Making Of European Environmental Policy The Netherlands The Eu And Acid Rain:

Environment and the Nation State Duncan Liefferink, 1996 With the European Union's increasing powers its environmental legislation has grown rapidly This study investigates the dynamics of the Europeanization of environmental policy and concludes that the domestic environmental policies of relatively green member States are actually hardly affected The text focuses on policy making in the field of air pollution and acidification between the former European Community and one Member State the Netherlands Included in the text is a concise history of EC environmental policy an explanation of the theories of sovereignty European integration and power dependence and final commentary on the future of environmental policy in the European Union

Environmental Policy-Making In Britain, Germany and the European Union Rüdiger K. W. Wurzel, 2006-08-08 This book explains why national conflicts have arisen and how they are resolved at EU level by focusing on the Europeanisation of air and water pollution control

Environmental Policy in Europe Andrew J. Jordan, Duncan Liefferink, 2004-08-02 The continuing development of the European Union EU is transforming policy and politics in its member countries and possibly in an even larger number of potential members This book offers a detailed investigation of the Europeanization of national environmental policy in ten western European countries since 1970 By blending state of the art theories with fresh empirical material on the many manifestations of Europeanization it sheds new light on the dynamics that are decisively reshaping national environmental policy It also offers an original assessment of how far Europeanization has produced greater policy convergence in western Europe Throughout the approach taken is genuinely comparative drawing on the insights provided by leading country specialists

Environmental Policy in the European Union Andrew Jordan, 2012 This second and fully revised edition brings together some of the most influential work on the theory and practice of contemporary EU environmental policy Comprising five comprehensive parts it includes in depth case studies of contemporary policy issues such as climate change genetically modified organisms and trans Atlantic relations as well as an assessment of how well the EU is responding to new challenges such as enlargement environmental policy integration and sustainability The book's aim is to look forward and ask whether the EU is prepared or even able to respond to the new governance challenges posed by the perceived need to use new policy instruments and processes to mainstream environmental thinking in all EU policy sectors

Environmental Policy in the EU Andrew Jordan, 2012-04-27 This second and fully revised edition brings together some of the most influential work on the theory and practice of contemporary EU environmental policy Comprising five comprehensive parts it includes in depth case studies of contemporary policy issues such as climate change genetically modified organisms and trans Atlantic relations as well as an assessment of how well the EU is responding to new challenges such as enlargement environmental policy integration and sustainability The book's aim is to look forward and ask whether the EU is prepared or even able to respond to the new governance challenges posed by the perceived need to use new policy instruments and processes to mainstream environmental thinking in all EU policy sectors Creating Environmental Policy in the European Union A. Zito, 1999-10-28 Investigates the EU policy making process and why this process has taken major steps to advance environmental regulation in some areas and not others The book develops a framework emphasizing decision making modes which provide a more nuanced understanding compared to traditional EU theoretical approaches of how EU actors make decisions Environmental politics in the European Union Christoph Knill, Duncan Liefferink, 2013-07-19 This book provides a comprehensive introduction to the development making and implementation of European Union environmental politics and identifies the central areas and instruments of EU environmental policy It analyses the factors influencing not only the formulation but also the implementation of environmental measures in the complex multi level setting of the EU On this basis it takes a critical look at the EU s effectiveness and problem solving capacity in the environmental field Designed as a textbook at undergraduate and graduate level the book employs a clear and insightful analytical perspective based on the theoretical state of the art of EU policy studies Thus it provides an overview of the major theoretical approaches available in the field At the same time the discussion is illustrated by a broad range of empirical findings with regard to the formulation and implementation of EU environmental policy This study is an ideal companion for anyone seeking a concise and accessible introduction into EU environmental politics The Voluntary Approach to Environmental Policy Arthur P. J. Mol, Volkmar Lauber, Duncan

Liefferink, 2000-10-05 Voluntary agreements and other approaches based on co operation between public authorities and agro industrial polluters are rapidly gaining importance throughout Europe This so called Joint Environmental Policy making JEP is increasingly being presented as a third way alongside direct regulation through laws and the use of financial sticks and carrots in the form of eco taxes and subsidies Successes and failures are reported from JEP experiences in various European countries This book seeks to evaluate these experiences Is JEP really the panacea it is sometimes claimed to be To what extent does JEP actually fit into different national policy systems and cultures Is the application of JEP dependant on specific circumstances In answering these and other questions the book focuses on the forces and institutional conditions that are likely to promote the introduction determine the form and contribute to the successful functioning of JEP arrangements Against the background of both deregulation and ecological modernization tendencies in European environmental policy this book offers detailed analysis of JEP in three European countries Austria Denmark and the Netherlands and in three areas industrial energy efficiency food labelling and package waste The volume contributes to a better understanding of JEP in Europe and formulates policy recommendations for its successful implementation But it also contributes to comparative environmental policy studies in providing an innovative approach New Instruments for Environmental Policy in the EU Jonathan Golub, 1998-06-04 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the debate over new forms of environmental regulation in the EU along with recommendations for improving the next generations of environmental policies

Environmental Leaders and Laggards in Europe Tanja A. Börzel, 2017-05-15 No other European laws are so frequently violated as environmental directives This informative and illuminating volume explains why member states have repeatedly failed to comply with European Environmental Law It challenges the assumption that non compliance is merely a southern problem By critically comparing and analyzing Spain and Germany the volume demonstrates that both northern leaders and southern laggards face compliance problems if a European policy is not compatible with domestic regulatory structures The North South divide is therefore much more complex than previously thought Examining each country s capabilities of shaping European policies according to its environmental concerns and economic interests the book debates the possible outcomes if the European Union does not come to terms with the leader laggards dynamics in environmental policy making It will be a prime resource for anyone concerned with environmental policy making and law particularly within the EU as well as those interested in environmental and political geography Greening Society P.J. Driessen,P.

Glasbergen,2013-04-17 This book can be regarded as a monograph on the debates and developments in Dutch environmental policy It has been written with a specific perspective in mind First and foremost the line of approach we have taken was from a multidisciplinary social science point of view The trend in environmental policy is looked at from the angle of sociology policy studies and political science Secondly all analyses depart from the paradigm shift concept This particular paradigm shift is based on the fact that a radical change has taken shape over the years in the way environmental issues are handled Previously environmental policy had always been characterised by is top down approach in which government determined the actual objectives of policy and assumed that it could win over business non governmental organisations and citizens to act in line with those objectives There was also a great deal of faith in the technical solutions to environmental issues Today s environmental policy is based on a totally different philosophy Environmental objectives are now reached in association with business non governmental organisations and citizens These actors are also involved in bringing environmental policy into practice In other words the implementation of policy has a more interactive nature New relationships emerge between government the market and civil society and policy discourses also become integrated The environmental interest is more often weighed against the economic interests the spatial development and against social justice European

Environmental Policy Mikael Skou Andersen,Duncan Liefferink,1997 This major new literary study offers a fresh view of the significance of the famous group of fourteenth century poems Pearl Cleanness Patience and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight It is a comprehensive study which puts the poems themselves firmly at its centre though it is always alert to relevant aspects of their literary and cultural context John Anderson builds his discussions of the poems ideas on an examination of the anonymous poet s superb Shakespeare like language He finds that the great fourteenth century struggle between religious and secular forces for control of men s minds underlies all the poems This title is the first in the new Manchester Medieval Literature series which makes readability a priority Accordingly despite its wide range of reference and the radicalism of some of its leading ideas this book is written in a jargon free style designed to appeal to specialist non specialist and student readers alike New Environmental Policy Instruments in the European Union Ian Bailey, 2017-07-05 The use of legislation by EU governments to define environmental standards for industry has been criticised for its poor track record in arresting the decline in the quality of Europe's environment Environmental economists in particular have proposed that legislation should be supplemented or replaced by New Environmental Policy Instruments NEPIs such as eco taxes environmental charges tradable permits and voluntary agreements This book focuses on practical experiences with NEPIs in the EU and tests their application using the case study of the Packaging and Packaging Waste Directive It traces the ways in which member states have adapted NEPIs to suit their preferred styles of environmental policy then assesses their performance and how NEPIs have both assisted and hindered the EU environmental programme It suggests options for ensuring that the environmental programme does not become fragmented by the use of NEPIs and discusses the implications of EU enlargement

Deregulation in the European Union Ute Collier, 1998 This volume has its roots in a workshop on Deregulation and the Environment organised by the Working Group on Environmental Studies WGES of the European University Institute in Florence in May 1996 P x

British Environmental Policy and Europe Philip Lowe, Stephen Ward, 2005-08-10 Explores the effectiveness of British organisations and groups in the environmental field in responding to the challenge of European integration

Acid in the Environment Gerald R. Visgilio, Diana M. Whitelaw, 2007-04-13 The Goodwin Niering Center for Conservation Biology and Environmental Studies at Connecticut College is a comprehensive interdisciplinary program that builds on one of the nation's leading undergraduate environmental studies programs The Center fosters research education and curriculum development aimed at understanding contemporary ecological challenges One of the major goals of the Goodwin Niering Center involves enhancing the understanding of both the College community and the general public with respect to ecological political social and economic factors that affect natural resource use To this end the Center has offered five conferences at which academicians representatives of federal and state government and individuals from non government environmental organizations are brought together for an in depth interdisciplinary evaluation of important environmental issues On April 1 and 2 2005 the Center presented the Elizabeth Babbott Conant interdisciplinary conference on Acid in the Environment Lessons Learned and Future Prospects The Connecticut Institute of Water Resources at the University of Connecticut the Connecticut Chapter of The Nature Conservancy and the Connecticut Sea Grant College Program joined the Center as conference sponsors During the past twenty five years acid rain formally referred to as acid deposition has been the focus of much political debate and scholarly research Acid deposition occurs when important precursor pollutants such as sulfur dioxide SO₂ and nitrogen oxides NO_x mix with water vapor and oxidants in the atmosphere and fall back to earth in either wet or dry form

The Innovation of EU Environmental Policy Duncan Liefferink, 1997

The Global Environment Norman J. Vig, Regina S. Axelrod, 2023-04-14 All serious environmental threats are now international in scope and more than one thousand international environmental agreements already exist Yet the prospects for international cooperation leading to the management of impacts on the planet remain grim The Global Environment meets the need for an authoritative assessment of the state of international environmental institutions laws and policies at the end of the 20th century The book examines disagreements over the meaning of sustainable development problems inherent in implementing environmental policies and the conflict over the exclusion of developing countries from the Kyoto Protocol It discusses the profound trade offs that may be required the role of international financial interests in promoting incompatible forms of development and analyses international environmental institutions law and policy and sustainable development

Politics, Products, and Markets Frederick M. Wirt, 2017-07-31 In contemporary life the marketplace has emerged as an important arena for the practice of politics Concerns about personal and family well being as well as ethical or political assessment of favorable and unfavorable business and government practices become part and parcel of the marketplace of politics This volume describes this phenomenon as political consumerism reflecting an understanding of politics as a product embedded in a complex social and normative context Politics Products and Markets is the first general study of political consumerism It asks fundamental questions including what is new and what is old about the phenomenon The authors discuss the mediating role of political consumerism in the problematic relationship between markets and morality They explore whether institutional arrangements have been developed to permit consumers and producers to assume ethical responsibility for their choices and behavior They ask why political consumerism is presently on the rise And they investigate the relationship between globalization and political consumerism Part 1 Making Money Morally discusses how political consumerism challenges the perceived division between private interests pursued by private actors in the market and public interests pursued through political means Part 2 Consumer Choices and Setting of the Agenda of Politics contains examples of how political consumerism sets the agenda of politics and discusses its democratic quality Part 3 Building Responsible Institutions in Multi Risk Society has as its central theme the development of new political consumer institutions Part 4 Politicizing Consumers and Change in Politics studies the characteristics of political consumers and raises the question of whether political consumerism really is politics This volume will be of interest to social scientists social activists and policy institutes

Implementing international environmental agreements in Russia Geir Hønneland, Anne-Kristen Jorgensen, 2013-07-19 This systematic study considers how international environmental agreements are transformed into political action in Russia using three illuminating case studies on the implementation process in the fields of fisheries management nuclear safety and air pollution control It develops the social science debate on international environmental regimes and implementing activities at both national and international level to include regional considerations An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence
