Mr Plod And Little Noddy:

Mr Plod and Little Noddy Enid Blyton, 1995 Noddy and Mr. Plod Enid Blyton, 2002-01 Noddy, Mr Plod and the Train Robbers Enid Blyton, 1999 Puffin Good Reading Guide for Children Ruskin Bond, 2006-05 A comprehensive guide to fiction in English for readers aged four to sixteen The Puffin Good Reading Guide for Children is divided into three sections to suit every age group It has entries listing over 1000 books and is divided into categories with cross references so that children can read more in genres they like It includes both classics and the best of contemporary works and books from all over the world With an introduction by Ruskin Bond India's best known children's writer in English The Puffin Good Reading Guide is an invaluable resource for children who love books as well as for parents and friends looking for the right book for the young people in their lives Narrator's Voice Barbara Wall, 2016-01-07 Enid Blyton: The Biography Barbara Stoney, 2011-08-26 Enid Blyton is known throughout the world for her imaginative children's books and her enduring characters such as Noddy and the Famous Five She is one of the most borrowed authors from British libraries and still holds a fascination for readers old and young alike Yet until 1974 when Barbara Stoney first published her official biography little was known about this most private author even by members of her own family The woman who emerged from Barbara Stoney's remarkable research was hardworking complex often difficult and in many ways childlike Now this widely praised classic biography has been fully updated for the twenty first century and with the addition of new colour illustrations and a comprehensive list of Enid Blyton's writings documents the growing appeal of this extraordinary woman throughout the world The fascinating story of one of the world's most famous authors will intrigue and delight all those with an interest in her timeless books Holding the Blue Line in Australia Virginia Small, 2025-09-26 This book examines the portrayal of contemporary policing in New South Wales Australia by mainstream media and how its sourcing of social media influences public opinion The observable and measurable consequences of this intermingling of news content with viewpoints is that mainstream media in tandem with social media influence political leaders to respond and pivot readily towards platformed views with either quick reactions through policymaking and new or revised legislation or arbitrarily letting matters slide The phenomenon is analysed through specific case studies in the book and the complications for police media and crisis management are identified This extensive research has relevance for policing globally because mainstream media relies heavily on social media content that is instantaneous global curated and reliant on marketable and readily understood narratives The book analyses the selective process by which actors in mainstream media construct news relying on prior framing narratives and perpetuating the received opinion of social media as if it represents general belief Media framing disrupts and interrupts public understandings of the role of policing and perpetuates misunderstanding in the public arena of the institutional values and legislated responsibilities of a police force In addition strategies employed by social media activists to frame and re contextualise crisis events impact on police law enforcement operations and can hamper police
