Mulryan, 2023-09-15 French playwright novelist activist and journalist Louis Sébastien Mercier 1740 1814 passionately captured scenes of social injustice in pre Revolutionary Paris in his prolific oeuvre but today remains an understudied writer In this penetrating study the first in English devoted to Mercier in decades Michael Mulryan explores his unpublished writings and urban chronicles Tableau de Paris 1781 88 and Le Nouveau Paris 1798 in which he identified the city as a microcosm of national societal problems detailed the conditions of the laboring poor encouraged educational reform and confronted universal social ills Mercier's rich writings speak powerfully to the sociopolitical problems that continue to afflict us as political leaders manipulate public debate and encourage absolutist thinking deepening social divides An outcast for his polemical views during his lifetime Mercier has been called the founder of modern urban discourse and his work a precursor to investigative journalism This sensitive study returns him to his rightful place among Enlightenment thinkers Standing Naked Before God Molly Phinney Baskette, 2015-06-19 Confess Forget the docile confessions of

Sunday liturgy and lay it all bare before God and one another With wit grace and a healthy dose of vulnerability Molly Baskette shares the story of how her church grew in membership and fellowship through a radical style of confession This sequel to Real Good Church features First Church Somerville UCC s counter cultural practice of public confession of sin which is the most essential of the 200 turnaround practices in Real Good Church By showing up and telling the truth the whole truth our churches can finally become places of real authenticity for millennials and Gen Xers looking for a hypocrisy shedding fully integrated spirituality Includes a how to for reluctant churches and a moving anthology of testimonies <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YUXvKQ0AZJQ> feature you tube Continuing the Reformation Ruth A. Meyers, 2000-01-01 This book documents the Episcopal Church s developing focus on baptism within the context of the liturgical movement the emerging understanding of the eucharist prayer book revision and the confirmation dilemma Drawing on historical and contemporary sources the author presents a credible case in support of her belief that a baptismal ecclesiology is emerging from these events that have enabled people to accept a radically different initiatory pattern in the church This book exhibits clarity on the issues discussed with the support of solid scholarship and lucid writing The New York State Exhibitor ..., 1929 Framing Jewish Culture Simon J. Bronner, 2014-01-01 Modernity offers people choices about who they want to be and how they want to appear to others The way in which Jews choose to frame their identity establishes the dynamic of their social relations with other Jews and non Jews a dynamic complicated by how non Jews position the boundaries around what and who they define as Jewish This book uncovers these processes historically as well as in contemporary behavior and finds explanations for the various manifestations in feeling and action of being Jewish Boundaries and borders raise fundamental questions about the difference between Jews and non Jews At root the question is how Jewish is understood in social situations where people recognize or construct boundaries between their own identity and those of others The question is important because this is by definition the point at which the lines of demarcation between Jews and non Jews and between different groupings of Jews are negotiated Collectively the contributors to the book expand our understanding of the social dynamics of framing Jewish identity The book opens with an introduction that locates the issues raised by the contributors in terms of the scholarly traditions from which they have evolved Part I presents four essays dealing with the construction and maintenance of boundaries two by scholars showing how boundaries come to be etched on an ethnic landscape and two by activists who question and adjust distinctions among neighbors Part II focuses on expressive means of conveying identity and memory while in Part III the discussion turns to museum exhibitions and festive performances as locations for the negotiation of identity in the public sphere A lively discussion forum concludes the book with a consideration of the paradoxes of Jewish heritage revival in Poland and the perception of that revival by Jews and non Jews
