing and utilizing quality educational personnel It is held that the fact that great numbers of children are not learning to read and are not receiving other basic tools essential for productive living demands that ways to make teachers administrators and all educational personnel more effective be found Listen Up, Teacher CornerStone Leadership Institute, Shirley Garcia, David Cottrell, 2002-06-01

Making a Difference: Volume I and II Sasha A. Barab, Kenneth E. Hay, Nancy Butler Songer, Daniel T. Hickey, 2017-09-05 William Wordsworth 1770 1850 needs little introduction as the central figure in Romantic poetry and a crucial influence in the development of poetry generally This broad ranging survey redefines the variety of his writing by showing how it incorporates contemporary concepts of language difference and the ways in which popular and serious literature were compared and distinguished during this period It discusses many of Wordsworth s later poems comparing his work with that of his regional contemporaries as well as major writers such as Scott The key theme of relationship both between characters within poems and between poet and reader is explored through Wordsworth s construction of community and his use of power relationships A serious discussion of the place of sexual feeling in his writing is also included

Why I Teach Esther Wright, M.A.,2011-08-10 A Celebration of the Power of Teaching There is a moment for most teachers when the lure of working with kids surpasses all logic You know you just know that you are meant to teach But in the day to day crush of details and bus duty politics and paperwork or kids without their homework for the eighth day in a row life can erode passion and distract you from your sense of purpose This collection of stories from teachers everywhere will remind you of those magic moments when a light goes on in the eyes of a child when resistance breaks when hearts connect moments that make the challenges of teaching worth every second and remind you of why you are here in the first place
