Making Waves Frederick Lau, Christine R. Yano, 2018-02-28 Musical sounds are some of the most mobile human elements crossing national cultural and regional boundaries at an ever increasing pace in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Whole musical products travel easily though not necessarily intact via musicians CDs and earlier cassettes satellite broadcasting digital downloads and streaming The introductory chapter by the volume editors develops two framing metaphors traveling musics and making waves The wave making metaphor illuminates the ways that traveling musics traverse flows of globalization and migration initiating change and generating energy of their own Each of the nine contributors further examines music its songs makers instruments aurality aesthetics and images as it crosses oceans continents and islands In the process of landing in new homes music interacts with older established cultural environments sometimes in unexpected ways and with surprising results They see these traveling musics in Hawai i Asia and the Pacific as making waves that is not only riding flows of globalism but instigating ripples of change What is the nature of those ripples What constitutes some of the infrastructure for the wave itself What are some of the effects of music landing on transported to or appropriated from distant shores How does the Hawai i Asia Pacific context itself shape and get shaped by these musical waves The two poetic and evocative metaphors allow the individual contributors great leeway in charting their own course while simultaneously referring back to the influence of their mentor and colleague Ricardo D Trimillos whom they identify as the wave maker The volume attempts to position music as at once ritual and entertainment esoteric and exoteric tradition and creativity within the cultural geographies of Hawai i Asia and the Pacific In doing so they situate music at the very core of global human endeavors

Making Music William C. Allsbrook Jr., 2023-06-23 The banjo has been emblematic of the Southern Appalachian Mountains since the late twentieth century Making Music The Banjo in a Southern Appalachian County takes a close look at the instrument and banjo players in Haywood County North Carolina Author William C Allsbrook Jr MD presents the oral histories of thirty two banjo players all but two of whom were born in Haywood County These talented musicians recount in their own words their earliest memories of music and of the banjo as well as the appeal of the banjo They also discuss learning to play the instrument including what it feels like playing the banjo many describing occasional flow states In the book Allsbrook explores an in home musical folkway that developed along the colonial frontier By the mid 1800s frontier expansion had ceased in Haywood County due to geographic barriers but the in home musical tradition including the banjo survived in largely isolated areas Vestiges of that tradition remain to this day although the region has undergone significant changes over the lifetimes of the musicians interviewed As a result the survival of the in home tradition is not guaranteed Readers are invited into the private lives of the banjo players and asked to consider the future of the banjo in the face of contemporary trends The future will be shaped by how this remarkable mountain culture continues to adapt to these challenges Still this thriving community of banjo players represents the vibrant legacy of the banjo in Haywood County and the persistence of tradition in the twenty first century I Can Make Music Michael Purton,1996 Simple to make and fun to play musical instruments for young children Fairy Tales Jeanne King,1995 Includes activities based on The jolly postman by Janet and Allan Ahlberg and The talking eggs by Robert D San Souci Balloon Faces Brian Way,1977 Sounds of Music George Odam,Joan Arnold,Alison Ley,1996 This Year 2 Teacher s Book provides structured whole class lesson plans with practical ideas for group individual and follow up activities A clear straightforward approach offers comprehensive support for the specialist and non specialist alike Psalms, Hymns and Spiritual Songs James D Janzen,2015-04-22 The way we worship becomes the way we believe which in turn becomes the way that we think interact and feel No wonder worship is at the heart of so many controversies in the church Paul s teaching on psalms hymns and spiritual songs explores the relationship between this familiar song triad and spiritual maturity making the bold claim that worship can lead to unity rather than conflict and division This book links Paul s song triad with other scriptural triads in a way that radically changes the lens through which the practice of worship is viewed Practical strategies and study make this book an essential individual or small group resource AND THEY PLUCK OUT YOUR EYES Paul House,2007-11-01 A novel set against the failed coup d etat in Spain of 1981 It follows the lives of a cross section of society in the three months leading up to the coup and the week following Making Music in Japan's Underground Jennifer Milioto Matsue,2008-07-15 Grounded in the fields of Ethnomusicology Anthropology Popular Music Studies and Japanese Studies this book explores the underground Tokyo hardcore scene ultimately asking what play as resistance through performance of the scene tells us about Japanese society in general Matsue highlights the complicated positioning of young adult Japanese in contemporary Japan as they negotiate both increasing social demands and increasing problems in society at large Further drawing on theories of play identity building and the construction of gender all informed by the increasingly influential field of Performance Studies the book offers a highly interdisciplinary look at the importance of musical scenes for expressing resistance at the turn of the 21st century Within the underground Tokyo hardcore scene this resistance is expressed through play with individual and collective identity in intimate and potentially illicit spaces with an arguably challenging sound and performance style Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office United States. Composing under the Skin Paul Craenen,2014-04-29 A revealing study of the physical presence of the musician in musical performance Fingers slipping over guitar strings the tap of a bow against the body of a cello a pianist humming along to the music contemporary composers often work with parasitic non conventional sounds such as these Are they to be perceived as musical elements or do they shift attention to the physical effort of music making contact between a body and an instrument Composer Paul Craenen explores ways in which the musician s body is revealed in musical performance He leads us from Cage Lachenmann Kagel and their contemporaries to a discussion of how today s generation of young composers is writing a body paradigm into composition itself Micro temporal physical gestures and instrumental timbre provide the key to unveiling the physical presence of both a musician and a composing body The author s concept of intercorporeality along with the idea of an alternating linear and non linear relationship of the composing body to time casts new light on the relationship between musicians composers and music consumers
