Making Of A Gay Asian Community An Oral History Of Pre Aids Los Angeles:

The Making of a Gay Asian Community Eric C. Wat, 2002 In this unique oral history gay Asian Americans talk frankly about their struggle for self determination and independence Despite its size until recently the gay Asian American community in Los Angeles was fragmented and marginalized as gay Asian men separated into their own ethnic cliques and preferred whites as sexual partners Using a cultural studies lens to interpret the rich oral narratives he collected Eric C Wat shows how a dominant sexual ideology can influence our desires and contradict our memories By documenting the founding of the first gay Asian organization in Southern California Asian Pacific Lesbians and Gays A PLG Wat powerfully portrays the ways gay Asian men confronted these contradictions publicly and struggled to fashion a coherent identity and community based on both their race and sexuality His analysis returns gay Asian men to the center of their lives and celebrates the power of individuals working collectively to define their desires and combat injustice

Federation of Teachers in New York Los Angeles and Northern California Rainbow Theology Patrick S. Cheng, 2013-04 To date no book has systematically examined the theological writings of LGBT people of color Nor has any book explored how such writings might actually transform contemporary theological reflections on race and sexuality This book remedies these gaps by constructing a rainbow theology around the theme of bridging or mediation Rainbow Theology is the first book to reflect upon the theological significance of the intersections of race and queer sexuality across multiple ethnic and cultural groups This is particularly important in light of the current polarizing debates over issues of race sexuality and religion within churches and communities of faith around the world Queer Women and Religious Individualism Melissa M. Wilcox, 2009 Melissa M Wilcox explores the complex spiritual lives of queer women in the Los Angeles area She takes the reader on a tour of a colorful array of religious and secular groups that serve as spiritual resources for these women from the well known Metropolitan Community Churches to Wiccan covens from the Gay and Lesbian Sierrans to the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence Arguing that these women s stories are exemplary cases of postmodern patterns of religious identity belief and practice Wilcox offers a nuanced analysis of contemporary Western spirituality and selfhood and a detailed exploration of the history of queer religious organizing in Los Angeles Queer Women and Religious Individualism is important reading for scholars in religious studies sociology women s studies and LGBT studies Journal of Asian American Studies , 2008 Official publication of the Association for Asian American Studies explores all aspects of the Asian American experience Publishes original works of scholarly interest to the field including new theoretical developments research results methodological innovations public policy concerns pedagogical issues and book media reviews Journal of the History of Sexuality , 2003 A Part of Our Liberation John Dennett Master, 2006 Lgbt, Encyclopedia of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender History in America: Actors to gyms Marc Stein, 2004 Online version of the 3 vol work published by Gale providing a comprehensive survey of lesbian and gay history and culture in the United States Gay and Lesbian Rights in the United States Walter L.
