Paintings Writings:

The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting, 1775-1809 Dr Liam Lenihan, 2014-01-10

Examining the literary career of the eighteenth century Irish painter James Barry 1741 1806 through an interdisciplinary methodology The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting 1775 1809 is the first full length study of the artist s writings Liam Lenihan critically assesses the artist s own aesthetic philosophy about painting and printmaking and reveals the extent to which Barry wrestles with the significant stylistic transformations of the pre eminent artistic genre of his age history painting Lenihan s book delves into the connections between Barry s writings and art and the cultural and political issues that dominated the public sphere in London during the American and French Revolutions "The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting, 1775-1809" Liam Lenihan, 2017-07-05 Examining the literary career of the eighteenth century Irish painter James Barry 1741 1806 through an interdisciplinary methodology The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting 1775 1809 is the first full length study of the artist s writings Liam Lenihan critically assesses the artist s own aesthetic philosophy about painting and printmaking and reveals the extent to which Barry wrestles with the significant stylistic transformations of the pre eminent artistic genre of his age history painting Lenihan s book delves into the connections between Barry s writings and art and the cultural and political issues that dominated the public sphere in London during the American and French Revolutions Barry s writings are read within the context of the political and aesthetic thought of his distinguished friends and contemporaries such as Edmund Burke his first patron Joshua Reynolds his sometime friend and rival Mary Wollstonecraft and William Godwin with whom he was later friends and his students and adversaries William Blake and Henry Fuseli Ultimately Lenihan s interdisciplinary reading shows the extent to which Barry s faith in the classical tradition in general and the genre of history painting in particular is permeated by the hermeneutics of suspicion This study explores and contextualizes Barry s attempt to rethink and remake the preeminent art form of his era Painting with Words, Writing with Pictures Franco Ricci, 2001-01-01 Ricci s book ranges widely over Calvino s oeuvre to illustrate the accuracy of the idea articulated by Calvino himself that a visual image lies at the origin of all his narrative The book s main theme is the difficult interface between word and image that Calvino struggled with throughout his career the act of perception that rendered visible that which was invisible and transformed what was seen into what is read Ricci holds that Calvino s narrative has an imagocentric program and that his literary strategy is ekphrastic i e it is characterized by literary description of visual representation real or imaginary The book is interdisciplinary in nature and will interest not only scholars of literature but also those who work with the visual arts and with information technology Writing Back to Modern Art Jonathan P. Harris, 2005 Studying the art writing and critique of the three leading art writers of the latter 20th century with focus on canonical modern artists Harris brings us this study which assesses the development of modern art writing Hot, Cold, Heavy, Light, 100 Art Writings 1988-2018 Peter Schjeldahl, 2019-06-04 Hot Cold

Heavy Light collects 100 writings some long some short that taken together forma group portrait of many of the world s most significant and interesting artists From Pablo Picasso to Cindy Sherman Old Masters to contemporary masters paintings to comix and saints to charlatans Schjeldahl ranges widely through the diverse and confusing art world an expert guide to a dazzling scene No other writer enhances the reader s experience of art in precise jargon free prose as Schjeldahl does His reviews are more essay than criticism and he offers engaging and informative accounts of artists and their work For more than three decades he has written about art with Emersonian openness and clarity A fresh perspective an unexpected connection a lucid gloss on a big idea awaits the reader on every page of this big absorbing buzzing book

Writing and Filming the Painting Laura M. Sager Eidt,2008 This innovative interdisciplinary study compares the uses of painting in literary texts and films In developing a framework of four types of ekphrasis the author argues for the expansion of the concept of ekphrasis by demonstrating its applicability as interpretive tool to films about the visual arts and artists Analyzing selected works of art by Goya Rembrandt and Vermeer and their ekphrastic treatment in various texts and films this book examines how the medium of ekphrasis affects the representation of the visual arts in order to show what the differences imply about issues such as gender roles and the function of art for the construction of a personal or social identity Because of its highly cross disciplinary nature this book is of interest not only to scholars of literature and aesthetics but also for scholars of film studies By providing an innovative approach to discussing non documentary films about artists the author shows that ekphrasis is a useful tool for exploring both aesthetic concerns and ideological issues in film This study also addresses art historians as it deals with the reception of major artists in European literature and film throughout the 20th century

When Writing Met Art Denise Schmandt-Besserat,2009-02-17 An archaeologist and art historian examines the impact of literacy on visual art during the early urban period in the Near East Denise Schmandt Besserat opened a new chapter in the history of literacy when she demonstrated that the cuneiform script invented in the ancient Near East in the late fourth millennium BC the world s oldest known system of writing derived from an archaic counting device Her discovery was published in Before Writing From Counting to Cuneiform and How Writing Came About which was named by American Scientist as one of the 100 or so Books that shaped a Century of Science In When Writing Met Art Schmandt Besserat expands her history of writing into the visual realm Using examples of ancient Near Eastern writing and masterpieces of art she shows that between 3500 and 3000 BC the conventions of writing everything from its linear organization to its semantic use of the form size order and placement of signs spread to the making of art resulting in artworks that presented complex visual narratives in place of the repetitive motifs found on preliterate art objects Schmandt Besserat then demonstrates art s reciprocal impact on the development of writing She shows how beginning in 2700 2600 BC the inclusion of inscriptions on funerary and votive art objects emancipated writing from its original accounting function To fulfill its new role writing evolved to replicate speech this made it possible to compile organize and synthesize unlimited amounts of information Schmandt Besserat s pioneering investigation documents a turning point in human history when two of our most fundamental information media reciprocally multiplied their capacities to communicate When writing met art literate civilization was born Writing the Lives of Painters Karen Junod,2011-01-27 This book explores the development of artists biographies in the cultural context of 18th and early 19th century Britain It argues that the proliferation of a myriad biographical forms mirrored the privileging of artistic originality and difference within an art world that had yet to generate a coherent British School of painting Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag,1997 Expanded to twice as many entries as the 1985 edition and updated with new publications new editions of previous entries titles missed the first time around more of the artists own writings and monographs that deal with significant aspects or portions of an artist s work though not all of it The listing is alphabetical by artist and the index by author The works cited include analytical and critical biographical and enumerative their formats range from books and catalogues raisonnés to exhibition and auction sale catalogues A selection of biographical dictionaries containing information on artists is arranged by country Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Chinese Ways of Seeing and Open-Air Painting Yi Gu,2021-02-01 How did modern Chinese painters see landscape Did they depict nature in the same way as premodern Chinese painters What does the artistic perception of modern Chinese painters reveal about the relationship between artists and the nation state Could an understanding of modern Chinese landscape painting tell us something previously unknown about art political change and the epistemological and sensory regime of twentieth century China Yi Gu tackles these questions by focusing on the rise of open air painting in modern China Chinese artists almost never painted outdoors until the late 1910s when the New Culture Movement prompted them to embrace direct observation linear perspective and a conception of vision based on Cartesian optics The new landscape practice brought with it unprecedented emphasis on perception and redefined artistic expertise Central to the pursuit of open air painting from the late 1910s right through to the early 1960s was a reinvigorated and ever growing urgency to see suitably as a Chinese and to see the Chinese homeland correctly Examining this long overlooked ocular turn Gu not only provides an innovative perspective from which to reflect on complicated interactions of the global and local in China but also calls for rethinking the nature of visual modernity there

Agnes Martin: Her Life and Art Nancy Princenthal, 2015-06-16 The first biography of visionary artist Agnes Martin one of the most original and influential painters of the postwar period Over the course of a career that spanned fifty years Agnes Martin's austere serene work anticipated and helped to define Minimalism even as she battled psychological crises and carved out a solitary existence in the American Southwest Martin identified with the Abstract Expressionists but her commitment to linear geometry caused her to be associated in turn with Minimalist feminist and even outsider artists She moved through some of the liveliest art communities of her time while maintaining a legendary reserve I paint with my back to the world she says both at the beginning and at the conclusion of a documentary filmed when she was in her late eighties When she died at ninety two in Taos New Mexico it is said she had not read a newspaper in half a century No substantial critical monograph exists on this acclaimed artist the recipient of two career retrospectives as well as the National Medal of the Arts who was championed by critics as diverse in their approaches as Lucy Lippard Lawrence Alloway and Rosalind Krauss Furthermore no attempt has been made to describe her extraordinary life The whole engrossing story told here for the first time Agnes Martin is essential reading for anyone interested in abstract art or the history of women artists in America

Art of the 20th Century Karl Ruhrberg, Klaus Honnef, Manfred Schneckenburger, Christiane Fricke, 2000 The original edition of this ambitious reference was published in hardcover in 1998 in two oversize volumes 10x13 This edition combines the two volumes into one it's paperbound flexi cover the paper has a plastic coating smaller 8x10 and affordable for art book buyers with shallower pockets none of whom should pass it by The scope is encyclopedic half the work originally the first volume is devoted to painting the other half to sculpture new media and photography Chapters are arranged thematically and each page displays several examples in color of work under discussion The final section a lexicon of artists includes a small bandw photo of each artist as well as biographical information and details of work writings and exhibitions Ruhrberg and the three other authors are veteran art historians curators and writers as is editor Walther c Book News Inc

Writing about Visual Art David Carrier, 2003-03-01 David Carrier examines the history and practice of art writing and reveals its importance to the art museum the art gallery and aesthetic theory Artists art historians and art lovers alike can gain fresh insight into how written descriptions of painting and sculpture affect the experience of art Readers will learn how their reading can determine the way they see painting and sculpture how interpretations of art transform meaning and significance and how much discussed work becomes difficult to see afresh

Conceptual Revolutions in

Twentieth-Century Art David W. Galenson, 2009-09-28 Galenson combines social scientific methods with qualitative analysis to produce a new interpretation of modern art

Pierre Bourdieu in Hispanic Literature and Culture Ignacio M. Sánchez Prado, 2018-03-08 Pierre Bourdieu in Hispanic Literature and Culture is a collective reflection on the value of French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu's work for the study of Spanish and Latin American literature and culture. The authors deploy Bourdieu's concepts in the study of Modernismo, avant-garde Mexico, contemporary Puerto Rican literature, Hispanism, Latin American cultural production, and more. Each essay is also a contribution to the study of the politics and economics of culture in Spain and Latin America. The book as a whole is in dialogue with recent methodological and theoretical interventions in cultural sociology and Latin American and Iberian studies.

20 Sensational Art & Writing Projects Dena Schutzer, 2003-07. Teachers can bring out the artist and writer in every student with projects such as Alphabet Alliterations, Textures, Tell Tales, and Whirly Kite Legends. In this easy-to-use book, a classroom teacher describes 20 of her favourite art projects with prompts that inspire children to write poems, short stories, descriptions, and more. Children will build skills in writing and enjoy the creative process; families will treasure the results.

Productive failure Alpesh Kantilal Patel, 2017-07-21. This title sets out to write new transnational South Asian art histories to make visible histories of artworks that remain marginalised within the discipline of art history. However, this is done through a deliberate productive failure, specifically by not upholding the strictly genealogical approach that is regularly assumed for South Asian art histories. For instance, one chapter explores the abstract work of Cy Twombly and Natvar Bhavsar. The author examines whiteness, the invisible ground upon which racialized art histories often pivot, as a fraught yet productive site for writing art history. This book also provides original commentary on how queer theory can deconstruct and provide new approaches for writing art history. Overall, this title provides methods for generating art history that acknowledge the complex web of factors within which art history is produced and the different forms of knowledge production we might count as art history.

Performance and Spectatorship in Edwardian Art Writing Sophie Hatchwell, 2019-05-16. This book explores how Edwardian art writing shaped and narrated embodied performative forms of aesthetic spectatorship. It argues that we need to expand the range of texts we think of as art writing and features a diverse array of critical and fictional works, often including texts that are otherwise absent from art historical study. Multi-disciplinary in scope, this book proposes a methodology for analyzing the aesthetic encounter within and through art writing, adapting and reworking a form of phenomenological semiotic analysis found conventionally in performance studies. It focuses on moments where theories of spectatorship meet practice, moving between the varied spaces of Edwardian art viewing: from the critical text to the lecture hall, the West End theatre and gallery, middle-class home, and fictional novel. It contributes to a rethinking of Edwardian culture by exploring the intriguing heterogeneity and self-consciousness of viewing practices in a period more commonly associated with the emergence of formalism.

Canadian Painters in a Modern World, 1925-1955 Lora Senechal Carney, 2017-09-27. From the Roaring Twenties and the Group of Seven to the Automatistes and the early Cold War, Canadian artists lived through and embodied an era of global tumult and change.
