Craig Cavanaugh opened his briefcase and drew out the folder containing the manuscript It was getting dark when he finished reading No question he thought Kitty Traherne can write Her face came back into his mind He saw the pain in her eyes heard the urgency in her voice as he recalled the passion with which she had told him her reason for writing this highly controversial book A slight flush had swept over her pale face as she said I think this country is in danger of being drawn into another foreign war Mr Cavanaugh Kitty Traherne who had been a field nurse in France during World War I knew the madness of war firsthand and couldn't bear to see it happen again She had to risk doing whatever she could to prevent it however the public might respond and despite the bitter rift she was creating between herself and her family the Camerons She had to tell people about the horror of the last war remind them of the awful price paid by the young men who were made to fight it As an editor Craig Cavanaugh dealt with writers all the time But something about Kitty Traherne touched him in a different way Craig would fight to publish her book and in the process he hoped to get to know its lovely author
