Making Haste Slowly:

Making Haste Slowly David G. Sansing, 2011-09-05 A comprehensive history that reveals the intrusion of culture and politics into higher education in Mississippi Make Haste Slowly, Safely Scott Baltic, 1995 Secrets of the Proverbs 31 Woman Rae Simons, 2015-04-01 Who can find a virtuous woman for her price is far above rubies Strength and honour are her clothing and she shall rejoice in time to come a woman that feareth the Lord she shall be praised KJV This brand new devotional offering equal parts inspiration and encouragement will uncover the secrets of the Proverbs 31 woman Each reading tied to a theme from Proverbs 31 10 31 is rooted in biblical truth and spiritual wisdom You will be inspired to emulate the virtues extolled in this memorable passage of scripture as you wrap your heart in this timeless message from God's Word Making Haste Slowly David G. Sansing, 2011-09-05 The troubled history of higher education in Mississippi is a mirror image of the cultural and political dynamics that have shaped the state's history over the last two centuries The interaction between race and place the juxtaposition of wealth and poverty illiteracy and literary genius the conflict and change and continuity that mark the contours of its history have influenced the development of higher education in Mississippi In this study of the origin and evolution of the state's collegiate system David Sansing examines higher education in its broad cultural context and its elaborate involvement with the rest of society Although he focuses on one southern state he links the growth of higher education in Mississippi to both regional and national developments Sansing also contrasts the strong popular support for higher education with the general neglect of public schools a longstanding tradition in Mississippi that dates from the pre Civil War period From the antebellum artisans and the sharecroppers of the Gilded Age to the redneck farmers of the debt ridden twenties and post World War II blacks with their rising expectations Mississippians have struggled and sacrificed to send their children to college as a way up and out of poverty Sansing's history of higher education in Mississippi is the first such study since 1899 and is the most recent of the five modern state histories of higher education This path breaking study traces the gradual and often controversial expansion of Mississippi's institutions of higher learning from the founding of Jefferson College in 1802 through the sectional crisis and Civil War the Gilded Age the Great Depression the Bilbo Purge World War II the Meredith Crisis and Civil Rights Revolution Fiscal Fitness Jack Lalanne, 2008-08-21 Fiscal Fitness is the first book ever written that offers a road map to wealth and health for retirement years It's about creating the kind of quality of life that will leave you feeling good about your finances and feeling fit Fiscal Fitness is about reducing your aches and pains increasing your energy building up your finances eliminating your debts and gaining peace of mind The Oxford Dictionary of Proverbs Jennifer Speake, 2015 This unique and thoroughly revised collection contains over 1 100 of the most widely used proverbs in English drawing on the resources of the Oxford Languages team for the most up to date research Lively and compelling it is filled with favourites old and new with a strong emphasis on meanings of proverbs catalogued The Adventist home Ellen Gould Harmon White, 2001 Early American Proverbs and Proverbial

Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor s Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting s authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what s the real thing and what is spurious The American Heritage Dictionary of Idioms, Second Edition Christine Ammer, 2013 Fifteen years after the publication of the first edition of the American Heritage R Dictionary of Idioms author Christine Ammer has extensively updated and expanded her original text making over 1500 revisions and adding hundreds of new entries such as couch potato elephant in the room senior moment and think outside the box to keep up with the rapidly changing English language Painting Chinese Herbert Kohl, 2007-08-21 Describes the author s experiences with a group of young children as they shared a class in Chinese landscape painting discussing what he learned from the youngsters and the wisdom he discovered in the art s formal tenets Brother Jonathan Horatio Hastings Weld, John Neal, George M. Snow, Edward Stephens, 1842 Practical Pointers for Shorthand Students Frank Rutherford, 1904 Slow Narrative and Nonhuman Materialities Marco Caracciolo, 2022-03 2024 Barbara Perkins and George Perkins Prize Slow Narrative and Nonhuman Materialities investigates how the experience of slowness in contemporary narrative practices can create a vision of interconnectedness between human communities and the nonhuman world Here slowness is not a matter of measurable time but a transformative experience for audiences of contemporary narratives engaging with the ecological crisis While climate change is a scientific abstraction the imagination of slowness turns it into a deeply embodied and affective experience Marco Caracciolo explores the value of slowness in dialogue with a wide range of narratives in various media from prose fiction to comic books to video games He argues that we need patience and an eye for complex patterns in order to recognize the multiple threads that link human communities and the slow moving processes of climate and geological history Decelerating attention offers important insight into human societies relations with the nonhuman materialities of Earth s physical landscapes ecosystems and atmosphere Caracciolo centers the experiential effects of narrative and offers a range of theoretically grounded readings that complement the formal language of narrative theory These close readings demonstrate that slowness is not a matter of measurable time but a thickening of attention that reveals the deeply multithreaded nature of reality The importance of this realization cannot be overstated through an investment in the here and now of experience slow narrative can help us manage the uncertainty of living in an era marked by dramatically shifting climate patterns

On the Slow Train Again Michael Williams, 2011-04-07 Michael Williams has spent the past year travelling along the fascinating rail byways of Britain for this new collection of journeys Here is the train to the end of the world running for more than four splendid hours through lake loch and moorland from Inverness to Wick the most northerly town in Britain He discovers a perfect country branch line in London's commuterland and travels on one of the slowest services in the land along the shores of the lovely Dovey estuary to the far west of Wales He takes the stopping train across the Pennines on a line with so few services that its glorious scenery is a secret known only to the regulars Here too is the Bittern Line in Norfolk and the Tarka Line in North Devon as well as the little branch line to the fishing port of Looe in Cornwall rescued from closure in the 1960s and now celebrating its 150th anniversary taking families on holiday to the seaside From the most luxurious and historic aboard the Orient Express to the most futuristic on the driverless trains of London's Docklands Light Railway here is a unique travel companion celebrating the treasures of our railway heritage from one of Britain's most knowledgeable railway writers

Erasmus on His Times Desiderius Erasmus, Margaret Mann Phillips, 1967 The Adagia of Erasmus surely the original best seller was first published in 1500 It went through numerous impressions and ten major revisions in the course of Erasmus's life Its influence was incalculable It disseminated humanist learning and humanist attitudes among the new reading public to such an extent that it can be claimed as one of the books that contributed most to form the European mind The adages were proverbs or popular sayings taken from classical literature Many are part of the common stock of our speech today A necessary evil cupboard love a rare bird an iron in the fire are all to be found in the Adagia Erasmus refers each to its source then follows with a commentary on the meaning and with whatever ideas and personal observations arose from it The book's influence waned after his death
