Nachdenken Ueber Christa T:

The Quest for Christa T. Christa Wolf, 1982 Christa is a young girl in Hitler's Germany she survives to embrace the new order but her idealism withers as crass materialists corrode its dream Her story is the story of a whole generation and a celebration of the unique value of each human being and all human life Literatur - Geschichte Lothar Köhn, 2000

The Child's View of the Third Reich in German Literature Debbie Pinfold, 2001-08-23 This book examines the ways in which German authors have used the child's perspective to present the Third Reich It considers how children at this time were brought up and educated to accept unquestioningly National Socialist ideology and thus questions the possibility of a traditional naive perspective on these events Authors as diverse as Günter Grass Siegfried Lenz and Christa Wolf together with many less well known writers have all used this perspective and this raises the question as to why it is such a popular means of confronting the enormity of the Third Reich This study asks whether this perspective is an evasive strategy a means of gaining new insights into the period or a means of discovering a new language which had not been tainted by Nazism This raises and addresses issues central to a post war aesthetic in German writing Post-fascist Fantasies Julia Hell, 1997

Employing an approach informed by Slavoj Žižek's work on the Communist's sublime body and by British psychoanalytic feminism's concern with feminine subjectivity Hell first examines the antifascist works by exiled authors and authors tied to the resistance movement She then strives to understand the role of Christa Wolf the GDR's most prominent author in the GDR's effort to reconstruct symbolic power after the Nazi period The Spiritual Geography of Modern Writing Constantin V. Ponomareff, 1997 This collection of essays deals with the spiritual crisis in modern society and focusses in particular on European writers of the 19th and 20th centuries The essays trace themes of spiritual unease narrowing of inner human space impoverishment of the self growing human isolation dehumanization and the writer's attempts to overcome this malaise The essays also try to show how inhuman political and social environments and feelings of cultural impasse can become mitigated and reclaimed by socially conscious acts of creative writing Obsession self delusion creative frustration and personal tragedy are seen to haunt this kind of modern writing which is at the same time infused with the writer's profound sense of moral responsibility to society and marked on occasion by that rare experience of Epiphany and transcendence Dialogue Analysis IX: Dialogue in Literature and the Media, Part 1: Literature Anne

Betten, Monika Dannerer, 2011-12-22 These two volumes offer a selection of the papers held at the conference of the International Association for Dialogue Analysis IADA in 2003 Volume I contains 38 articles devoted to dialogue and the phenomenon of dialogicity in literature ranging from antiquity to a large number of modern languages and literatures The conversation analytic approaches drawn upon are notable for their methodological diversity This is also true of the 32 articles in Volume II The main focus here is on present day types of dialogue in the new electronic media and their traditional counterparts press radio television film The examples are taken from various countries and they are discussed in terms of the
