Making Disability:

Making Disability Paul C. Higgins, 1992 Making Disability Modern Bess Williamson, Elizabeth Guffey, 2020-07-23
Making Disability Modern Design Histories brings together leading scholars from a range of disciplinary and national perspectives to examine how designed objects and spaces contribute to the meanings of ability and disability from the late 18th century to the present day and in homes offices and schools to realms of national and international politics The contributors reveal the social role of objects particularly those designed for use by people with disabilities such as walking sticks wheelchairs and prosthetic limbs and consider the active role that makers users and designers take to reshape the material environment into a usable world But it also aims to make clear that definitions of disability and ability are often shaped by design Making Disability Rights Real in Southeast Asia Derrick L. Cogburn, Tina Kempin Reuter, 2017-03-21 This book evaluates the national implementation of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD in ASEAN Working with country specific research teams the contributors compiled detailed case studies of CRPD implementation in each country in ASEAN This book presents a detailed overview of the problem the relevant literature and the conceptual framework and then it explores the implementation of the CRPD in each of the ten countries in Southeast Asia Details include the factors that influenced each country to ratify the CRPD the focal point structure of implementation the independent mechanism established to monitor the implementation and the civil society organizations involved This book also evaluates the implications of CRPD implementation for human rights and development in ASEAN including the degree of institutionalized support for persons with disabilities the development objectives of the CRPD against the strategic objectives of the ASEAN economic community and the broader ASEAN community and the way these developments compare with those in other countries and regions Working with country specific research teams the editors compiled detailed case studies of CRPD implementation on each country in ASEAN This book presents a detailed overview of the problem and the relevant literature The contributors also offer conclusions on the research and national and ASEAN level recommendations for moving forward Disability and Social Theory D. Goodley, B. Hughes, L. Davis, 2012-06-01 This comprehensive interdisciplinary collection examines disability from a theoretical perspective challenging views of disability that dominate mainstream thinking Throughout social theories of disability intersect with ideas associated with sex gender race ethnicity class and nation Making and Unmaking Disability Julie E. Maybee, 2019-09-16 If the future is accessible as Alisa Grishman one of 55 million Americans categorized as having a disability writes in this book's cover image then we must stop making or constructing people as disabled and impaired In this brave new theoretical approach to human physicality Julie E. Maybee traces societal constructions of disability and impairment through Western history along three dimensions of embodiment the personal body the interpersonal body and the institutional body Each dimension has played a part in defining people as disabled and impaired in terms of employment healthcare education and social and political roles Because impairment and disability have been constructed along all three of these bodies unmaking disability and making the future accessible will require restructuring Western institutions including capitalism changing how social roles are assigned and transforming our deepest beliefs about impairment and disability to reconstruct people as capable Ultimately Maybee suggests unmaking disability will require remaking our world

Disability, Space, Architecture: A Reader Jos Boys, 2017-02-17 Disability Space Architecture A Reader takes a groundbreaking approach to exploring the interconnections between disability architecture and cities The contributions come from architecture geography anthropology health studies English language and literature rhetoric and composition art history disability studies and disability arts and cover personal theoretical and innovative ideas and work Richer approaches to disability beyond regulation and design guidance remain fragmented and difficult to find for architectural and built environment students educators and professionals By bringing together in one place some seminal texts and projects as well as newly commissioned writings readers can engage with disability in unexpected and exciting ways that can vibrantly inform their understandings of architecture and urban design Most crucially Disability Space Architecture A Reader opens up not just disability but also ability dis ability as a means of refusing the normalisation of only particular kinds of bodies in the design of built space It reveals how our everyday social attitudes and practices about people objects and spaces can be better understood through the lens of disability and it suggests how thinking differently about dis ability can enable innovative and new kinds of critical and creative architectural and urban design education and practice

Handbook of Reading

Disability Research Anne McGill-Franzen, Richard Allington, 2010-09-17 Bringing together a wide range of research on reading disabilities this comprehensive Handbook extends current discussion and thinking beyond a narrowly defined psychometric perspective Emphasizing that learning to read proficiently is a long term developmental process involving many interventions of various kinds all keyed to individual developmental needs it addresses traditional questions What is the nature or causes of reading disabilities How are reading disabilities assessed How should reading disabilities be remediated To what extent is remediation possible but from multiple or alternative perspectives Taking incursions into the broader research literature represented by linguistic and anthropological paradigms as well as psychological and educational research the volume is on the front line in exploring the relation of reading disability to learning and language to poverty and prejudice and to instruction and schooling The editors and authors are distinguished scholars with extensive research experience and publication records and numerous honors and awards from professional organizations representing the range of disciplines in the field of reading disabilities Throughout their contributions are contextualized within the framework of educators struggling to develop concrete instructional practices that meet the learning needs of the lowest achieving readers

Brunson, 2022-02-23 Given basic commitments to philosophize from lived experience and a shared underlying meliorist impulse American philosophical traditions seem well suited to develop nascent philosophical engagement with disability studies To date however there have been few efforts to facilitate research at the intersections of American philosophy and disability studies This volume of essays seeks to offer some directions for propelling this inquiry Scholars working in pragmatist and other American traditions consider intersections between American philosophy and work in disability studies Consisting of three broader sections one set of essays considers how American philosophies from contemporary Mexican philosophy to classical American pragmatism inform descriptions of disability and efforts at liberation The next offer accounts of how American philosophies disclose alternative conceptions of epistemic and ethical issues surrounding disability Finally a section considers living issues of disability including essays on parenting immigration policy and art education Throughout these works provide direction and orientation for further investigation at the intersection of American philosophies and disability studies Critical Readings in Interdisciplinary Disability Studies Linda Ware,2020-03-13 This edited volume includes chapters on disability studies organized around three themes Theory Philosophy and Critique Informed by a range of scholars who may or may not fashion their work beneath the banner of disability studies in explicit terms it draws connections across a range of identities knowledges histories and struggles that may on the face of the text seem unrelated The chapters are cross categorical and interdisciplinary for purposes of complicating disability studies across international contexts and multiple locations that consider practice oriented and intersectional approaches for analysis and advocacy This integrative approach heralds more powerful ways to imagine disability and the conversation on disability Judicial Review of Veteran's Claims United States.
