Prentice Hall Guide To English Literature:

Bloomsbury Guide to English Literature Marion Wynne-Davies, 1990 The new authority on English literature Prentice Hall Guide to English Literature, Joanna Baillie, Romantic Dramatist Thomas C. Crochunis, 2004-02-24 This superb collection of new essays offers a unique insight into the work of a leading women dramatist of the Romantic era Contributors offer contextual material for those new to Baillie's work examinations of the relationships between her plays and the philosophical and scientific writing of the era discussion of Baillie's theatrical methods extended interpretations of individual plays Ending years of neglect of Baillie's crucial work this volume is essential reading for those working on Romanticism women's writing or drama of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Action Poems Mary Colson, 2014-01-01 Examines action poems showing readers how to find the meaning in a poem and discussing the techniques the poets used to create them Sports Poems Mary Colson, 2014-01-01 Examines sports poems showing readers how to find the meaning in a poem and discussing the techniques the poets used to create them Acts of Narrative Carol Jacobs, Henry Sussman, 2003 This outstanding collection brings together essays that reflect on the nature of narrative literary criticism and history from a variety of theoretical and disciplinary perspectives ranging from deconstruction psychoanalysis and trauma theory to narratology technology economics and aesthetics Acts of Narrative includes responses from renowned scholars across a wide range of disciplines philosopher Jacques Derrida the literary critic J Hillis Miller W J T Mitchell well known for his reflections on the visual world and Cathy Caruth one of the founders of the field of trauma theory These essays are brilliant in their readings of other texts but are also striking in the manner in which each becomes itself a narrative performance Moreover what starts out as an exercise in theorizing and reading moves more often than not into a meditation on social and political issues crucial for our own sense of ourselves Exploring the Frontiers of Fiction: Humour, Modernism and Narrative Form in Virginia Woolf's "Jacob's Room" (1922) Lindy van Rooyen, 2012-02-15 Inhaltsangabe Introduction Virginia Woolf is not a popular writer Despite a fierce pride in her work it was never her ambition to be one Most people have heard of her work vaguely associating it with the second wave of the women's liberation movement in the 1970s and the type of fiction that is commonly called difficult and few people unfamiliar with her work would associate her reputation with humour These are some of the first impressions of a writer who is now hailed by scholars of English literature as one of the icons of modernism To speak of first impressions of Virginia Woolf's work is not as fatuous as it may seem After all Woolf's fiction was initially founded on impressions and I hope to show that one of the distinctive characteristics of her oeuvre compared to other modernists like T S Eliot W B Yeats or James Joyce is the intensely visual nature of her art Furthermore she is often associated with a movement of modern painting in the early twentieth century known as Post Impressionism including painters like C zanne Picasso and Georges Braque Finally laughter in all its registers whether merry cruel or parodic runs like a golden thread throughout the texture of her essays short stories and novels as satire does more generally throughout modernism I have chosen Virginia Woolf's third novel Jacob's Room 1922 as the focus of my study of Woolf's modernism It is not her best known novel as most critical acclaim is reserved for Mrs Dalloway 1925 or To the Lighthouse 1927 She started writing fiction in 1915 just as the First World War started and for four reasons I believe that Jacob's Room is the perfect starting point from which to survey Woolf's particular contribution to the Modernist Movement Firstly the social catastrophe associated with the First World War is widely considered to be the decisive historic event in the collective consciousness of early twentieth century Europe its effects reverberating throughout the literary and visual arts in the 1920s Secondly Jacob's Room was published in a year which falls nicely within the boundaries of the period of High Modernism which culminated in the decades between 1910 and 1930 Indeed the year of 1922 marks the publication of two other seminal modernist works T S Eliot's Waste Land and James Joyce's Ulysses Thirdly Jacob's Room is commonly regarded as Virginia Woolf's first experimental novel in which she in her own phrase Gloriana's Face S. P. Cerasano, Marion Wynne-Davies, 1992 Ten feminist materialist explorations of the oppression of women in England from the early Renaissance to the 1650s draw on women's place in courtesy books royal office drama and other social political and literary arenas Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Sport Poems Mary Colson, 2014-03-13 This book invites the reader to jump into a selection of poems about sports written by people from different places and times It gives the reader the keys needed to unlock poems It equips the reader to explore the meanings that a poem has and it explains the techniques poets use to create their effects Mapping the Modern Mind: Virginia Woolf's Parodic Approach to the Art of Fiction in "Jacob's Room" Lindy van Rooyen, 2012-05 In this study the author conducts a close reading of Virginia Woolf's first experimental novel Jacob's Room 1922 Her reading is based on the fundamental premise that the novel is an exploration of fictional form rather than an exposition of any preconceived idea Jacob's Room is an essentially modernist text and is characterised by extensive genre mixing typical of the art of fiction in the early 20th century Throughout her study the author analyses the extent to which the novel transgresses the boundaries of the novelistic genre She explores the generic interface between the novel and those genres which are deemed to be innate to Virginia Woolf's sensibility i.e. the journalistic essay biography and impressionist painting The premise of this study leads the author to read the novel on two levels of significance On the narrative surface level of the novel Woolf constructs the tragic life of a promising young Englishman Jacob Flanders who dies in the First World War Simultaneously on the metafictional level of significance Woolf through her garrulous narrator mocks and evaluates the actions of her characters experimenting with various points of view in an attempt to define the character of her protagonist Jacob's Room is thus conceived as a mental space in which a modern writer's mind is mapped The central aesthetic question which is debated in this room or forum relates to the essential art of modern fiction in general and the efficiency of characterisation in fiction in particular It is argued that Virginia Woolf probes into the epistemic question of the essence of modern man and in an attempt to capture the essence of her protagonist speculates on the corresponding literary question how and to what extent the soul of man can be represented in fiction The author uses this generic approach to the novel as a broad structuring principle for her study of Jacob's Room After discussing the socio-political context of modernism in the early 20th century including the impact of the First World War on modernist writing she focuses her study on those aspects of Woolf's fiction which are deemed fundamental to the narrative strategy in Jacob's Room i e the role and nature of Woolf's humour within the context of modernism the nodes or clusters of metaphors and symbols recurring in the text the role of the narrator as toastmaster of the debate on character and fiction in Jacob's Room the extent to which the novel parodies the new biography of the early twentieth century and the extent to which Woolf transvaluates the tools of impressionist painting into modernist fiction The Routledge Companion to Romantic Women Writers Ann R. Hawkins, Catherine S. Blackwell, E. Leigh Bonds, 2022-12-30 The Routledge Companion to Romantic Women Writers overviews critical reception for Romantic women writers from their earliest periodical reviews through the most current scholarship and directs users to avenues of future research It is divided into two parts The first section offers topical discussions on the status of provincial poets on women's engagement in children's literature the relation of women writers to their religious backgrounds the historical backgrounds to women's orientalism and their engagement in debates on slavery and abolition The second part surveys the life and careers of individual women some 47 in all with sections for biography biographical resources works modern editions archival holdings critical reception and avenues for further research The final sections of each essay offer further guidance for researchers including Signatures under which the author published and a List of Works accompanied whenever possible with contemporary prices and publishing formats To facilitate research a robust Works Cited includes all texts mentioned or quoted in the essay The Paradise Er. Vinod Kumar, 2021-08-07 Poetry is a form of literature that uses aesthetic and often rhythmic qualities of language Poetry has a long and varied history evolving differentially across the globe It emphasized the aesthetics which distinguish poetry from more objectively informative prosaic writing Poetry uses forms and conventions to suggest differential interpretations of words or to evoke emotive responses Poetry is a form of literature that evokes a concentrated imaginative awareness of experience or a specific emotional response through language chosen and arranged for its meaning sound and rhythm We are presenting here the cover of Kashmiri Author Eng Vinod Kumar's book The Paradise This is a collection of poems Milton's Century Michael R. Collings, 2013-03-20 No artist creates his works in a vacuum Beyond the conscious influence of books read artwork seen minds probed through conversation or exchange of letters writers are in no small part products of everything that surrounds them people places things events MILTON'S CENTURY is designed to place one particular genius John Milton arguably the finest poet the English nation perhaps even Western civilization has produced in the context of his time And what a remarkable time it was a century of revolutions of discoveries of literary and artistic efflorescence of religious turmoil and political turbulence of plagues and fires and ultimate rebuilding and of the first adumbrations of the Modern Age MILTON'S

CENTURY becomes vital and alive for twenty first century readers through the vast network of connections and interconnections that Professor Collings articulates Borgo Literary Guides No 15 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1898
