Makers Of History A Story Of The Development Of T:

The Social Science Pamphlets, a General Course in History, Geography and Civics for Grades VII, VIII, and IX: no. 2. The mechanical conquest of America Harold Ordway Rugg,1926 Star Wars and the History of Transmedia Storytelling Sean Guynes,Dan Hassler-Forest,2025-10-01 Star Wars has reached more than three generations of casual and hardcore fans alike and as a result many of the producers of franchised Star Wars texts films television comics novels games and more over the past four decades have been fans turned creators Yet despite its dominant cultural and industrial positions Star Wars has rarely been the topic of sustained critical work Star Wars and the History of Transmedia Storytelling offers a corrective to this oversight by curating essays from a wide range of interdisciplinary scholars in order to bring Star Wars and its transmedia narratives more fully into the fold of media and cultural studies The collection places Star Wars at the center of those studies projects by examining video games novels and novelizations comics advertising practices television shows franchising models aesthetic and economic decisions fandom and cultural responses and other aspects of Star Wars and its world building in their multiple contexts of production distribution and reception In emphasizing that Star Wars is both a media franchise and a transmedia storyworld Star Wars and the History of Transmedia Storytelling demonstrates the ways in which transmedia storytelling and the industrial logic of media franchising have developed in concert over the past four decades as multinational corporations have become the central means for subsidizing profiting from and selling modes of immersive storyworlds to global audiences By taking this dual approach the book focuses on the interconnected nature of corporate production fan consumption and transmedia world building As such this collection grapples with the historical cultural aesthetic and political economic implications of the relationship between media franchising and transmedia storytelling as they are seen at work in the world s most profitable transmedia franchise Writings on American History ,1914 Progressive Politics and the Training of America's Persuaders Katherine Adams,1999 A historical analysis of writing instruction in the 20th century within the contexts of political and social conditions Is appropriate for scholars of rhetoric and composition as well as related areas such as journalism and communication history Peaceful Path Stephen Ward,2016-03-14 The title of this book is taken from Ebenezer Howard s visionary tract To morrow A Peaceful Path to Real Reform Published in 1898 as a manifesto for social reform via the creation of Garden Cities it proposed a new way of providing cheap and healthy homes workplaces and green spaces in balance in cohesive new communities underpinned by radical ideas about collective land ownership While Howard s vision had international impact in this book planning historian Stephen Ward largely honors the special place that Hertfordshire occupies on the peaceful path beginning with the development of Letchworth and Welwyn Garden Cities Advertising Progress Pamela Walker Laird,2020-01-15 Selected by Choice Magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title Originally published in 1998 Drawing on both documentary and pictorial evidence Pamela Walker Laird explores the modernization of American advertising to 1920 She links its rise and transformation to changes that affected American society and business alike including the rise of professional specialization and the communications revolution that new technologies made possible Laird finds a fundamental shift in the kinds of people who created advertisements and their relationships to the firms that advertised Advertising evolved from the work of informing customers telling people what manufacturers had to sell to creating consumers persuading people that they needed to buy Through this story Laird shows how and why in the intense competitions for both markets and cultural authority the creators of advertisements laid claim to progress and used it to legitimate their places in American business and culture

I Do and I Don't Jeanine Basinger,2014-03-11 Here is happily ever after except when things aren't happy and when ever after is abruptly terminated by divorce tragedy or even murder With her large hearted understanding of how movies and audiences work leading film historian Jeanine Basinger traces the many ways Hollywood has tussled with the tricky subject of marriage explicating the relationships of countless marriages from Blondie and Dagwood to the heartrending couple in the Iranian A Separation from Coach and his wife in Friday Night Lights to Tracy and Hepburn and even to Laurel and Hardy a marriage if ever there was one A treasure trove of insight and sympathy illustrated with scores of wonderfully telling movie stills posters and ads
