Readings in Jurisprudence and Legal Philosophy Morris Raphael Cohen,Felix S. and proper place of legal theory in the study of law have traversed a good deal of ground since John Austin's 1828 lecture 'The Uses and the Study of Jurisprudence'. These first two parts offer a selection of the most important papers including surveys as well as pedagogical viewpoints and particular course descriptions from analytical, critical, feminist, law and literature and global perspectives. The last three decades have seen just as many changes for legal scholarship and comparative law. These changes such as the rise of empirical legal scholarship have often attracted the attention of legal theorists. Within comparative law the last thirty years have witnessed intense methodological reflection within the discipline; the results of these reflections are themselves properly recognised as legal theoretical contributions. The volume collects the key papers including those by Neil MacCormick, Mark Van Hoecke, Andrew Halpin, William Ewald and Geoffrey Samuel.
