Reverberating Word Michael Denham, 2018-06-12 Like sounds of beautiful music worship can renew us for God's glory and our good by the invigorating power of God's reverberating Word. It is God's story that redeems all our stories. We want to tell it again and again as best we can, clearly conveying its message, meaning, richness, claim, and call. Through its every facet and component, worship that is biblically expositional can heighten how we proclaim God's story faithfully and creatively, pointing to the One who alone offers us true identity, security, and destiny. If you seek me, you will find me; if you search with all your heart, declares the Lord. With the ancient prophets and apostles, we must repeat and repeat and repeat the most wonderful truth that God wants to be found. In Christian worship, such a tremendous and tender encounter is available to us as nowhere else.

The Third Room of Preaching Marianne Gaarden, 2021-02-09 How do listeners create meaning when hearing a sermon? In this cutting-edge homiletical study, Marianne Gaarden draws on sociological, psychological, and other empirical research to offer new perspectives and presents the notion of the Third Room of Preaching, the place where the preacher's words and the listener's prior experiences come together and new meaning emerges. The new research insights challenge conventional understandings of preaching and invite homileticians to reflect theologically on the implications for the sermon as an act of communication. In addition, the book includes an appendix that offers new perspectives on how to best educate and train preachers in light of that research.

Preaching and the Personal J. Dwayne Howell, 2014-07-31 Preaching is a very personal process; a minister or speaker prepares his or her own sermon and presents it to the congregation. Sermons draw upon the Bible as a central source, and the source provides a basis of faith for the believing community. The preaching event is also personal for the individual members of the congregation who receive the preacher's words based on a biblical text in their own unique way. In the synthesis of Biblical text, sermon, and listener response, many testimonies are present. Preaching and the Personal is a collection of papers that have been presented at the Society of Biblical Literature. These papers encourage and nurture dialogue among scholars who share an interest in the unique theological problems inherent to the relationship between biblical interpretation and proclamation. Preaching and the Personal opens a stimulating dialogue in the field.

Believing in Preaching: what Listeners Hear in , Preaching the Sermon on the Mount , preacher as 'first listener' : 'calling' as a source of authority within the Flemish evangelical preaching tradition Filip De Cavel, 2020-01-01 The preacher's weekly assignment is brutally repetitive: Fill the blank page by Sunday at least twice a month, if not even more. This book offers a biblical, theological, and empirical grounding to support the preacher's self-reflective listening and sermonizing practices in order for the preacher to be aware of his/her spirituality of listening and discernment.

My Burden Is Light Craig A. Satterlee, 2023-01-10 My Burden Is Light Making Room for Jesus in Preaching invites preachers to reclaim proclaiming Jesus as the goal of preaching. Too often, Satterlee observes, we usher Jesus to the back of the pulpit, invite him to make a cameo appearance, or even excuse him from the sermon altogether. With the author's guidance, readers imagine the ways Jesus is present in their favorite liturgical space and explore ways they can make room for Jesus in preaching and experience abundant life for themselves and for their people Satterlee argues that by preaching the mystery of Jesus's life death and resurrection as good news for God's people the church and the world all of whom long for salvation we powerfully address the issues we face including pandemic climate change assaults on democracy social justice and division Drawing on his lifetime of experience learning preaching and teaching the gospel this book is foundational for preaching courses and a balm for preachers needing nourishment and renewal Religious Involvement in Hearing Sermons Theo Pleizier, 2010 Preaching at the Double Feast Michael Monshau, 2006 What is the role of preaching in the double feast churches churches whose normative liturgical worship features rites at the two tables of the Word and of the Eucharist Father Michael Monshau adds timely and critical new perspective to the issue by bringing together five significant voices from double feast churches whose presentations in effect become varied short textbooks on how to preach

Satterlee, 2011-06-29 Both new and veteran preachers alike find the annual stewardship sermon a challenge and are eager for encouraging practical advice In Preaching and Stewardship Craig Satterlee offers a nuts and bolts handbook on preaching stewardship raising issues preachers need to consider when preparing stewardship sermons and offering advice on how to address them Satterlee argues that stewardship preaching must include a bold and concrete proclamation of God's love will and justice as well as an invitation to grow as stewards in response to this proclamation He focuses each chapter on a question preachers ought to ask themselves as they prepare the stewardship sermon beginning with What do you mean by stewardship and Why should we give to the church In chapters 3 through 6 he explores what the Bible says about stewardship In chapter 7 he names some of the assumptions both preachers and worshipers bring to the stewardship sermon The final chapter a variety of ways congregations can support the stewardship sermon Satterlee illustrates the premise of each chapter with anecdotes from congregational life Preachers who desire examples of stewardship sermons will especially appreciate stewardship sermons he shares from various preachers to illustrate points in the main text
