Naar Hayisi I Was A Child Jewish:

The Decision Reuben Bibi, 2006-10 A reform Jew his Christian wife an inexplicable illness that has struck at one of their children thus begins the events that result in a search by Michael Klein for his true religious identity Michael is a reform Jew whose knowledge of Judaism begins and ends with the fact that he is Jewish by birth There are two children born to him and his wife Susan Following an agreement that they made when they married their children were to be given the choice of whether to follow the Jewish religion or the Christian or even a combination of both In the course of the marriage Michael is gradually introduced to the religion of his wife For the first time he is introduced to religious ideas which go beyond the basic notion of morality which was stressed by his parents but he still finds himself unsure of the direction he should take Without an understanding of the Judaism of his ancestors he fears making a commitment to his wife's beliefs When his son falls ill he embarks on a road of discovery through a series of chance meetings which allows him to put both faiths to the test in order for him to make the fateful decision as to which one he will choose A comparison of the two faiths is given through the review of Biblical passages through the examination of scientific theory vs religious beliefs and through an exploration of history It is a journey that will enlighten the reader with a different perspective of both Christianity and Judaism and will change his understanding of religion in general

Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context
