

the MANAS Reader

MANAS is a journal of independent inquiry, concerned with study of the principles which move world society on its present course, and with search for contrasting principles—that may be capable of supporting intelligent idealism under the conditions of life in the twentieth century. MANAS is concerned, therefore, with philosophy and with practical psychology, in as direct and simple a manner as its editors and contributors can write. The word "manas" comes from a common root suggesting "man" or "the thinker." Editorial articles are unsigned, since MANAS wishes to present ideas and viewpoints, not personalities.

Gair, W. S. Karunatilake, 2017-01-01 This book is intended and serve as an introduction to the reading of Pali texts For that purpose it uses authentic readings especially compiled for the purpose drawn largely from Theravada canonical works both prose and poetry The readings are in Roman script and carefully graded for difficulty but they have also been selected so that each of them is a meaningful and complete reading in itself so as to introduce some basic concepts and ways of thought of Theravada Buddhism This book thus offers an opportunity to become acquainted with the ways in which the teachings of the Buddha are embodied in the language a sense that it is impossible to determine from English translations The book contains 12 lessons Each of them has three parts 1 a set of basic readings and an accompanying glossary 2 grammatical notes on the forms in the lessons and 3 a set of further readings with its own glossary The further readings introduce no new grammatical points but reinforce ones already presented and give further practice in them The work concludes fittingly with the Buddha's first sermon The Dhammacakkapavattana Sutta A cumulative glossary and index to the grammar is also provided The text has been used successfully in its preliminary form at several universities but it may also be used for self study For more information please log on to www.mlbd.co.in Journeys East Harry Oldmeadow, 2004-04-28 Journeys East tells the story of the twentieth century's encounters between East and West by exploring the lives of many of the most fascinating scientists intellectuals artists and spiritual seekers of our time Spirited Performance Nienke van der Heide, 2015-06-17 In the heart of Asia straddling the western Tien Shan mountain range lies the former Soviet republic Kyrgyzstan The country prides itself in an age old oral epic tradition that recounts the mighty deeds of the hero Manas When explorers first encountered Manas performers in the late nineteenth century they hailed their art as a true representation of the heroic age and compared it to masterpieces such as the Kalevala and the Iliad Today there are still many excellent performers who can keep their audiences spellbound They are believed to draw their inspiration from the spirit of Manas himself This book portrays the meaning of this huge work of art in Kyrgyz society Based on extended periods of anthropological fieldwork between 1996 and 2000 it explores the calling of its performers describes the transformations of the oral tradition in printed media and other forms of art and examines its use as a key symbol for identity politics It deals extensively with the impact of the Soviet period during which Kyrgyzstan became an autonomous republic for the first time in history The tremendous changes initiated during these years had far reaching consequences for the transmission and reception of the Manas epic The specific Soviet approach to ethnicity was also elementary in the decisions to assign the Manas epic the role of national symbol after 1991 when Kyrgyzstan was thrown into the turmoil of a post socialist existence
