Self-Portrait with Russian Piano Wolf Wondratschek,2025-09-23 A legendary literary figure who initiated a one man Beat Generation in his native Germany Wolf Wondratschek is eccentric monomaniacal romantic his texts are imbued with a wonderful reckless nonchalance Now he tells a story of a man looking back on his life in an honest Portrait of the Artist as an Old Man Vienna is an uncanny magical and sometimes brutally alienating city The past lives on in the cafes where lost souls come to kill time and hash over the bygone glories of the twentieth century or maybe just a recent love affair Here in one of these cafes an anonymous narrator meets a strange character like someone out of a novel a decrepit old Russian named Suvorin A Soviet pianist of international renown Suvorin committed career suicide when he developed a violent distaste for the sound of applause This eccentric gentleman sometimes charming sometimes sulky sometimes disconcertingly frank knows the end of his life is approaching and allows himself to be convinced to tell his life story Over a series of coffee dates punctuated by confessions anecdotes and rages and by the narrator's schemes to keep his quarry talking a strained friendship develops between the two men and it soon becomes difficult to tell who is more dependent on whom Rhapsodic and melancholic with shades of Vladimir Nabokov W G

Seibald Hans Keilson and Thomas Bernhard Wolf Wondratschek's Self Portrait with Russian Piano is a literary sonata circling the eternal question of whether beauty, music, and passion are worth the sacrifices some people are compelled to make for them. A romantic in a madhouse. To let Wondratschek's voice be drowned in the babble of today's literature would be a colossal mistake. Patrick S. Skind, international bestselling author of Perfume: The Story of a Murderer Douglas Airview, 1942

When music lives inside Kal Burgess, 2024-09-11 When music lives inside you the shadow dims is a lyrical view of life. From being a young teenager through to adulthood, music releases the bonds of childhood trauma and brings awareness to the soul to grow. From the pain of falling in and out of love, lyrics guide Tobika to become more than a scared and confused child. She blossoms, she falls down, she survives. She can allow herself to become Kal, the true woman she should be. The message is to keep striving to allow yourself the freedom to stand in the light and force the past shadows back into the darkness. Make a Joyful Noise! Kathryn Nider Wolf, Heather P. Robbins, 2007-02-15 There is no better way to share the love of God with children than doing the things that kids love best: moving, singing, and making noise. These Bible-based songs, rhymes, and creative play activities present basic Christian concepts in an age-appropriate manner. All activities are developmentally appropriate for the cognitive and physical abilities of PreK through first-grade children. Making Spirits Bright Susan Magsamen, 2007-10 Starting with a world view of Christmas anticipation, this book encourages children and adults to look around them and think about simple gifts, greetings, and decorations at this memory-rich time of year. Family activity: make song sheets from a clever book within a book for family sing-alongs or a caroling party. Plus, personalize four keepsake wooden ornaments. ANF09.
