Letter

Making It On Our Own:

To Make this Land Our Own Arlin C. Migliazzo, 2007 A case study in the social history of frontier town building set in the swamps of South Carolina On the banks of the lower Savannah River the military objectives of South Carolina officials the ambitions of Swiss entrepreneur Jean Pierre Purry and the dreams of Protestants from Switzerland France Germany Italy and England converged in a planned settlement named Purrysburg This examination of the first South Carolina township in Governor Robert Johnson's strategic plan to populate and defend the colonial backcountry offers the clearest picture to date of the settlement of the colony's Southern frontier by ethnically diverse and contractually obligated immigrants Arlin C Migliazzo contends that the story of Purrysburg Township founded in 1732 and set in the forbidding environment bounded by the Savannah River and the Coosawhatchie swamps challenges the notion that white colonists shed their ethnic distinctions to become a monolithic culture He views Purrysburg as a laboratory in which to observe ethnic phenomena in the colonial and antebellum South Separated by linguistic religious and cultural barriers the migrants adapted familiar social processes from their homelands to create a workable sense of community and identity His work is one of only a handful of examples of what has been deemed the new social history methodology as applied to a South Carolina subject Initially devastated by privation and a high mortality rate Purrysburg residents also suffered the vicissitudes of an indifferent provincial elite the encroachment of lowcountry rice planters Prevost's invasion in 1779 and ultimate destruction of the settlement by Sherman's army Migliazzo details the community's changing military and economic fortunes the gradual displacement of its residents to neighboring communities the role of African Americans in the region the complex religious life of township settlers and the quirky contributions of Purry's climatological speculations to the fateful siting of this first township

How to Make Our Own News John Maxwell, 2000 A must read for community activists who've ever wondered how to get their stories in the media How to Make Our Own News will also be a useful resource for journalists who cover environmental issues The author is a veteran journalist who also has long been directly engaged in work on behalf of the environment and he has written a cogent how to on reaching audiences developing story ideas conducting successful interviews and writing stories that will be accepted by news editors The work includes appendixes that summarise Agenda 21 the principles of sustainable development that resulted from the 1992 Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro

We Make Our Own History Laurence Cox, Alf Gunvald Nilsen, 2014-08-20 We live in the twilight of neoliberalism the ruling classes can no longer rule as before and ordinary people are no longer willing to be ruled in the old way Pursued by global elites since the 1970s neoliberalism is defined by dispossession and ever increasing inequality The refusal to continue to be ruled like this ya basta appears in an arc of resistance stretching from rural India to the cities of the global North From this network of movements new visions are emerging of a future beyond neoliberalism We Make Our Own History responds to these visions by reclaiming Marxism as a theory born from activist experience and practice This book marks a break both with established social movement theory and with those forms of Marxism which treat the practice of social movement organising as an unproblematic process It shows how movements can develop from local conflicts to global struggles how neoliberalism operates as a social movement from above and how popular struggles can create new worlds from below Out Here on Our Own J. J. Anselmi, 2022-10 J J Anselmi's Out Here on Our Own tells the story of Rock Springs Wyoming Make Your Own Job Erik Baker, 2025-01-14 Make Your Own Job charts the transformation of the American work ethic in the twentieth century It is no longer enough to be reliable now workers must lead with creative vision Erik Baker argues that the entrepreneurial ethic has been a Band Aid for a society in which ever mounting precarity discredits the old ethics of effort and persistence Making Sense of God Timothy Keller, 2016-09-20 We live in an age of skepticism Our society places such faith in empirical reason historical progress and heartfelt emotion that it's easy to wonder Why should anyone believe in Christianity What role can faith and religion play in our modern lives In this thoughtful and inspiring new book pastor and New York Times bestselling author Timothy Keller invites skeptics to consider that Christianity is more relevant now than ever As human beings we cannot live without meaning satisfaction freedom identity justice and hope Christianity provides us with unsurpassed resources to meet these needs Written for both the ardent believer and the skeptic Making Sense of God shines a light on the profound value and importance of Christianity in our lives Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, 1826 The Holiday from Hell Carole and David McEntee-Taylor, 2011-11-19 The Adventure holiday of A lifetime It had been billed as the holiday of a lifetime A destination with everything a holiday maker could possibly want There were towns and cities where they could shop until they dropped and beaches clubs and nightlife with all kinds of exotic food and drink and anything else they might feel like trying There were desserts that stretched into infinity mountains that scaled incredible heights and seas that could challenge even the most jaded pallet For those of a quieter persuasion there was an abundance of gently rolling countryside in which to relax So just where did it all go wrong Just when was it that their dream holiday turned into the Holiday from Hell For many people on our planet this could be said to be an apt description of their journey through life From the pain of individual relationships to the devastation of natural disasters and wars it's no wonder we sometimes question the reasons we are here The Holiday from Hell describes our spiritual journey from the beginning of our holiday on the earth plane to the end of our time in this physical body It argues that if we change our perceptions of why we are here and begin to understand the origins of some of our political and religious conflicts we can at last begin to enjoy our lives Altruism Matthieu Ricard, 2015-06-02 The author of the international bestseller Happiness makes a passionate case for altruism and why we need it now more than ever In Happiness Matthieu Ricard demonstrated that true happiness is not tied to fleeting moments or sensations but is an enduring state of soul rooted in mindfulness and compassion for others Now he turns his lens from the personal to the global with a rousing argument that altruism genuine concern for the well being of others could be the saving grace of the 21st century It is he believes the vital thread that can answer the main challenges of our time the economy in the short term life satisfaction in the mid term and environment in the long term Ricard s message has been taken up by major economists and thinkers including Dennis Snower Amartya Sen Joseph Stiglitz and George Soros Matthieu Ricard makes a robust and passionate case for cultivating altruistic love and compassion as the best means for simultaneously benefitting ourselves and our society It s a fresh outlook on an ardent struggle and one that just might make the world a better place The Works of Hannah More Hannah More,1848 The Jael Finishing School for Ladies Jaime Hope McArdle,2021-10-06 Inspired by the story of Jael and Deborah in the book of Judges Jaime Hope McArdle shares her personal journey to a life of purpose and freedom through finding identity as a daughter of the Creator King She takes on the old stories and passages of the Bible with fresh eyes asking how they impact her life today and challenges her readers to consider becoming freedom fighters beginning in their own lives and then becoming a force for transformation in the world around them With chapters titled A Danger to the Gates of Hell and Freedom Fighter Jaime uncovers the spiritual battle raging under the surface in the world around us and challenges women to reconsider what being in prison looks like and to find the courage to try the door because it cannot be locked In The Healing and Daughter of a King she walks through revelation of a true identity that is the right of every woman who will Choose This Day This new identity defies the cultural norms for women with The Greatest Love of All and calls women to see their power is not in becoming more like men or in manipulation through sexuality She encourages the power to change the Operating Systems that directs everyday life and challenges to accept a new Assignment to see life as a daily adventure to bringing love forgiveness grace and freedom to a world growing darker each year Finally the assurance of Getting It Wrong to know the promise that God will have his way And as we attempt to follow his call on our life we can make mistakes and learn In our triumphs and failures his grace brings all things together for our good We can walk confidently through difficult seasons knowing who we are and whose we are www.jaelfinishingschool.com A Letter to a Member of Parliament, Occasioned, by the Growing Poverty of the Nation, from the Want and Decay of Trade, and Wrong Management Thereof Letter,1700 In Our Own Words Robert G.
