Mr Fussy:

Mr. Fussy Roger Hargreaves, 2010-06-10 Mr Fussy is the most persnickety person in all of Mr Men land He even dusts his flowers and irons his shoelaces So what will he do when Mr Clumsy shows up for a visit Mr. Fussy Roger Hargreaves, M. C. Hargreaves, 1980 Mr. Funny Upsets Mr. Fussy Roger Hargreaves, 1998 Mr. Fussy Adam Hargreaves, Roger Hargreaves, 2021 Mr Fussy who must organize everything into its right place has his world turned upside down when his cousin Mr Clumsy comes to visit Disability Duplicity and the Formative Cultural Identity Politics of Generation X David Bolt, 2023-09-21 Disability is history and futurity culture and society practice and theory work and play an immense desire for life by which body and mind are dragged kicking and screaming into each and every new day Using autocritical discourse analysis a new hybrid research method that combines aspects of the established methods of critical discourse analysis CDA and autoethnography this book explores the formative cultural identity politics of disability via cultural stations of UK popular culture These cultural stations include action figures children s books television miniseries comics comedy films teenage drama and sitcoms the punk rock movement and alternative comedy Although the cultural stations range from toys and comics to aggressive music and chaotic sitcoms all are considered with a focus on the language and tropes of disability Indeed most of the works are not remembered as portrayals of disability but the book s analysis reveals flash if not fleeting representations that when centralised clarify patterns of duplicity Via the language of power and the power of language all these texts are found to have contributed to the formative cultural identity politics of disability It will be of interest to all scholars and students of disability studies sociology toy studies comic studies humour studies television studies popular music studies gender studies literary studies and cultural studies Learning to Read in a New Language Eve Gregory, 2008-03-03 This book is a helpful edition to a field where there is a limited amount of good literature to support teachers dealing with second language acquisition in the classroom ESCalate Gregory s book is an important and timely contribution to the literature on literacy biliteracy second language learning and early childhood education synthesizing cutting edge research perspectives and teaching approaches in a clear and accessible way Overall it is a terrific resource Dinah Volk Across the world an increasing number of young children are learning to read in languages different from their mother tongue and there is a clear need for a book which addresses the ways in which these children should be taught Eve Gregory s book is unique in doing so Building upon the ideas proposed in Making Sense of a New World this second edition widens its scope arguing for the limitations of policies designed for monolingual minds in favour of methodologies which put plurilingualism at the centre of literacy tuition This book offers a practical reading programme an Inside Out starting from experience and Outside In starting from literature approach to teaching which can be used with individuals small groups and whole classes It uses current sociocultural theory while drawing on examples of children from America Australia Britain China France Singapore South Africa and Thailand who are engaged in learning to read nursery rhymes and songs storybooks letters the Bible and the Qur'an as well as school texts in languages they do not speak fluently Gregory argues that in order for literacy tuition to be successful reading must make sense children must feel part of a community of readers There is no common method which they use to learn but rather a shared aim to which they aspire making sense of a new world through new words Eve Gregory is Professor of Language and Culture in Education at Goldsmiths University of London
