Accessing the Scriptures John Pennington, 2017-04-07 John Pennington is a retired Oklahoma music educator. Performing as a professional musician, he was a member of the Oklahoma City Symphony and the Oklahoma City Lyric Theater Orchestra. Following his teaching years, he owned and operated retail music stores in New Mexico. Retiring a second time, John became active in the Community Bible Study Chapter in Albuquerque, where he and his wife Mary chaired a couples class. He served as an assistant teaching director for the Community Bible Study in Murrieta, California. Relocating to North Texas in 2005, the couple established residential Bible study groups in two HOA communities, which continue to the present. John began writing Bible studies upon relocating in North Texas. His studies generally avoid topical subjects, focusing more on front-to-back studies of each book of the Bible. The simplicity of the studies is instrumental in ensuring attendees to return year after year. While in California, John became involved with choral music and served as conductor of the Colony Chorale in Murrieta, California. He has served as a church choir director in McKinney, Texas, and is currently an active member of the Stonebriar Community Church Sanctuary Choir of Frisco, Texas. The Front Line of the Sunday School Movement Francis Nathan Peloubet, 1904

The Day Before We Became Rich Debbi Dougherty, 2017-12-08 The Day before We Became Rich answers the questions that shaped the spiritual struggle facing Deborah Dougherty and Kevin, her husband. For several years, they had asked God the questions on the lips of many other Christians: When will our prosperity break? Come, God, when will we be rich? You hold in your hand the answers, God gave the answers. He chose to reveal. In this collection of blog-like reflections, you are invited to join the author on a journey shaped by honesty, guided by conversation and alive with hope and expectation. The entries, used as a kind of guide, offer short, embraceable reflections that draw upon the author's experience and the wisdom of the Scriptures. The Record, 1884 The Lost Art of Disciple Making LeRoy Eims, 2009-07-13 Every believer in Jesus Christ deserves the opportunity of personal nurture and development, says LeRoy Eims. But all too often, the opportunity isn't there. We neglect the young Christian in our whirl of programs, church services, and fellowship groups. And we neglect to raise up workers and leaders who can disciple young believers into mature and fruitful Christians. In simple, practical, and biblical terms, LeRoy Eims revives the lost art of disciple making. He explains how the early church disciplined new Christians, how to meet the basic needs of a growing Christian, how to spot and train potential workers, how to develop mature, godly leaders. True growth takes time and tears and love and patience. Eims states, "There is no instant maturity." This book examines the growth process in the life of a Christian and considers what nurture and guidance it takes to develop spiritually qualified workers in the church. Training for Evangelism Richard Sisson, 2005-05-04 Complete, practical, inspiring, this is Training for Evangelism.
