Making An Exhibition Of Myself:

, Making an Exhibition of Myself Sir Peter Hall, 2000 An Ethnographic Inventory Tomás Sánchez Criado, Adolfo Estalella, 2023-05-09 This book provides an inventory of modes of inquiry for ethnographic research and presents fieldwork as an act of relational invention It advances contemporary debates in ethnography by arguing that the empirical practice of anthropology is and has always been an inventive activity Bringing together contributions from scholars across the world the volume offers an expansive vision of the resourcefulness that anthropologists unfold in their empirical investigations by compiling inventive social and material techniques or field devices for anthropological inquiry The chapters seek to inspire both novel and experienced practitioners of ethnography to venture into the many possibilities of fieldwork to demonstrate the essential creative and inventive practices neglected in traditional accounts of ethnography and to invite anthropologists to confidently engage in inventive fieldwork practices Science John Michels (Journalist), 1889 Since Jan 1901 the official proceedings and most of the papers of the American Association for the Advancement of Science have been included in Science Make Me Rejoice Too Soon Shen JingXiXi, 2020-04-10 On the day that Gu Ning examined the cancer her husband showed up at the hospital with his sister forcing her to transplant her bone marrow She lay on the operating table enduring the pain of losing a child with her red eyes Looking at the distant cold man her heart gradually became cold and resolute Lu Yanzhi if there s still a next life I just hope that I don t run into you Her life was short She met him fell in love with him and married him His life however was very long Without her the years would be very long Interdisciplinary Exhibitions and the Production of Knowledge Henriette Pleiger, 2024-11-22 How can exhibitions not only stage existing knowledge but also raise questions that lead to new research This question has become ever more relevant due to the museum sector s growing interest in the development of thematic exhibitions that combine narratives and objects from art science cultural history and everyday life Using theories from interdisciplinarity studies Henriette Pleiger identifies different ways of producing knowledge during the exhibition making process as well as the mechanisms that are necessary for an exhibition to be considered interdisciplinary The development of such exhibitions can be understood as collaborative research processes

Exhibition Experiments Sharon Macdonald, Paul Basu, 2008-04-30 Exhibition Experiments is a lively collection that considers experiments with museological form that challenge our understanding of and experience with museums Explores examples of museum experimentalism in light of cutting edge museum theory Draws on a range of global and topical examples including museum experimentation exhibitionary forms the fate of conventional notions of object and representation and the impact of these changes Brings together an international group of art historians anthropologists and sociologists to question traditional disciplinary boundaries Considers the impact of technology on the museum space tackles a range of examples of experimentalism from many different countries including Australia Austria Germany Israel Luxembourg Sweden the UK and the US Examines the changes and challenging new possibilities facing museum studies

Prioritizing People in Ethical Decision-Making and Caring for Cultural Heritage Collections Nina

Owczarek, 2023-06-27 While historically focusing on the object the study of ethics in conservation has expanded to consider the human aspect of conservation work This book offers a flexible framework to guide decision making in line with this development offering an inclusive compassionate approach to collections care This edited volume contributes theories and international examples for advancing conservation practice and providing best practice for the field that centers people in conservation of cultural heritage and collections care The first part examines the ethical theory that underpins conservation decision making by challenging outdated norms introducing updated methods and demonstrating new ways to approach compassionate collections care The second part considers the challenges of human centered ethics in conservation practice while the final part provides real world examples and case studies of these best practices in action including successful challenges to colonial authority By presenting both theoretical and practical aspects of prioritizing people this volume establishes the need for rethinking conservation approaches while demonstrating how to do so effectively Combining theory and practice Prioritizing People in Ethical Decision Making and Caring for Cultural Heritage Collections is valuable reading for conservation professionals including collections managers conservators curators and registrars It will also benefit students working in Cultural Heritage Conservation Museum studies and Heritage Studies as well as those taking courses in Art History and Anthropology

, 1890 Behind the Scenes at the Science Museum Sharon Macdonald, 2020-05-21 What goes on behind closed doors at museums How are decisions about exhibitions made and who or what really makes them Why are certain objects and styles of display chosen whilst others are rejected and what factors influence how museum exhibitions are produced and experienced This book answers these searching questions by giving a privileged look behind the scenes at the Science Museum in London By tracking the history of a particular exhibition Macdonald takes the reader into the world of the museum curator and shows in vivid detail how exhibitions are created and how public culture is produced She reveals why exhibitions do not always reflect their makers original intentions and why visitors take home particular interpretations Beyond this local context however the book also provides broad and far reaching insights into how national and global political shifts influence the creation of public knowledge through exhibitions *The Photographic news, ed. by W.
