Lauderdale, 2013 Entrepreneurship and Self-Help among Black Americans John Sibley Butler, 2012-02-01 Since its publication in 1991 Entrepreneurship and Self Help among Black Americans has become a classic work influencing the study of entrepreneurship and more importantly revitalizing a research tradition that places new ventures at the very center of success for black Americans This revised edition updates and enhances the work by bringing it into the twenty first century John Sibley Butler traces the development of black enterprises and other community organizations among black Americans from before the Civil War to the present He compares these efforts to other strong traditions of self help among groups such as Japanese Americans Jewish Americans Greek Americans and exciting new research on the Amish and the Pakistani He also explores how higher education is already a valued tradition among black self help groups such that today their offspring are more likely to be third and fourth generation college graduates Butler effectively challenges the myth that nothing can be done to salvage America's underclass without a massive infusion of public dollars and offers a fresh perspective on those community based organizations and individuals who act to solve local social and economic problems African American Urban History since World War II Kenneth L. Kusmer, Joe W. Trotter, 2009-08-01 Historians have devoted surprisingly little attention to African American urban history of the postwar period especially compared with earlier decades Correcting this imbalance African American Urban History since World War II features an exciting mix of seasoned scholars and fresh new voices whose combined efforts provide the first comprehensive assessment of this important subject The first of this volume's five groundbreaking sections focuses on black migration and Latino immigration examining tensions and alliances that emerged between African Americans and other groups Exploring the challenges of residential segregation and deindustrialization later sections tackle such topics as the real estate industry's discriminatory practices the movement of middle class blacks to the suburbs and the influence of black urban activists on national employment and social welfare policies Another group of contributors examines these themes through the lens of gender chronicling deindustrialization's disproportionate impact on women and women's leading roles in movements for social change Concluding with a set of essays on black culture and consumption this volume fully realizes its goal of linking local transformations with the national and global processes that affect urban class and race relations

Encyclopedia of African American Society Gerald D. Jaynes, 2005-02 An encyclopedic reference of African American history and culture The African American Experience in Vietnam James E. Westheider, 2008 In this book James E. Westheider explores the social and professional paradoxes facing African American soldiers in Vietnam Service in the military started as a demonstration of the merits of integration as blacks competed with whites on a near equal basis for the first time Yet as the war in Vietnam progressed many black recruits felt isolated and threatened in an institution controlled almost totally by whites Consequently many blacks no longer viewed the military as a professional opportunity but an undue burden on the black community #Crime Rebecca M. Hayes, Kate Luther, 2018-08-24 As research continues to accumulate on the connections between media and crime Crime explores the impact of social media on the criminal legal system It examines how media influences our perceptions of crime the perpetration of crime and the implementation of punishment whilst emphasizing the significance of race ethnicity class gender and sexuality It offers an accessible and in depth examination of media and in each chapter there are case studies and examples from both legacy and new media including discussions from Twitter that are being used to raise awareness of criminal legal issues It also includes interviews with international scholars and practitioners from Australia Belgium and the United States to voice a range of global perspectives This book speaks broadly to those interested in criminology criminal justice media and culture sociology and gender studies politics today Demographic changes resulting from immigration and ethnic blending are dramatically affecting the character and identity of Black populations throughout the US Black Americans are becoming more ethnically diverse at the same time that they are sharing space with newcomers from near and far In addition the movement of Black populations out of the cities to which they migrated a generation ago a reverse migration to the American South in some cases and in other cases a movement from cities to suburbs shifts the locus of Black politics At the same time middle class and white populations are returning to cities displacing low income Blacks and immigrants alike in a renewal of gentrification All this makes for an important laboratory of discovery among social scientists including the diverse range of authors represented here Drawing on a wide array of disciplinary perspectives and methodological strategies original chapters analyze the geography of opportunity for Black Americans and Black politics in accessible jargon free language Moving beyond the Black white binary this book explores the tri part relationship among Blacks whites and Latinos as well Some of the most important developments in Black politics are happening at state and local levels today and this book captures that for students scholars and citizens engaged in this dynamic milieu US Black Engineer & IT ,1999-07

The Wrong Complexion for Protection Robert D. Bullard,Beverly Wright,2023-09-05 Uncovers the ways the United States government responds to natural and human induced disasters in relation to race over the past eight decades When the images of desperate hungry thirsty sick mostly black people circulated in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina it became apparent to the whole country that race did indeed matter when it came to government assistance In The Wrong Complexion for Protection Robert D Bullard and Beverly Wright place the government response to natural and human induced disasters in historical context over the past eight decades They compare and contrast how the government responded to emergencies including environmental and public health emergencies toxic contamination industrial accidents bioterrorism threats and show that African Americans are disproportionately affected Bullard and Wright argue that uncovering and eliminating disparate disaster response can mean the difference between life and death for those most vulnerable in disastrous times America Is Not Post-Racial Algernon Austin,2015-09-09 This book is the first in depth examination of the 25 million Americans with the most intense hatred of President Obama arguably the most Republican friendly of recent Democratic presidents and what the mindsets of these Obama Haters teach us about race and ethnicity in America today Despite the fact that President Obama was raised by a white mother and white grandparents and has two degrees from Ivy League universities he has still been subject to intense racial hatred from a large number of Americans Even after Obama s presidency the Obama Haters and their xenophobia Islamophobia and racism will continue to shape American politics America is certainly not post racial argues author Algernon Austin PhD a noted sociologist and author on racial issues who consults on race politics and economics in Washington DC In this book he uses the Obama Haters as an appropriate jumping off point to consider what strategies might begin to reduce racial animosity in the United States a real concern considering that demographic trends are likely to exacerbate and escalate race based hatred in our society Austin sets the stage for the discussion by establishing that President Obama is hardly liberal in the eyes of liberal political activists raising the question of why Obama is so intensely hated by some conservatives He then compares the views of the Obama Haters estimated to be some 25 million strong with conservatives moderates and liberals who are not Obama Haters The author shows how the Obama Haters are distinctly more xenophobic Islamophobic and racist than political conservatives who are not Obama Haters underscoring the fact that the Obama Haters are motivated by more than just conservatism Congressional Anti-gerrymandering Act of 1979 United States.
