Mrs God Cassette:

The Anderson Tapes Lawrence Sanders, 2013-02-12 The explosive Edgar Award winning debut novel told entirely through surveillance recordings eyewitness reports and other official documents by New York Times bestselling author Lawrence Sanders New York City Summer 1968 Newly sprung from prison professional burglar John Anderson is preparing for the biggest heist of his criminal career The mark is a Manhattan luxury apartment building with the tony address of 535 East Seventy Third Street Enlisting a crew of scouts con artists and a getaway driver Anderson orchestrates what he believes to be a foolproof plan To pull off the big score he needs one last thing the permission of the local mafia who expect a piece of the action But no one inside Anderson s operation knows that the police have recorded their conversations The New York Police Department has hatched a plot of its own but even its task force may not be enough to stop such a cunningly planned robbery

The Kennedy Assassination Tapes Max Holland, 2004-09-14 A major work of documentary history the brilliantly edited and annotated transcripts most of them never before published of the presidential conversations of Lyndon B Johnson regarding the Kennedy assassination and its aftermath The transition from John F Kennedy to Johnson was arguably the most wrenching and ultimately one of the most bitter in the nation s history As Johnson himself said later I took the oath I became president But for millions of Americans I was still illegitimate a naked man with no presidential covering a pretender to the throne The whole thing was almost unbearable In this book Max Holland a leading authority on the assassination and longtime Washington journalist presents the momentous telephone calls President Johnson made and received as he sought to stabilize the country and keep the government functioning in the wake of November 22 1963 The transcripts begin on the day of the assassination and reveal the often chaotic activity behind the scenes as a nation in shock struggled to come to terms with the momentous events The transcripts illuminate Johnson s relationship with Robert F Kennedy which flared instantly into animosity the genuine warmth of his dealings with Jacqueline Kennedy his contact with the FBI and CIA directors and the advice he sought from friends and mentors as he wrestled with the painful transition We eavesdrop on all the conversations including those with leading journalists that persuaded Johnson to abandon his initial plan to let Texas authorities investigate the assassination Instead we observe how he abruptly established a federal commission headed by a very reluctant chief justice of the Supreme Court Earl Warren We also learn how Johnson cajoled and drafted other prominent men among them Senator Richard Russell who detested Warren Allen Dulles John McCloy and Gerald Ford into serving We see a sudden president under unimaginable pressure contending with media frenzy and speculation on a worldwide scale We witness the flow of inaccurate information some of it from J Edgar Hoover amid rumors and theories about foreign involvement And we glimpse Johnson addressing the mounting criticism of the Warren Commission after it released its still controversial report in September 1964 The conversations rendered here are nearly verbatim and have never been explained so thoroughly No passages have been deleted except when they veered from the subject Brought

Copyright Office, 1978 Living in God's Providence: History of the Congregation of Divine Providence of San Antonio, Texas, 1943-2000 Mary Christine Morkovsky, CDP, 2009-06-29 In 1943 the bell attached to a rope on both floors of a plain box like convent in Houston Texas rang at 5 a m The nine Sisters of Divine Providence stationed at the grade school arose reciting aloud the traditional prayer that began Live Jesus in my heart My God I give you my heart Mercifully deign to receive it and grant that no creature shall possess it but Thou alone Continuing to pray aloud for five more minutes the Sisters who shared small bedrooms began to dress All had developed in their novitiate a rhythm for this process which launched each day in a uniform way Over 20 items of dress had to be donned in a certain order Before Morning Prayer at 5 25 in the small chapel on the first floor the Sisters also stripped their single beds flipped the thin mattresses and replaced the bed linens trying not to invade a companion's limited space Usually it was still dark outside when they started to recite morning prayers unique to the Congregation This was followed by chanting in Latin on one tone Matins Lauds Prime Tierce Sext and None from the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary Then the superior read aloud some points for reflection and the Sisters meditated in silence for half an hour This was the first time of the day they had some relatively unstructured time and they sometimes experienced distractions Perhaps they planned how to teach something better or recalled problematic students At 6 30 one of the parish priests offered Mass which was followed by breakfast The Sisters ate in silence while one of them read passages from the Imitation of Christ By 8 a m they were leading their pupils across the playground to the children's daily Mass in the parish church In sharp contrast in 1990 Sister Mary Walter Gutowski CDP one of two Sisters living in a small apartment was the administrator of Our Lady of Guadalupe clinic for low income Latinos and African Americans in Rosenberg Texas Sister Walter who was credited with having delivered more than 3 000 babies under difficult rural circumstances once remarked When someone knocks at my door in the middle of the night I get dressed in two minutes flat because I never know what will be waiting for me outside 1 What explains this dramatic change of style and ritual in the routines of Catholic Sisters living in mission houses How did the Sisters move from cloisters to apartments How did the rigid routines of the nine Sisters of 1943 transmute into the singular and unstructured life of Sister Mary Walter What are the connections between the bell that rang at five in the morning and the one that sounded at any hour This history examines the period of 1943 to 2000 an era during which the Sisters of Divine Providence redefined their perspective and practices within the context of a changing American Catholic church It demonstrates that the Sisters were well situated to embrace the shifting demands of religious mission because their very heritage was grounded in ongoing transformations Those transformations were played out on a highly charged stage of oppression concerning multi racial relationships one that further prepared the Sisters for the intense dynamics of modern church life When the Sisters celebrated in 1966 the centennial of their arrival in Texas they were staffing their own college high schools and numerous grammar schools in several states as well as hospitals clinics and neighborhood centers They had incorporated a group of women from Mexico and encouraged the independence of a new Providence congregation in the U S Responding to Vatican encouragement after the second Vatican Council they began experiments to update structures and customs so as minister more effectively The most visible were in the areas of community living and governance and were accompanied by greater collegiality subsidiarity variety in prayer ESEA, from Tales to Tapes United States.
