Appropriations for 1993 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies,1992 Making Choices about Conflict, Security, and Peacemaking Carol Miller Lieber,University of Missouri--St. Louis. Center for International Studies,1991 UN Mediators in Syria Fadi Nicholas Nassar,2024-05-31 Since 2011 the conflict in Syria has been one of the most catastrophic conflicts of our time and a dark stain on the peacemaking abilities of the United Nations UN At the heart of this book is a simple but critical question what do UN mediators tasked with the responsibility to make peace actually do By explaining this the book offers a detailed record of what Kofi Annan Lakhdar Brahimi and Staffan de Mistura did in their roles as UN mediators in Syria and presents a comprehensive analysis of the dynamics that shaped their decision making Beyond the cases of these three mediators Fadi Nicholas Nassar introduces a method by which to forensically identify a mediator s fingerprints on the peacemaking process and charts a map to examine their decision making processes In doing so it paves the way to evaluate the performance of these mediators to hold them accountable for their successes and failures Just Security in an Undergoverned World William J. Durch,Joris Larik,Richard Ponzio,2018 Just Security in an Undergoverned World examines how humankind can manage global problems to achieve both security and justice in an age of antithesis Global connectivity is increasing visibly and invisibly in trade finance culture and information helping to spur economic growth technological advance and greater understanding and freedom but global disconnects are growing as well Ubiquitous electronics rely on high value minerals scraped from the earth by miners kept poor by corruption and war People abandon burning states for the often indifferent welcome of wealthier lands whose people in turn draw into themselves Humanity s very success underwritten in large part by lighting up gigatons of long buried carbon for 200 years now threatens humanity s future The global governance institutions established after World War Two to manage global threats especially the twin scourges of war and poverty have expanded in reach and impact while paradoxically losing the political support of their wealthiest and most powerful members Their problems mimic those of their members in struggling to adapt to new problems and maintain trust in institutions This volume argues however that a properly mandated managed and modernized global architecture offers unparalleled potential to midwife solutions to vexing issues that transcend borders and capacities of individual actors from conflict and climate change to poverty and pandemic disease The volume offers just security as a new framework for evaluating innovative solutions and strategies for institutional reform Encyclopedia of Associations V1 National Org 46 Pt2 ,2008-04 Regionalism, Security and Development in Africa Ernest Tooche Aniche,Ikenna Mike Alumona,Inocent Moyo,2021-04-29 This book charts the history and contemporary landscape of African regionalism investigating how regional cooperation can be used to help to tackle security and development challenges in Africa Africa has a long tradition of regional cooperation with the oldest trade and monetary integration schemes in the developing world but its colonial period and partition of have caused lasting damage that still be seen in today s African economies Contemporary post colonial African regionalism deeply rooted in notions of pan Africanism has served as a means of collective self reliance and economic transformation and development This book starts with the history and theory behind African regionalism before discussing and comparing regional organisations such as the Economic Community of Central African States ECCAS the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS the Community of Sahel Saharan States CEN SAD Southern African Development Community SADC the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA and the East African Community EAC Finally the book considers how regional integration and cooperation can help to address security and development challenges This ambitious and broad ranging book will be a valuable resource for researchers working on African regionalism security African integration and development and comparative regionalism Policymakers should also consider it a useful guide to the background and contemporary landscape of African regionalism Routledge Handbook of Peacebuilding and Ethnic Conflict Jessica Senehi, Imani Michelle Scott, Sean Byrne, Thomas G. Matyók, 2022-08-22 This handbook offers a comprehensive analysis of peacebuilding in ethnic conflicts with attention to theory peacebuilder roles making sense of the past and shaping the future as well as case studies and approaches Comprising 28 chapters that present key insights on peacebuilding in ethnic conflicts the volume has implications for teaching and training as well as for practice and policy The handbook is divided into four thematic parts Part 1 focuses on critical dimensions of ethnic conflicts including root causes gender external involvements emancipatory peacebuilding hatred as a public health issue environmental issues American nationalism and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic Part 2 focuses on peacebuilders roles including Indigenous peacemaking nonviolent accompaniment peace leadership in the military interreligious peacebuilders local women and young people Part 3 addresses the past and shaping of the future including a discussion of public memory heritage rights and monuments refugees trauma and memory aggregated trauma in the African American community exhumations after genocide and a healing centered approach to conflict Part 4 presents case studies on Sri Lanka s postwar reconciliation process peacebuilding in Mindanao the transformative peace negotiation in Aceh and Bougainville external economic aid for peacebuilding in Northern Ireland Indigenous and local peacemaking and a continuum of peacebuilding focal points The handbook offers perspectives on the breadth and significance of peacebuilding work in ethnic conflicts throughout the world This volume will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding ethnic conflict security studies and international relations

Conflicts, Pandemics and Peacebuilding Andrea Cellino, Annalisa Perteghella, 2021-01-18 The Covid 19 pandemic is not only a health challenge In the MENA region against the backdrop of protracted conflicts instability and an overall deterioration in socio economic conditions the coronavirus crisis adds another layer of vulnerability and has already had long lasting repercussions on human security across the region Moreover as hybrid actors take on an important role as security providers amid the pandemic in a context of limited or absent oversight risks associated to a lack of accountability ethno religious discrimination human rights abuses and gender based violence grow While classical approaches to security provision tend to portray non state actors and the State as inherently at odds the complexity of a rapidly evolving security landscape throughout the region should trigger a revision of the very concept of effective governance Against this backdrop how should Security Sector Reform SSR strategies and programmes adapt What lessons can be drawn from selected case studies such as Iraq Libya and Yemen
