claim of the novelist playwright and essayist Christoph Hein Ich nehme au erdem f r mich in Anspruch elfmal das Ende der DDR beschrieben zu haben serves as the starting point for the twenty three contributors to the volume who consider the many and varied ways in which Hein and his fellow writers signalled and diagnosed the demise of the GDR The fraught relationship between the state and its intellectuals inevitably forms a consistent theme in the studies of writers as diverse as Anna Seghers and Kito Lorenc Christa Wolf and Jurek Becker or Irmtraud Morgner and Heiner M ller However the process of retrospect and review also reveals the innovative and independent minded character of the culture of the GDR s later years Several contributors trace the emergence of a strong and distinctive women s writing which increasingly and subversively imposed itself on the hitherto patriarchal literary landscape of the GDR And in the literature of the 1970s and 1980s experimental narrative strategies take on a political role as a counter discourse to a stubbornly inflexible political order
