Making Bodies, Making History Leslie A. Adelson, 1993-01-01 In West German literature in the 1970s and 1980s bodies functioned not as victims of history nor as allegories for the nation but as sites of contested identities Focusing on conflicts about identity in present day Germany and on literary texts in which the body is an aesthetic construct Leslie A Adelson reformulates questions of embodiment and historical agency questions that continue to haunt culture studies in general and German studies and women s studies in particular This interdisciplinary study of history race gender and nationality offers rich readings of three contemporary prose texts that challenge the suppositions of prevalent literary theory Anne Duden s bergang TORKAN s Tufan Brief an einen islamischen Bruder and Jeanette Lander s Ein Sommer in der Woche der Itke K Adelson s discussion of heterogeneous identities in contemporary German culture boldly explores accountability and innovation in historical process Body and Narrative in Contemporary Literatures in German Lyn Marven, 2005-05-26 This book compares three contemporary women writing in German Herta Muller from Romania Libuse Monikova from Czechoslovakia and Kerstin Hensel from the GDR It looks at images of the body and their relationship to the structures of their writing as well as analysing the social cultural and political contexts A History of Women's Writing in Germany, Austria and Switzerland Jo Catling, 2000-03-23 This volume makes the wide ranging work of German women writers visible to a wider audience It is the first work in English to provide a chronological introduction to and overview of women s writing in German speaking countries from the Middle Ages to the present day Extensive guides to further reading and a bibliographical guide to the work of more than 400 women writers form an integral part of the volume which will be indispensable for students and scholars of German literature and all those interested in women s and gender studies The Feminist Encyclopedia of German Literature Friederike Eigler, Susanne Kord, 1997-02-28 Today a multiplicity of feminist approaches has become an integral part of the fields of German literary and cultural studies This comprehensive reference provides a much needed synthesis of the contribution women have made to German literature and culture In entries for more than 500 topics the volume surveys literary periods epochs and genres critical approaches and theories important authors and works female stereotypes laws and historical developments literary concepts and themes and organizations and archives relevant to women and women s studies Each entry offers a concise identification of the term a discussion of its significance and a bibliography of works for further reading Today a multiplicity of feminist approaches has become an integral part of the fields of German literary and cultural studies While biographical works on women writers exist this is the first reference to synthesize the wealth of feminist scholarship in German studies While existing reference works focus exclusively on women authors this volume contains numerous topical entries and covers the role of women in German literature and culture from the Middle Ages to the present day Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 500 topics While some entries are provided for important women writers and other individuals the bulk of the volume provides information on

European-Jewish Literature Laurel Plapp, 2007-12-12 Zionism and Revolution in European Jewish Literature examines twentieth century Jewish writing that challenges imperialist ventures and calls for solidarity with the colonized most notably the Arabs of Palestine and Africans in the Americas Since Edward Said defined orientalism in 1978 as a Western image of the Islamic world that has justified domination critics have considered the Jewish people to be complicit with orientalism because of the Zionist movement However the Jews of Europe have themselves been caught between East and West both marginalized as the Orientals of Europe and connected to the Middle East through their own political and cultural ties As a result European Jewish writers have had to negotiate the problematic confluence of antisemitic and orientalist discourse Laurel Plapp traces this trend in utopic visions of Jewish Muslim relations that criticized the early Zionist movement in post Holocaust depictions of coalition between Jews and African slaves in the Caribbean revolutions and finally in explorations of diasporic transnational Jewish identity after the founding of Israel Above all Plapp proposes that Jewish studies and postcolonial studies have much in common by identifying ways in which Jewish writers have allied themselves with colonized and exilic peoples throughout the world The Text is Myself Miriam Fuchs, 2004 German Jewish novelist Grete Weil fled to Holland but her husband was arrested there and murdered by the Nazis Chilean novelist Isabel Allende fled her country after her uncle Salvador Allende was assassinated and she later lost her daughter to disease

Postcommunism and the Body Politic Ellen E. Berry, 1995-07 The epidemic of mass rape in the former Yugoslavia has illustrated once again and in particularly brutal fashion the inextricable relationship between national politics sexual politics and body politics The nexus of these three forces is highly charged in any culture at any time in history but especially so among cultures in which rapid even cataclysmic changes in material realities and national self conceptions are eroding or overwhelming previously secure boundaries The postcommunist moment in the so called Second World Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union has dramatically exposed the opportunities and dangers that arise when the political cultural and economic foundations of a society are de and then re structured Gender roles and relations expressions of sexuality or attempts to recontain them representations of the body especially the female body and the larger cultural meanings it assumes are particularly marked sites to witness the performance of complex national dramas of crisis and change This groundbreaking volume turns its attention to the Second World specifically to such subjects as the birth of the sex media and porn industry in Russia Russian women and alcoholism cinema in post communist Hungary patriotism and gender in Poland sexual dissidence in Eastern Europe and women in the former Yugoslavia go to the Genders website

Women and Modernity in Weimar Germany Vibeke Rützou Petersen, 2001-06 This book focuses on the popular fiction of Weimar Germany and explores the relationship between women the texts they read and the society in which they lived A complex picture emerges that shows women talking center stage not only in the fiction but also in the reality that shaped its fictional representations One of the author s significant conclusions is that it was the growing strength of female subjectivity its strong positioning and its insistent claim to visibility that occupied the imaginations and fears of Weimar culture and contributed in an important way to the crisis that afflicted the Weimar Republic

Ethnic Drag Katrin Sieg,2023-06-20 The Holocaust is considered a singularly atrocious event in human history and many people have studied its causes Yet few questions have been asked about the ways in which West Germans have forgotten unlearned or reconstructed the racial beliefs at the core of the Nazi state in order to build a democratic society This study looks at ethnic drag Ethnomaskerade as one particular kind of performance that reveals how postwar Germans lived disavowed and contested Germanness in its complex racial national and sexual dimensions Using engaging case studies Ethnic Drag traces the classical and travestied traditions of Jewish impersonation from the eighteenth century onward to construct a pre history of postwar ethnic drag It examines how shortly after World War II mass culture and popular practices facilitated the repression and refashioning of Nazi racial precepts During a time when American occupation authorities insisted on remembrance and redress for the Holocaust the Wild West emerged as a displaced theater of the racial imagination where the roles of victim avenger and perpetrator of genocide were reassigned Ethnic Drag is an accessible and sophisticated critical and entertaining book that examines the phenomenon of cultural masquerade in order to examine racial feeling thought and behavior in postwar German culture Contributing to considerations of drag in postcolonial feminist and queer scholarships this book will be of interest to people in German studies theater performance ethnic studies and women s queer studies Katrin Sieg is Associate Professor Department of German and Center for German and European Studies Georgetown University

Anne Duden: A Revolution of Words ,2016-09-27 Anne Duden s reputation as one of the most innovative writers of her generation established in 1982 with the experimental stories in bergang was confirmed in 1985 by Das Judasschaf a novel interweaving an individual s anguish with the cultural trauma of the German past In her acclaimed poem cycles Steinschlag 1993 and Hingegend 1999 Duden pushes the limits of language in densely metaphoric evocations of landscapes and places of political and personal remembrance mixing lament for ruined nature with grotesque comedy mystic vision with horror Duden is a distinguished practitioner of short forms Her essays display the same intense engagement with the visual arts as informs
